MEDICAL SERVICE.

Every student—and it is appropriate at this time to say—every medical student may find lying ready to his hand every day opportunities for service to his fellow students the discharge of which will do as much or more to fit him for larger service later on as any facts or theories which he may master in the laboratories or the class room. There are problems of relationship to his association, health and sanitation problems—individual or common arising in the circles in which medical students daily move. The solution of these will not only strengthen the faculties but enlarge the influence of the man whose future success rests upon his ability to see such opportunities, to grapple with such problems, and to solve them for the assistance of his fellow men whom if he is to be a true physician he lives only to serve.

The medical students who waits for the completion of his college course and his diploma to begin his contributions to the welfare and happiness of those around him has already begun burying his talents. Begin your service now and your opportunities will grow in number and importance with your certain improvement in ability.

PEP BEING SHOWN FOR BEACH DANCE TONIGHT

All Tickets, Except a Few Which Have Been Promised, Sold—Cars Leave Early.

The Sophomore Hop will be held tonight at Capital Beach. The grand march will begin promptly at 8:30. Cars will leave Tenth and O streets at 8:00 p. m. and every thirty minutes thereafter. The last car returning from the Beach will leave there at 11:45 o'clock. It was the intention of the committee to hold the dance in a hall downtown in case of rain, but this has been abandoned. The dance will be held at the Beach tonight, rain or shine. Hagensick's orchestra will furnish the music. Out of a hundred tickets there have been some ninety odd sold and from all present indications the dance will be a marked success.
