 The present system of fraternity rushing--spring rushing--has fallen in great disfavor with the fraternity men of Wisconsin University. They contend that it tends to cause freshmen as well as fraternity men to get behind in their studies at an important time of the year. They favored fall rushing unanimously. They would not return to the old system, however, but established a better method. It was suggested that rushing come about Thanksgiving time and initiation about at the beginning of the second semester. All were in favor of scholastic requirements from freshmen before initiation.
