The DAILY NEBRASKAN purposes to be the free voice of student sentiment; to be fair; to be impartial; to seek advice as well as offer it; to truthfully picture college life; to go further than the mere printing of news by standing for the highest ideals of the University; in short, to serve the University of Nebraska.

SPECIAL COMES OUT IN FULL GLORY TODAY

All That Have Helped to Bring Issue Into Existence Are in Line for Thanks.

A very large part of the credit for the success of the special Girls' Edition of the Rag is due to the work of the Black Masques, the Silver Serpents, and the girls of the regular staff, including the Misses Geraldine and Hortense Kauffman, Beth Hyde, Erma Nelson, Carrie Coman, Edna Miller, Lucy Wilson, and Ruth Squires.
All of the above mentioned people put real hard, conscientious work in on this number. In the first place, it is no light matter to run around and clean material for a newspaper. In the second place, it takes a lot of valuable time. And further, the items must be written up in shape for the press after they are taken into the office. Much interest is as a rule aroused by getting out special numbers of college papers. At least a little enthusiasm is stirred up. The Rag wishes to thank each and every one who assisted in this work. We hope that an equal amount of pep and interest will be shown by the girls in this line of work every year.

An additional amount of credit is due Miss Squires inasmuch as she, in her capacity of associate editor, was largely responsible for the work done.

SORENSEN ELECTED

known in the University for his work in dramatics. Mr. Stewart is well remembered by most students by his work in several Dramatic Club plays, and for his exceptional interpretation of "Daniel Voorhees Pike, of Kokomo, Indiana," in "The Man From Home." Stewart was president of the class of 1915 last fall, is a member of the Dramatic Club, an Innocent of next year, and a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. Stewart was associate editor of the Nebraskan last year.

R. V. Koupal stepped from second associate to first associate editor next semester. "Dick," who has been more or less of a "Jake" for this year's news-combers, worked his way from the ranks of the lowly reporter of last year. Mr. Koupal is a prominent member of the sophomore class and a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

L. O. Chatt is another man with more or less of a reputation in dramatic lines. Mr. Chatt came to Nebraska from the University of Oklahoma, where he took his A. B. degree last year. He is at present in the College of Law. He is a member of the Dramatic Club, and has had several important parts in student plays.
He represented the sophomore class in the interclass debates. Mr. Chatt is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

The business staff needs no introduction. They have worried along all this semester trying to make the "Rag" pay out. Most everybody has either been asked to subscribe by them—or has been sent a due bill for that promise to pay. Frank Perkins and Russell Clark will push the subscriptions, chase the ads, send out the bills and cut down expenses with the same fervor that has marked their work this semester.

Old Staff to Celebrate.

The last edition of the "Rag" under the present regime will be issued Friday. It is planned to have this issue a general review of the entire school year, including the social, athletic, dramatic, and departmental activities —and many, many more. As a celebration fitting to the occasion the staff has decided to have a grand hilarious time of it Saturday. They will have a picnic in the afternoon and a dance in the evening—and then—the end.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES IN STATE RECEIVE BOOKLET

Essential Features Outlined by the Chancellor—Booklet a Model of Neatness.

The four thousand high school graduates that will graduate throughout the state this spring have received a very neat little booklet prepared by the University. Registrar Greer, together with Chancellor Avery, Professor Buck, and C. L. Rein, prepared this artistic booklet with its views and reading material. The booklet is sealed with a red seal through which is a red ribbon.

That many of the young people will be encouraged to attend the University and continue their school work is the idea of those issuing the book.
