

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PROGRAM A DECIDED SUCCESS

Raymond. The smoothness and artistic interpretation of the complicated work were a triumph for Mrs. Raymond in which all the audience felt pardonable pride. The visiting soloists and orchestra joined in the applause when Mrs. Raymond was recalled after the close of the number. It is worthy of note that the principal solo work in this number was taken by a local man, Mr. Charles L. Bagley, in a manner which would do credit to any professional singer. Mr. Bagley's magnificent baritone voice was a surprise and a delight to the audience.

From the financial standpoint the May Festival was a decided success. The receipts were sufficient to cover all expenses aside from local management, and the guarantee fund which was set aside last year by the Board of Regents will not be needed to make up a deficit for the entertainment.

Incidentally the festival is a bit of advertising which will be of great value to the University. Several eastern musical journals have made mention of our interest in better music, and the phenomenal success of the undertaking is bound to bring credit to the institution which fastened it.

CAPT. HUGH RODMAN

Captain Rodman, U. S. N., will be the real boss of the Panama canal when it is opened for commercial shipping, presumably next July, and will have entire charge of all the details of putting ships through. He is head of the department of canal operation and for several months has been training the pilots. Captain Rodman graduated in 1880, and has spent most of the time since at sea. He was with Dewey in Manila bay.

Missouri.

Two hundred and twenty-three visitors registered at the fifth annual Journalism Week of the university, which closed Friday night. Besides these there were many who failed to register.
