MILITARY COMPET
the official close of the drill year. But the parade is the real close. Not until everyone has gone home and the Company "Q" celebration is a matter of history is the drill year at an end. The squad "Compet" was a glorious success. It is to be hoped it will be made an annual affair. Corporal Gentry of Company "M" won first place and the cup with a total of 308 points. Corporals George and Miller of Companies "A" and "I" were a close second and third with 301 and 298 points, respectively.

GIRLS' CLUB VOTES RAISE IN ANNUAL DUES
Thirty-five Cents Insufficient to Run Club—Decide to Raise to Fifty Cents.

The mass meeting of the Girls' Club yesterday morning was for the purpose of raising dues of the club for next semester. It is found that the 35 cents which has previously been the fee was insufficient for the needs of the club. The meeting was called for last Thursday, but because of the numerous other meetings that morning nothing was accomplished. Yesterday it was voted to raise the dues to 50 cents.

A campaign for membership will be begun soon after the beginning of the term next year. Dues for the Y. W. C. A. and the Girls' Club will be paid jointly, if the girls wish, or separately as they choose. Annoyance has heretofore been felt by the girls at being frequently "dunned" by these organizations. This plan will do away with such complications.

COMPANY "Q."
Tonight the boys go on a tear To shake the earth and rend the air With cheers and songs with versions new. To show the town our Company "Q." They all will wear their nighties white And make an awful, ghostly sight. Twelfth street is the honored place Where Company "Q" will start the race. From there they'll go, we know not where, But they will be most everywhere. Of course, the cars will have to stop, And they won't care for law or cop; But they are square and on the level, Though they seem to raise the dickens. To all the shows they'll pay a visit; To hotels, too, for they can't miss it; And drug stores, too, will get their share. For Company "Q" will take a dare. Seniors, frats and freshman barbs Will all be out in (k)nightly garbs. So grinds, and profs, and co-eds, too, Come out and watch our Company "Q." RUDD.

Notice This Opportunity.
A free room in the "North Side Settlement House" may be secured by two young ladies who are willing to give a few hours each week to settlement work during the summer school. See H. W. Caldwell or Miss Helen Gregory as soon as convenient in regard to work, etc.

Porifiro Diaz, jr., son of the former president of Mexico, is in Toronto in company with Col. Antonio Del Rio, a representative of the Mexican constitutionalists.

SUMMER SESSION WILL COMMENCE JUNE EIGHTH
Large Number of State Teachers Expecting to Attend—Week After Examinations.

The summer session of the University of Nebraska commences the week following the examinations. On Monday, June 8th, the students of the summer session will attend classes even though the seniors will be winding up their affairs and graduating. Registration will be held the last of the week in order to prevent any undue interference with commencement. The essential purpose of the summer session is to give the teachers throughout the state an opportunity to build up their training along lines which they find necessary.

UNIVERSITY BAND MAKES HIT AT CONVOCATION
Appreciative Crowd Refuses to Leave Hall After the Last Piece is Played.

The University Band played before a very small assemblage yesterday morning in Memorial Hall. Besides the following four scheduled pieces, Overture—"Oberon," by Weber; "A Little Story," by Zimmerman; "The Swan," by Saint Saens, and the waltz "Il Bacio," by Ardit, the band played the old favorite college tune and medley. The audience showed its appreciation by refusing to leave when the last piece of music on the program had been played.

THE "Bradley" KNIT WEAR

A COLLEGE man is fonder of his sweater than of any other garment. This is why you should wear a "Bradley." It's worthy of your regard. It's a friend that will stand by you all during your college course. It's made of the "stuff" that will never go back on you—that will stand all you can give it and never lose its shape or newness.

HERE we illustrate the Bradley Jumbo—a big heavy-weight, made of big, warm yarn. It is a fine-looking garment—looks its warmth and comfort. College men everywhere pronounce it a corking style.

If your dealer cannot supply you, we will send the names of dealers who will.
