MISSIONARY CAMPAIGN IS NOW ON

The Y. W. C. A. missionary campaign was set in motion on Monday by Mr. Blanchard resigned his position to accept a position with the Nebraska State Journal. Mr. Blanchard was a member of the Journal staff for two years after leaving school.

Miss Gladys Simpkins of Fairbury will be married Wednesday, October 7, to Murro Van Meter of New York. Her sister Georgia will be married at the same time to Frank Hood of Texas. Miss Helen Blish and Glenn D. Bennett will be married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blish, in Kansas City, Mo., on October 25. Paul and Bertha Luckey, who have been studying in Goettingen, Germany, for over two years, have returned to Lincoln and are at the home of their parents, Professor and Mrs. G. W. A. Luckey. They witnessed the mobilization of thousands of German soldiers and saw the people of the empire preparing for the struggle against the allies. They saw bandages and clothing being made for the soldiers, and on their way home they stopped for a short time in England, where they saw the attitude of the people who had entered into the struggle calmly, but were becoming more excited as the conflict progressed. Mr. Luckey and Miss Luckey thought that they were safe in Germany, but decided to return to the United States because the work of the German universities had been demoralized by the war.

a large group of live Nebraska girls who are interested in raising $1,500 for the support of Miss Grace Cuppock, general secretary of Y. W. C. A. work in China. Tuesday will be a big day especially devoted to acquainting University women with Miss Cuppock's work. An especially attractive vesper service has been planned as an opening event. Miss Blanchard, national secretary for State University Young Women's Christian Associations, will speak in the association rooms at 5:00 on the topic "The Nebraska Girl in China."

A picnic supper will be served at 6:00 in the armory. Miss Mayhew, who recently occupied the position of national director of physical training in the Y. W. C. A. work of China, will be a guest of the Nebraska association this week. She will speak both at vespers and at the supper.

Miss Blanchard has been secured at this time by a special effort. Her wide experience made her very able to bring a message of the value of service home to busy college girls. She is interested in China and will give salient features of the life of Chinese women, their need for help at this time and the particular duty which girls with the privileges of a college education have toward these women.

Miss Blanchard will speak after the Dutch supper in the armory. Concrete instances of Miss Cuppock's life and work will be given. A full account of the campaign, its purpose and special features will receive attention. The present campaign marks the progress the Nebraska association has made since its establishment. It means that the Nebraska association will take a leading place and will be looked to as an example of splendid enthusiasm and strength. It means, too, that the individual members feel their responsibility more strongly and that there is unity of aim for the association.
