A rally for all Sophomore men will be held in the Armory at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. The object of this meeting will be to stir up enthusiasm for the Olympics which are to be held next Saturday morning. The tryouts for the various boxing and wrestling events will be held at that time. The Sophomores have an excellent chance of winning this year and every man should be on hand Wednesday evening to do what he can and show a little spirit.

Farm Convocation.

FARMER STUDENTS PUBLISH MAGAZINE

"The Agriculture" Now Out—Full of Good Things for Students as Well as Farmers.

The October issue of The Agriculture, a magazine published by the Nebraska University agriculture students, and devoted to agricultural progress, is full of good things.

In this number Prof. J. R. Cooper tells of the necessity of disinfectants and covers for wounds on fruit trees. A fruit grower may gain much valuable information from this article, which explains how to treat these wounds—the process of sterilization and materials used so that the tree may not be injured.

Boyd Rist, U. of N. '16, in his article entitled "Distribution of Groceries," gives some interesting statistics with regard to the number of groceries in Lincoln in proportion to the people, how these groceries are supported and their expenditures.

The farmers of the state may gain some very helpful suggestions from R. O. Smith's discussion of the application of plant physiology to agriculture. He says that a farmer should understand plant physiology just as he does animal breeding, inasmuch as profitable stock raising depends absolutely on the crops raised.

Other interesting articles are "The Sewage Farm of Nottingham, England," by Arthur G. George, U. of N.

'13; "Methods of Selecting Seed Corn," by F. D. Keim, and notes on the 1914 State Fair.

Plans for a practical root and apple storage house are fully explained, with accompanying drawings, by Ivan D. Wood, Department of Agricultural Engineering, University of Nebraska.

The girls will probably be interested in the Home Economics page, which tells where the last year's graduates are and what they are doing.

Other interesting notes of The Agriculture are "Campus Gleanings," the editorials, and School of Agriculture and Alumni Notes.

TICKETS GO FAST FOR FIRST DANCE

Only Few Tickets For Big Hop—Will be Held at Lindell Hotel the Twenty-third.

Tickets for the Engineers' Hop can now be obtained by any student of any college in the university, provided said student possesses, and is willing to depart from, the modest sum of one bean and a half. Up to the present time the sale of tickets has been restricted to Engineers, but beginning with today all comers who possess the coin are eligible to buy tickets.

The Engineers' Hop is the big opening event of the social season at Nebraska and promises to be well attended. Something very new and nifty has been provided in the way of programs and decorations, and Cliff Scott's syncopated orchestra has been secured to furnish the music. Whether Scott will play any of his original Kosmet Music for the occasion is not known, but it is certain that if he doesn't he will produce something just as good.

Tickets may be obtained from Chairman R. P. Wagner, Kirk Fowler, and A. A. Luebs for $1.50. The dance will be held at the Lindell, October 23.

Woman Suffrage.

Mrs. A. E. Sheldon will speak at the Tuesday evening vesper service on "Woman Suffrage." Her talk will be from the point of view of the woman in the home. It is expected to be a very helpful preliminary to the present lively discussion.

OPEN MEETING HELD FOR THE FARMERS

Alpha Zeta Organization Holds Meeting—Big Oyster Supper Followed the Meeting.

Saturday evening at the Farmhouse the Alpha Zeta organization held an open meeting for the students of the college of agriculture. An address by the president, C. W. Smith, in which he brought out the standards of the society was first on the program. This was followed by a vocal solo by R. E. Holland. Dean Burnett of the college then delivered an address to the students in regard to the workings of the college and especially the college of agriculture. After this address the students had an informal meeting where everyone got acquainted with someone else and had a short talk with their new acquaintances. Everyone then journeyed to the Home Economic Hall and was treated to an oyster stew prepared by the fair maidens of that department. A very fine time was reported by everyone.

GOOD MATCHES IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Number of Contestants Narrowing Down—Several Good Matches to be Played Today.

There were several good matches played yesterday afternoon in the Tennis Tournament. The first round has almost been finished, while several men are in the third round. Two of the interesting matches yesterday were those between Ellis and Line and the one between Chatt and Schmidt. Ellis succeeded in downing the Peru player in straight sets, winning 6-0 and 6-3. Chatt had difficulty in defeating Schmidt, losing the first set 7-5, but winning the next two 6-3 and 6-2. Ellis, the present state champion will probably play his second match today.

All the students are at liberty to watch the play in the present tournament. The courts are busy all afternoon each day and are located just east of the football field.

Dr. Maxey informs us, "That the only inducement offered by the athletic board to get 'Cub' Potter back for the football squad, was the promise made, by those in authority, that the field would be named after him." From now on "Potter's Field."

Student Preaching.

Eric Nusbaum, alumnus and former scholar in the political science and sociology department, is now preaching at Bangston and Elkhorn.

CLASS IN STOCK JUDGING TAKE TRIP

Took in Several County Fairs on Friday and Saturday—Fifteen Men Make Trip.

Friday and Saturday of last week the class in fat stock judging under the direction of Prof. Howard J. Gramlich visited the county fairs at Fairbury and York for the purpose of practice judging. During the two days forty-four classes were judged.

The class this year is composed of fifteen men, all Juniors and Seniors, from which six will be chosen to represent Nebraska at the Royal Stock Show at Kansas City, November 16, and at the International Fat Stock Show at Chicago, November 18. The class is the largest that has ever worked out and Prof. Gramlich has been spending much time and effort in directing the work of the class and giving them considerable practical training. The prospects are good for a strong team this fall.

M. V. MEET AT AMES

ANNUAL MISSOURI VALLEY MEET TAKES PLACE NOVEMBER 7.

RUNNERS PLAY HARE & HOUND

Large Number of Candidates For Places on the Varsity Team—Other Meets at Chicago, Omaha and K. C.

By H. I. Kyle.

Not since the days of the marvelous Louie Anderson, have the prospects for a winning cross-country been so bright as they are right now, is the opinion of Captain Hank Goetze, the attenuated leader of the greyhound squad. Every afternoon, rain or shine, the faithful band of runners meets at the gym, and from there, take a long exploring trip into the untamed rural districts, shocking the "cows and chickens" along the way. Each man carries his arms at his side in case of emergency. Many of these intrepid athletes have penetrated the country for a distance of five or six miles, and all report that they have noticed signs of civilization, even that far from our cultural center. One actually went to the limit of asserting it to be his belief that a "mild" form of civilization existed almost to the outskirts of Omaha, where the Burlington railroad crosses the Missouri river. However, he is known to be a radical fellow, much inclined to exaggerate.

The old English sport of Hare and Hounds has been introduced into the training schedule, this fall, with splendid results. Two of the speediest runners are given bags filled with bits of paper, and sent on their way. They choose their course, which they indicate.

REGULAR MEETING BY TEGNER SOCIETY

Swedish Society Holds Pleasant Gathering—Miss Munson Gives Address on Travel.

The Tegner society held its regular meeting Saturday evening at the Y. W. C. A. rooms. An enjoyable program was rendered, the special attraction being a talk by Miss Munson on her trip east last summer. In her talk she mentioned Columbia University where she studied. Miss Munson placed special emphasis on the fact that after all Nebraska University was very good and was so recognized in the eastern states.

After the program the usual social hour was spent in singing the Swedish national airs and playing Swedish games. Five new members were taken into the society, the new members are: Elvira Johnson, Helen Sohlberg, Arthur Seaberg, Oscar Nelson, and Clinton Cull. A very pleasant evening was reported by all present and a banner year is prophesied for the society.
