In the Armory at 7:00 o'clock. All sophomores should be on hand to discuss the free-for-all and pushball contests and declare their intentions of getting out next Saturday. Thank you; now do your part. We will have to go some to beat the freshmen this year, inasmuch as we are greatly outnumbered.

SYMPHONY ANALYSIS CONVOCATION THURSDAY

Professor Dann to Repeat Lecture of Last Saturday—Convocation to Be Held in Art Hall.

In order to give a larger number of students a chance to hear Professor Dann's analysis of the second Beethoven Symphony, Professor Dann has been asked to repeat his analysis of last Saturday, which he presented in the form of an informal talk interspersed with piano illustrations. He has consented to do this at the Thursday convocation hour. The second symphony is very beautiful and well deserves an intimate study. The four movements are strikingly different. The Larghetto will doubtless be recognized by many, as it is often played as a separate number on account of its unusual beauty.
Convocation will take place in Art Hall instead of in the Armory.
