Postmortems and Prophecies By H. I. KYLE.

His nose was broken and bloody
 Yet crinkled with haughty scorn.
 His face was painted and muddy.
 His clothing was tattered and torn.

His arms were out of their sockets,
 His eyes were black as the night;
 Full of sand and sawdust his pockets—
 He looked like he'd been in a fight.

But, Oh, he is happy, so happy.
 Although he is crippled and lame;
 He's bought him a bright green cappy,
 And fought in the push-ball game.

And now the Chicago scribes have explained Nebraska's victory. "The Michigan Aggies," according to the wise ones, "were limping and weary from their fierce struggle with the Wolverines." It is remarkable that that fact escaped the notice of Coach Macklin. Strangely enough, he thought his team was in fine condition.

War Stuff.

There's a cannon on our campus,
 With its muzzle full of mud.
 I wonder if it ever took
 Its toll of human blood?

It seems so meek and gentle now,
 Not like a real gun;
 I can't believe it ever took
 The life of anyone.

Yet, when I read about the wars
 That rage in other lands,
 Where helpless ones are crushed beneath
 Despotie Iron hands,

A sense of safety o'er me comes;
 Of deep security,
 To know the gun is here in case
 Of an emergency.

The Alumni of the University of California have organized to secure a bond issue of more than one million dollars for the benefit of the University.—Creighton Chronicle.

PROOF POSITIVE

Mrs. Hardfare—Are you sure he loves you, daughter?
 Daisy—Yes'm. He said if I'd marry him that you could come and live with us.

POOR WILLIE

"You must excuse me, Willie. Pop wouldn't buy me a punchin' bag an' I got to practise on sumpin'!"

Inspiration.

"You can't write verse on some subjects. Now, for instance, what poetry is there in a pork chop?"
 "I can see you've never been real hungry."—Judge.

Two thousand Chinese students are studying in the United States this year at various universities. The Chinese government sends these students to this country in consideration of the remission by the United States government of the $20,000,000 Boxer Rebellion indemnity.—Creighton Chronicle.

Illinois Contests Cornell's Claim to Biggest Armory.

Bids have been awarded at Cornell University for the construction of a gigantic new Armory, which is to be 412 feet long, 228 feet wide and four stories high. It will be built of gray stone.

It is claimed that this will be the largest college armory in the country, but the Illinois Armory, which is nearing completion, is 419 feet by 276 feet, making it considerably larger than the structure Cornell expects to build.—Daily Illini.

TURN YOUR SHIRT-TAILS INTO DRAWERS

OLUS

IN OLUS the outside shirt and underdrawers are one garment.

This means that the shirt can't work out of the trousers, that there are no shirt tails to bunch in seat, that the drawers "stay put," to say nothing of the comfort and economy of saving a garment. OLUS is coat cut, opens all the way down—closed crotch, closed back. See illustration.

For golf, tennis and field wear, we recommend the special attached collar OLUS with regular or short sleeves. Extra sizes for very tall or stout men. All shirt fabrics, in smart designs, including silks—$1.50 to $10.00.

OLUS one-piece PAJAMAS for lounging, resting and comfortable sleep. Made on the same principle as OLUS-Shirts—coat cut, closed back, closed crotch. No strings to tighten or come loose. $1.50 to $3.50.

Ask your dealer for OLUS. Booklet on request.
