ELLIS WINS MATCH

DEFEATS CHATT IN TENNIS
FINALS FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

FAST BATTLE DECIDED MATCH

Ellis Duplicates Thursday's Play by Winning in Straight Sets—Fast
Play Throughout Tournament.

At 2 o'clock Friday afternoon the final match in the University Tennis Tournament was played on the University courts. The weather was ideal for tennis, notwithstanding the lateness of the season. The contestants in the finals were Orville Chatt and Harry Ellis. These two players successfully survived the five rounds and met each other for the championship of the University and the coveted letter "N." The play was close and fast throughout the match and very interesting for those who had come out to witness the battle. Chatt's service was very effective, particularly in the first set. His overhead work on returns was not up to his usual form however, thus allowing Ellis to come up to the net to advantage time after time. Chatt's driving to the base line was excellent, as it has been throughout the tourney. Ellis served very effectively from the south side especially, covered the court well, and was "right" on ground strokes. Ellis has won the state tournament for the past two years and is undoubtedly one of the best players in the Missouri valley. The final score was 6-4, 6-2 and 6-3, the playing being much closer than the score would indicate.

The tournament which is thus brought to a close is the best one ever held here. Thirty-five men entered and the quality of playing was, on the whole, excellent. Nebraska will undoubtedly have a good team in the spring to represent her in several dual meets which will be arranged and in the Missouri Valley Tournament. The selections for the team will be difficult to make as several of the men are about on a par.

In the spring a ladies' tournament, a mixed doubles, and men's doubles tournament will be held.

STUDENTS VOTE BY MAIL TUESDAY

University Removal Question to be Decided—All Students Should Vote For or Against it.

Tomorrow the University Removal Question will be decided. Every student should voice his sentiments one way or another because the students are particularly concerned in the matter. By the new voting law all students may vote by mail by merely going to the polls and filling out the blank. All information may be secured from judges at the election booths.

Every student in the University should take the time to go to the polls and fill out the blank. It makes no difference whether you are for removal or for campus expansion you should at least lend your aid to the settlement of this question once and for all. The University of Nebraska is bound to be greatly benefited no matter which way the question is decided.

ber of Kearney Students.

The Kearney club held a party in the Y. W. C. A. rooms of the Temple Saturday evening and the Kearneyites enjoyed themselves as only the Kearneyites know how. The former Normal students became acquainted with the state students and a mixture that resulted in a very good time was the result. The club played indoor games and enjoyed themselves very much. They will continue to hold parties and dances all through the winter.

JOHN H. MOREHEAD
Nebraska's Business Governor
Candidate for Re-election

When Governor Morehead first received the Democratic nomination for the position he now holds, he was presented to the people as a practical business man who would give to the state a practical business administration. He has effected an economy never before equalled in our state government.

When Aldrich was governor, it cost $18.89 a month to maintain each inmate of the eleven principal state institutions. During the Morehead administration it has cost $16.89. With 4,023 inmates, this makes a monthly saving of $7,805, or a total of over $187,000 during the present governor's first term of office.

The first appropriation was made to be used in experimenting with the

HUSKER MEN BUSY

TAKEN BEFORE CHRISTMAS.

THEY PROMISE EARLY ISSUE

Many Snap Shots and Jokes as Well as New Features Promised—
Business Staff Also Busy.

"While it is not absolutely certain on what day the 1915 Cornhuskers will be ready for distribution, I think we are safe in saying that they may be obtained some time between the middle of March and the first of April," said Manager Poteet this morning.

The business staff is already as hard at work as are the editors of this book and it seems that with such combined efforts as they are making nothing short of success can result. There is an opportunity for all students who have any talent along the lines of art or drawing to get some of their work into this year's Cornhusker. Any aspiring artist who will leave his work at the business office of the 'Husker' in the Awgwan office, may be assured that it will receive flattering attention and consideration.

Arrangements have been made with the photographers to the effect that any Junior or Senior who secures a dozen photographs for $3.00 may, for the same price, get a cut for his picture in the annual. All pictures taken before December 1 will be gotten out in time to be used as Christmas presents should one so desire.

The kodak fiend, who is usually regarded as a necessary evil, will find that his acquaintance is desired and that he will be warmly received at the Cornhusker office. Here he may leave for publication at the discretion of the editors any or all of the results of his maraudings. A large number are expected to respond and many appropriate snapshots will be shown.

THIRD NUMBER OF AWGWAN OUT FRIDAY

Full of the Usual Line of Good Stuff
—Called the "Prof's Number"— Cartoons Especially Good.

The third number of the "Awgwan" for this year, the Prof's Number, came out Friday. It far outshines all previous numbers. On the cover is an excellent cartoon of Dean Engberg, by L. E. Slack, with the caption: "The Campus Kaiser." The editorials of this number are especially good, dealing with one of the most vital university questions, a Nebraska union. With the editorials are two letters from prominent university men, expressing their favor of Awgwan's editorial campaign for an all university hop.

The cartoons are unusually clever and to the point. All in all it sets a standard that Awgwan will have hard work to maintain.

The number of cartoonists, paragraphers in the school this year is unusually large, and their work is of the keenest. Awgwan this year promises to set a high water mark for a humorous publication at Nebraska.

Amos Thomas, '09, is connected with the Douglas county republican central committee and has been active in the present campaign in Omaha.

WHY I AM FOR HOWELL.

By C. A. Sorensen.

Pres. University Non-partisan Howell
Club.

Someone has dubbed me a "Wilson-Howell-Progressive-Platformite." I offer no apology. At least being thus branded, no one will assert that this article is written to promote any particular party. Certainly the term will make clear that the writer is by nature a ballot-scratcher.

Candidates from road overseer to governor come to the supporters of Woodrow Wilson with these words: "Elect us, for we wear Wilson buttons, we pray in his name." But it may be asked, shall men be elected to state and county office because perchance they bear the party label of a deservedly popular president? Must we also elect a certain man coroner because his church affiliation is the same as that of the secretary of state? What connection has the governor with national legislation that he should be elected, not on his merits, but because he happens to have the same views on the tariff as the chief

TWO PLACE KICKS-HALLIGAN

Cornhuskers Fail to Strike Their Winning Stride in the First
Three Quarters, But Come Back Strong in Last.

By H. I. Kyle

Still floats the banner of Scarlet and Cream in unsullied triumph over the Missouri Valley. Again an invading hayseed horde has been hurled back, defeated. Only the strong and cunning Jayhawk stands between us and that, much coveted, prize—the Conference championship. With little Morningside next Saturday, to get us in trim for the "Home-coming" Kansas game, the road to victory lies broad and certain before us.

The score, Saturday, was 20 to 7, for the Cornhuskers. At the opening of the final quarter it stood 7 to 3 for Ames. It took the Halligan clan a long time to wake up to the seriousness of the situation, but when they did, ah, then it was that they showed their opponents and the pleading spectators the stuff that won for them against the Michigan Ags. Taking the ball on Nebraska's 13-yard line, the Cornhusker machine, with Hawkins at the wheel, swept, irresistibly down the field to a touchdown. Then they went back and did the same thing over again. A third time, in the final minutes of play, they threatened the Farmer goal, but were stopped by a 15-yard penalty. Captain Halligan then dropped back and scored his second placekick of the game, the first coming in the first period and from the Aggies' 40-yard line. Both kicks were beautifully executed.

To Dick Rutherford goes the honor of having scored the first touchdown. Following a splendid 25-yard pass, Chamberlain to Howard, the fighting halfback plunged through the derelict Aggie defense till the last line was crossed. A little later, Chamberlain smashed his way through for 19

TEGNER IN PEN WOODS SATURDAY

Have Hallowe'en Party at Branson's
Cottage—Spooky Time Enjoyed by All Present.

The Tegner Society held a Hallowe'en party at Branson's cottage in Pen Woods Saturday evening. The witches were present with their broom sticks and the black cats were doing their worst to scare the brave ones that endeavored to break the magic spell. No one was reported to have been unduly scared but several of them will no doubt remember their experiences and wonder how they did manage to escape. A spooky time was had by all present and the Tegner society is sure on to the stunt of putting on a good party as will be attested by all who were present Saturday evening.

The dramatic section of the Association of the Collegiate Alumnae of Omaha met Thursday to plan for the year's work. Mrs. J. M. Bateman is leader of the department.
