ALUMNUS SENDS CLIPPING

Kansas City Times Deals at Length on Approaching Game—Will be the Big and Deciding Game of the Missouri Valley.

The following letter and clipping speak for themselves:

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 2, 1914.
Sporting Editor,
The Daily Nebraskan,
Lincoln, Nebr.

Dear Sir:
The attached clipping is from the Kansas City Times of even date and may be of interest to you.

There are several of us here who would give a good deal to get up to a game or so but can't make it, we are however, pulling for Nebraska all the time.

Yours very truly,
WAYNE T. CARROLL, '12.

"As a result of the Nebraska-Ames game Jayhawker rooters probably have taken heart, figuring perhaps that the Cornhuskers aren't nearly so invincible as the Michigan Aggie game would indicate. For three quarters the Iowa Aggies were out in front of the vaunted Huskers, 7 to 3, but the Nebraskans turned in the final fifteen minutes and raced to a 20 to 7 victory. A week before Ames had whipped Missouri, 6 to 0, and now the K. U. rooters possibly will figure that if Ames could hold Nebraska to three points in forty-five minutes of play the hefty Jayhawkers will have a good chance when they invade Lincoln November 14.

"But there is another angle of the Nebraska-Ames game. The Stiehm roller was without the services of the versatile Potter, a fine quarter back and director of the lay. Potter is said to be out of the game on account of parental objections. Not until the last quarter, when Hawkins replaced Caley at quarter, did the Lincoln eleven start on its way to victory. Most certainly Potter was missed. Those who saw the Nebraskans at Manhattan will remember what a versatile whirlwind offense the Nebraskans turned loose against the Aggies. Also those who witnessed the Nebraska charge against the Wash-

CLASSES EXCUSED TODAY.

That is Some of Them—Instructors in Omaha For Teacher's Association Meeting.

Owing to the absence of instructors attending the Nebraska State Teacher's Association being held in Omaha a good many of today's recitations will not be heard. Announcement was made beforehand to the several classes by their instructor.

PROMOTIONS COMING TO FAITHFUL MEN

Places of Sergeants and Corporals to Be Filled Soon—Application Blanks Secured From Major.

The military department recently issued the following order, which is due to the fact that the recruit companies are being dissolved into the regular companies:

"Application blanks for promotion to the rank of sergeant and corporal may be obtained from the major. Any man having one year's drill or the equivalent credit is eligible for a corporality. Any man having two years' drill or the equivalent credit is eligible to a sergeancy. These applications must be made out and turned in to the colonel or one of the majors."

GIRLS' CLUB WILL SEND TWO DELEGATES

National Convention Will Be Held in Evanston, Ill.—Annual Luncheon on Day of Kansas Game.

The Girls' Club board met the other evening and decided upon several important matters. Two delegates will be sent from the University, with all expenses paid, to the Girls' Club convention to be held in Evanston, Ill., soon.

The annual girls' luncheon will occur on the day of the Kansas game, the price not to exceed fifty cents.

It was also decided that there will be a big Cornhusker party like the one last year, on the night of December 4th. The plans for this party are being very carefully laid and we hope for a big affair.

A Christmas party was suggested, but nothing definite decided with regard to it. Announcements concerning these various affairs will be made later.

THE STATE TEACHERS

MEET IN OMAHA TODAY AND TOMORROW.

UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS GO

Many of the Faculty Left Last Night—Dr. Condra's Picture Machine in Operation There.

A number of the faculty, including Professors Fogg, Condra, Bengston, Grumann, Caldwell, Persinger, Buck, Sherman, Jensen, Pool, Wolcott, Bessey, among others, are attending the annual meeting of the Nebraska State Teacher's Association being held today and tomorrow in Omaha. Each of the above professors are taking a prominent part in the general workings of the convention besides delivering a lecture each dealing with that particular course of study in which he is most efficient.

In glancing through the program the fact that University instructors are taking the most leading part in the general workings of the association is quite evident. Prof. Caldwell is president of the history division, Dr. Knight of the medical, Prof. Gardner of the agriculture, and Prof. Bangston of geography and nature study.

Among the interesting features of today's program are lectures by Prof. Condra on Industrial Nebraska. A visit to the Arizona desert by Dr. Bessey, Argumentation by Prof. Fogg, The Formal Side of English Teaching by Prof. Buck. Another talk which will be of interest and instructive to teachers is that of Prof. Reed on Closer Affiliation Between the University and the High School.

SENIOR FOOTBALL ARTISTS THINKING

Express Themselves as Being Confident of Victory—Team Being Coached by K. C. Fouts.

The Seniors are very confident that they will triumphantly beat the lower classes to a frazzle in football this season. Chairman Harley says: "I can see no reason why we can not win. Most of our old men are back." The line-up so far is Bartley, Kiefer, Sadelek, Sevemeyer, Southwick, Lapes, Wtakens, and Neighbors. Others are being tried out by Kenneth C. Fouts, who will coach the team.

There will be a meeting next Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the east end of the Armory. Everybody is urged to be out to boost things along and work up a bully good spirit.

FRESHMEN REQUIRED TO DO EXTRA WORK

If They do Not Report Their Time Will Be Doubled—Excuses Are in Order For Light Sentences.

Freshmen, who were to make up extra drill last Friday evening will have the opportunity to make it up at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening. If they present a good excuse their extra time will not be doubled but if they cannot secure a reprieve for absence they will have the honor of doing double time. The commandant is desirous that each member taking drill should see that no more drills than what are absolutely necessary should be missed. If the one who has extra drill to do is not present at the time designated, his time will be doubled and each following miss will be twice that of the preceding time. Beware you Frosh or you will be drilling out doors in mid-winter.

A SECRET PRACTICE

STIEHM INSTRUCTS MEN BEHIND CLOSED GATES.

SCRUBS BATTLE FRESHMEN

Frosh Team Uses Forward Pass Effectively—Cadets go Through Some Peculiar Maneuvers on the Field.

By H. I. Kyle.

Yesterday, for an hour, the coaches and the squad held a secret practice session, during which the varsity was instructed in the intricacies of several new plays, to be used against the beefy Jayhawkers, on November 14th, after which, the gates were thrown open to the public.

The program for the rest of the afternoon was a spirited scrimmage between the scrubs and the freshmen, with the firstlings imitating the maneuvers of the K. U. bunch, as Hoeffel saw them in the Kansas-Oklahoma game, last Saturday. Contrary to expectations, the Freshmen used the forward pass repeatedly, sandwiching with wide end runs, and off-tackle plays. Straight line bucks were tried only when the goal was in sight.

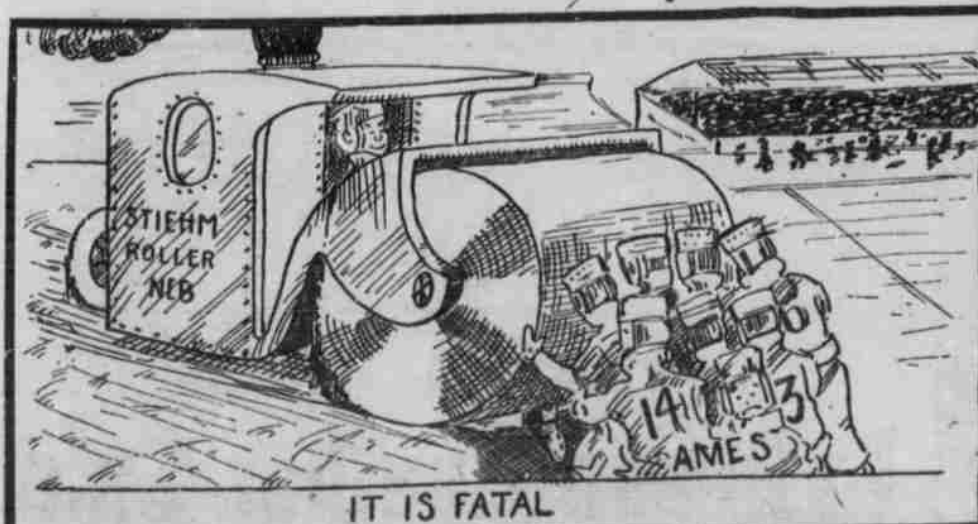

Johnny Cook, operator of the Frosh juggernaut, suffered the misfortune of having his sweater torn from his back, early in the encounter, necessitating his removal from the scene of action. Johnny's splendidly developed back and shoulder muscles were the subject of much admiring comment, as he left the field. "Midget" Kelly went in as quarter, and executed several long end runs, while the scrubs were standing around, wailing "Has Anybody Here Seen Kelly," or words to that effect. Meanwhile the regulars enjoyed the superlative pleasure of watching somebody else do it. They strode proudly down the field, in the wake of the battle, commenting, critically, on the plays and players before them.

After a time, Coach Stiehm assembled his varsity machine, and chased it through a stiff signal practice. Hawkins doing the calling, until the sun went down, and the cows came home, and the chickens went to roost; then he allowed them to retire to the bath house.

Promptly at 5 o'clock the Standing Army of the University, armed to the teeth (Continued on page four)
