Athletic Department
 Postmortems and Prophecies By H. I. KYLE.

Lincoln High School will meet Beatrice High, with the high school championship of the state at stake. Dope favors the local team, by virtue of her decisive victory over Hastings, which team, later held Beatrice to a scoreless tie. Both teams are confident of victory, and a tremendous struggle is expected.

Twenty times, in the past, the Jayhawks and the Cornhuskers have met on the gridiron. Eight times has the Jayhawk flown away, with the Cornhusker scalp in the joyous grip of his savage mandibles. Twelve times he has fled, squawking, from the scene of battle, with a kink in his neck, and no tall feathers to protect him from the wintry blasts.

At Ames the fans still insist that their Aggies are stronger than the Cornhuskers. It is our opinion (if anyone was to ask us that Ames is very little, if any, stronger than Morningside, Nebraska made three touchdowns against Ames, that were disallowed, and two, at least, were disallowed for acts that had no effect on the play which resulted in the touchdown. Had they been counted, the score against Ames would have been about 40 to 0. We don't want this to be construed as an attempt to "knock" the decisions of the officials. On the contrary, we take this opportunity to commend them, for their fearless performance of duty.

There is a good deal of talk floating around, about a post-season game to be played by two strong representative teams, one from the east; and one from the west. Chicago has refused to take part in such a game, even though they succeed in winning the Big Nine conference championship. It is against the rules of the conference, to play post-season games, and Chicago refuses to break the rule. The same rule, in the Missouri Valley Conference, would prevent Nebraska from considering any such game, even though the athletic authorities, here, should favor the idea, which is unlikely.

RESERVATIONS GONE FOR KANSAS GAME

Only a Few Seats Left in Grand Stand and Bleachers—Home Coming to be a Crowded Event.

All the good seats for the K. U. game have been reserved. Judging from the number of seats already sold the present Home Coming will be the greatest ever.

At noon yesterday, there were only about half a dozen seats left in the grandstand. All the boxes were taken. The south bleachers were all filled except sections I and A. Seats could still be obtained in sections A, C and D on the north side of the field.

SILVER SERPENTS TO DO DECORATING

Committee Appointed to Decorate For Kansas Game—Plan on Having Dance in Near Future.

Silver Serpents met at 11:50 yesterday to appoint a committee for decorating the grandstand for the Kansas game. The following committee will do their best to at least equal Kansas in their decorations of previous years: Hazel Clarke, Myrtle Fisher, Doris Slater. Plans were also made for a dance in the near future.

Urgent Request.

If any students have available pennants or banners which they are willing to loan for decorating purposes at the "All University Party" they will aid greatly in making the party a success by leaving them at Miss Graham's office between 10 and 12 a. m., or 2 to 5 p. m., on or before Friday.

K. CRAIG,
 Decorating Committee.

"I'd like to have you call on me," said the hearth rug.
 "All right," responded the mantel clock, "I'll run down next Saturday."

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL GIVEN HIGH RATING

Washington Paper Claims Nebraska is as Good as the Best—Comparison of Scores Looks Good.

Washington Star (Nov. 2): When teams of the west are considered in comparison with those of the east it might be well not to forget the University of Nebraska. The eleven representing that university probably has as good a claim on the national championship right now as Harvard or Syracuse, or any other. Consider for an instance a comparison of these scores:

Michigan, 3; Michigan Aggies, 0.
 Michigan, 0; Harvard, 7.
 Nebraska, 24; Michigan Aggies, 0.
 These marks cause it to be seen that Nebraska is just about as capable as Harvard, and certainly would indicate that a very interesting contest would result if the two teams could meet. The Crimson probably would be up against a combination fully as strong as, if not stronger than, the one then it faced the Wolverines. An eleven that can defeat the Michigan Aggies 24 to 0 surely deserves more than ordinary consideration.

JACK BEST MAKES FORMAL COMPLAINT

States That the Boys Are Too Careless About Lockers—Infringe Upon University Rules.

Jack Best says the boys are very careless in regard to their lockers. In the last two weeks twenty-six different lockers have been left open. The clothing in these lockers are not safe if not locked. Another ruling is that only one man can occupy any locker. As high as two and three men are occupying the same locker and are placing themselves in danger of being evicted.

Some fellows are so presumptuous as to bring a lock along and take possession of a locker without having it assigned to them. Jack says these locks will be broken and the things thrown out. There is no need for the infringement upon these rules and Jack. This causes him a great deal of annoyance and the fellows owe it to him that they mend their ways.

While he did not mention it, it seems sure he would also appreciate greatly if the fellows would pick up their towels and put them in the big basket when they have dressed.
 Now all fellows should do this to help Jack as he has helped the Uni for a good many years.

Dancing Class at Minnesota.

A men's social dancing class has been instituted by the physical department of the University of Minnesota. Over 400 men have signed up for the course and 200 more can be accommodated. It is estimated that one-third of those registering are beginners, men to whom dancing is a minus quantity. A nominal fee is charged for admission to the class.

Minnesota Smoker.

A lounging room, a smoking room, a cafeteria and a cigar stand are some of the conveniences to be found in the new men's building which will be formally opened at Minnesota next Saturday.

Suspensions.

Following a recommendation of the Men's Student Council, Chancellor Strong of Kansas University has suspended three students who took a prominent part in an unauthorized rally on October 23rd.

First Student—"When my uncle died he left all he had to an orphan asylum."

Second Student—"What did he leave?"

First Student—"Fifteen children."—Ex.

Moor—"What makes your shoes squeak so, Ed?"

Green—"Why they can't help it, because there is so much music in my sole."—Kearney Antelope.
