Postmortems and Prophecies By H. J. KYLE.

The following tribute to the Cornhuskers was clipped from the Daily Kansan. The Jayhawks have proved good losers, as well as true sportsmen in other ways:

JAYHAWKER CRUSHED BY STIEHM ROLLER

Kansas Goes Down to Defeat Before Nebraska Machine.

Jumbo Stiehm's big Cornhuskers won their fourth straight Missouri Valley championship Saturday afternoon when they crushed the Kansas Jayhawk, 35 to 0. It was the worst defeat a Kansas eleven ever suffered and the first time a Jayhawk eleven was so completely outplayed.

Kansas did not have a chance to win. Never before had a Jayhawk team been so clearly outclassed in every phase of the game. The Nebraska backfield—Potter, Chamberlain, Rutherford and Delamatre—pierced the Wheaton defense like paper and the Cornhusker line did not budge before the Jayhawker attack. Nebraska scored five touchdowns and kicked five goals. Kansas failed to make first downs except when penalties were called.

Nebraska never played better football. Referee Grover says so. Coach Stiehm admits it and every member of the Jayhawker team is convinced of the fact. It was a marvelous attack, of long end runs, long forward passes and fake tackle swings. Kansas suffered no disgrace by the defeat. Detwiler's teammates fought every minute but they were hopelessly outclassed and the way the Stiehm roller was moving, Kansas can be thankful the score was not larger.

A Crowd of Six Thousand.

Six thousand people saw the Jayhawk flutter and fall. The big Lincoln stadium was almost filled and had the weather been clear instead of cold and drizzling, the attendance would have reached eight thousand. Nebraska rooters filled the grandstand, and bleachers flashing the Crimson and White, and cheering the charging Huskers. It was Homecoming Day and Lincoln was crowded with graduates who had come back to see Nebraska battle with her old foe, the Jayhawk. Three hundred Kansas rooters occupied the south bleacher and made all the noise they could but they were drowned by the Nebraskans who scented victory before the game and went on a rampage as soon as their team appeared.

Wheaton Attack Failed.

The figures and facts of the contest are uninteresting because they are too one-sided. Wheaton opened up a new attack with fake shifts embracing a peculiar center play and forward passes. But the showing was pitiful beside the Cornhusker advance. Kansas was on the defense most of the time, fighting against the big, speedy Nebraska backfield which has no equal in the West.
