PRINCETON TO HELP BELGIAN SUFFERERS

Following Letters Appeared in Princeton Weekly—Alumni Helping as Well as Students.

One of the Nebraska professors stepped into the Nebraskan office the other day and requested that the two following letters be published in order to show the Princeton spirit in regard to the Belgian Relief Fund affair:

President Hibben of Princeton sent the following letter to the Princeton Alumni Weekly:

The Editor,
Alumni Weekly,
My dear Sir:

The Master of Christ's College, Cambridge, England, Mr. A. E. Shipley, has just sent me the following appeal. Our undergraduates at the beginning of the year collected for the Belgian refugees all the old clothes available in Princeton. Therefore, I am turning to the Alumni to help by a substantial response to the terrible need of the Belgians who have sought refuge in Cambridge. I am confident that Princeton men will gladly heed this urgent request from one who is an honorary alumnus and a devoted friend of Princeton, in behalf of a cause to which our sister University across the sea has so unreservedly devoted her activities during this time of fiery trial. Cambridge University is for the present no longer a seat of learning; it is a hospital, a house of refuge and of mercy. Nothing would give me deeper pleasure and gratification at the present time than to be able to write to my dear friend Shipley that Princeton will come immediately to his help in the splendid work which he is undertaking.

Any package sent to me at "Prospect" will be forwarded to Cambridge. We hope to have all articles ready for shipment within the next two weeks.

Faithfully yours,
JOHN GRIER HIBBEN.

Dr. Shipley's letter to President Hibben is as follows:
Christ's College Lodge, Cambridge.
October 17, 1914.

My dear Hibben:

Do you think you could collect from the Princeton men and their friends any old clothes? It is difficult for those far away to appreciate what is going on in England. We have practically half a Nation on our hands and 90 per cent of them are absolutely destitute; they have no money and no belongings of any kind. Although the steamers have ceased to run they are still fleeing by every floatable thing they can lay their hands on, and we have to clothe and feed them. Our great Base Hospital on the King's and Clare cricket ground now holds 500 and next week will hold 1,000 wounded.

ed. A hundred Belgian wounded came in yesterday.

If you could issue a rousing appeal and send some clothing as quickly as possible—any sort of clothing and underclothing; suits, overcoats, hats, caps, boots, slippers, handkerchiefs, sleeping garments, we should be eternally thankful. Practically everything is needed except ball dresses. You can use my name in any way you like, but I shall be more than grateful to my second University for any help forthcoming at this crisis. It might be possible for you to get other Universities to take the matter up. I am afraid I should have to ask you to pay the freight, as money is scarce here and every penny we can get must go to feed these starving people. Send clothes, and more clothes, and still more clothes.

Yours ever,
A. E. SHIPLEY.

"Germany kicked off to France, the ball going out of bounds into Belgium. Belgium was there as a spectator, but was an old-time player and was itching to get into the game on the winning side. Instead of dodging the ball Belgium caught it and started a brilliant return. Belgium made several clever plays, but could not hit the German line effectively and soon was thrown for a loss and lost the ball on a steady march for the goal line, Paris. Germany relied on straight football, using old-style mass formations. The Allies tried a number of forward passes, but they were broken up by the heavy German offense. Germany reached the 10-yard line before it could be stopped, but there the Allies got the ball and executed a clever wing shift. They were unable to hit center, but circled the left end for several good gains, carrying the ball back to the 40-yard line. Germany then took to playing the open game, executing successful forward passes to Antwerp and Ostend. Both sides are alleging unnecessary roughness. The score at the end of the first quarter is nothing to nothing."—Lee Shipley in Kansas City Star.

HERE are a lessening few who still think it takes perfect human dimensions to be fitted in our Kuppenheimer ready-for-duty Clothes.

We hope you are not among them.

You can scarcely realize how wonderfully accurate is the grading of sizes in these garments.

Every day we are fitting short and stout men, tall and slim men, extra stout men, men of all widths and lengths.

We venture to say we can fit you, too, as agreeably as in any clothes you have ever bought at twice these prices—$20, $25 or up to $40.

Splendid suits and Balmacaans at $15.
