GOOD CONVOCATION.

streets and highways. In the midst of the multitude of our blessings, let us not be unmindful of the Great Source from whence they flow.

Therefore, in keeping with the proclamation of the president of the United States, and by the authority of the law vested in me as governor, I do hereby set aside the Twenty-sixth day of November, one thousand, nine hundred and fourteen, as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise, and recommend that all our people cease from ordinary labor and assemble in their churches and homes and render unto God, the praise due unto his name for his great mercies vouchsafed unto us. Not forgetting to seek out those less fortunate and give unto them as the Lord has given unto us, ever keeping in mind that the Eternal God is our refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms.

Given at Lincoln, the capitol, this the Seventh day of November, in the Year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen. The forty-eighth year of the state, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and thirty-ninth.

JOHN H. MOREHEAD.

By the Governor:

Attest: ADDISON WAIT.

Secretary of State.

The closing number was the singing of America by the student body.

WEEKLY PAPERS ONLY ON FILE TWO DAYS

Formerly Could be Obtained at Any Time—Only Accessible Now on Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

For several years the weekly papers of the state have been placed on the shelves at the Historical Library for the convenience of the students. Up to the present time these papers have been accessible at any time. But this finally took up so much of the department's time, and since the appropriations are not large enough to warrant the hiring of another assistant, so the library has decided to limit the number of days that the papers will be on file two days. From now on the papers will be accessible on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only.
