RELIEF COMMITTEE

DAILY NEBRASKAN ANNOUNCES PROGRAM FOR RAISING FUNDS.

MOVIES OF IOWA-NEBRASKA

Entertainment Will be Held on Wednesday and Thursday Evenings— Tickets on Sale Today.

The Daily Nebraskan announces a special program in connection with the Belgian Relief Fund. The entertainment will be held on two nights, Wednesday and Thursday and begins at 8 o'clock sharp. This will be a big two-night round of pleasure and enjoyment for all who will take part in the festival. The entertainment is in charge of a large committee and a large and varied program will be given. The proceeds will be given entirely to the Belgians. This is a new and novel form of entertainment and will be worth every person's time and effort. The tickets for the entertainment will be on sale on the campus today and the prices are within every one's reach and a big sale is expected.

The pictures of the Iowa and Ames games will be shown at this entertainment as well as a sketch by the Dramatic Club and selections by the Band and Glee Club. The football pictures themselves are worth the price of admission, showing the Nebraska touchdown in the Iowa game and the two kicks from placement by Halligan as well as many of the spectacular runs and plays. In the Ames game every scoring point except the kicking of the goals is shown. This is the only time these pictures will be shown in this city and a large crowd should turn out to see the Cornhusker machine score in the "movies" as well as on the field. The numbers of the Band and Glee Club need no praise and the Dramatic Club will close the program with a short sketch. The price of the tickets is very low, twenty-five cents being the purchasing price for the privilege of hearing this fine entertainment. The work is in charge of a competent committee and everyone is assured a good time. The Daily Nebraskan, which has charge of the work announces the following committee, which will meet this morning immediately after convocation:

Prof. P. M. Buck, Chairman.
H. B. Alexander.

STUDENTS DROPPED BY MID-SEMESTERS

Four Unlucky Ones Claimed by Executive Department—Number Lower Than Last Year.

Information has come from Dean Engberg's office that four students have been dropped from school on account of having their studies below the required mark. This number is below that of last year and it is hoped that at the end of the semester nobody will be compelled to leave school by the compulsion route. Freshmen should particularly beware.

THANKSGIVING PARTY ENJOYABLE SUCCESS

Eighty Couples Enjoy Evening—New Dances Demonstrated For Benefit of Beginners.

The Vogue dancing party held at the Rosewilde party house Wednesday, Thanksgiving eve, was one of the most enjoyable of the season. The crowd was not quite as large as usual owing to so many students going home for the vacation but this left more room for dancing and naturally everybody had a better time. There were probably eighty couples present.

The refreshments served were punch, candies, ices, coffee, cake, cigarettes and cigars. The chaperones were Dr. and Mrs. Bumstead, Mr. L. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McKelvie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ball, and Dr. Knight. In the course of the evening Mr. Robt. Landstrum and Miss Wheedon demonstrated the Fox Trot.

GIRLS WILL HAVE CORNHUSKER BANQUET

Date Announced For December 4th—Will be Held in Armory—Over Four Hundred Last Year.

The girls of the University are asked to remember that the big annual Cornhusker party given by the Girls' Club will take place in the Armory Friday night, December 4. It is to be a costume party and elaborate plans are being made by the various committees in charge, in anticipation of the event.

The first Cornhusker party was held just a year ago, on the night of the Cornhusker banquet. It was a decided success and was well attended, there being about four hundred eighty girls present. They were attired in the costume of every nation and every age; many even appeared dressed a la boy.

It is the desire of the Girls' Club to swell the number this year so all girls are asked to keep the evening open and a fine time is promised to everyone. The price of admission has not been agreed upon but will be announced in this paper later in the week.

Columbia Juniors Fail to Pay For Hats. Juniors are exceedingly slow in claiming the hats for which they have signed up. Out of the total number of hats ordered by the committee, over half still remain in the A. A. office. Those Juniors who pledged themselves to buy hats are requested to pay for them this noon as the money must be turned over today to the company from which they were purchased.—Columbia Spectator.

MATH SOCIETY MEET

EIGHTH REGULAR MEETING OF THE SOUTHWESTERN SECTION.

NEBRASKA PROF'S LECTURE

Program Included Addresses by Professors of Many Universities— Meetings Held in Engineering Building.

The eighth regular meeting of the Southwestern Section of the American Mathematical Society was held on Saturday, November 28, 1914, in room 204, of the Mechanical Engineering Building of the University of Nebraska. The morning session opened at 10 a. m. and the afternoon at 2 p. m.

Most of the members found accommodation at the new Commercial Club Building as they did also on Saturday noon for lunch.

The program of the session is as follows:

- Morning Session, 10:00 o'clock
- (1) The end correction for an open cylinder. (20 minutes.) Professor P. J. Daniell, Rice Institute.
 - (2) Multiplication and division by variable operators. (15 minutes.) Professor Oscar Schmiedel, Bellevue College.
 - (3) Note on Surfaces with a single first normal. (15 minutes.) Professor Louis Ingold, University of Missouri.
 - (4) Double integrals of Picard for an algebraic variety. (10 minutes.) Dr. S. Lefschetz, Kansas University.
 - (5) Equations of Picard-Fuchs for an algebraic surface with arbitrary singularities. (10 minutes.) Dr. Lefschetz.
 - (6) On the factorization of certain linear homogeneous differential expressions. (15 minutes.) Professor Henry Blumberg, University of Nebraska.
 - (7) The well ordering of infinite permutations. (15 minutes.) Professor A. B. Frizell, McPherson College.
 - (8) Deductive systems and postulate theory; 1. Finite case (Preliminary communication). (15 minutes.) Dr. Henry M. Sheffer, University of Missouri.
 - (9) On a definition of discrete oscillation. (15 minutes.) Professor H. R. Hedrick and Miss E. A. Weeks, University of Missouri.
 - (10) On the convergence of an infinite determinant. (10 minutes.) Professor W. C. Brenke, University of Nebraska.
- The program was closed by a short talk by Dean Davis on a "Problem in Laguerre's Representation of Imaginaries in Space."

ALUMINUM UTENSIL WORKERS BANQUET

Company Entertains Employees at Lincoln Hotel—Several Students Give Short Talks.

A number of University students were very pleasantly entertained the other evening at a banquet given at the Lincoln hotel by the Aluminum Cooking Utensil Co. of East St. Louis, Ill. Those present were the students that had worked for the company last summer. The object of the company in giving the banquet was to show their appreciation for the good work these students had done for them while in their employ. Short talks were given by several of the students in which they expressed their satisfaction with the results of the summer's work. A number of University students are spending the summer vacation to good advantage in the employ of this company.

PALLADIANS WELCOME MANY NEW MEMBERS

Chancellor Avery and Professor Fossler Spoke at an Interesting Meeting of the Society.

On Friday evening, November 20th, the program of the Palladian Society varied somewhat from the usual evening of entertainment and pleasure in that the society, along with the newly elected members, listened most interestedly to the relating of experiences and customs as told by Professor Fossler of those who have long since, excepting for an occasional visit, absented themselves from the campus.

Chancellor Avery, who is an ever loyal member of the society, spoke most appreciatively on the "Ideals of Palladian," followed by various remarks on "Reminiscences," by Mr. G. Marsh, '01, proving to be a source of interest and pleasure.

A closed meeting for the installation of officers followed in which a number of new members followed in which Hershel Gereke, Estella Warner, August Krebs, Bertha Driftmeier, Frances Caldwell, John Ibsen, Mabeth Beach, Earl Stephenson, Frances Chez, Charles Dickinson, Lella Mc-Nerney, Alfreda Engdahl, Helen Miller, Hester Dickinson, Harry Colbert, Will Urbach, Charles Hoffman, and William Wilson were welcomed into the society.

Minnesota—The inter-fraternity banquet held at the West Hotel last Wednesday night was a distinct success. Four hundred and ten Greeks at the tables had the enthusiasm characteristic of the ancient. The banquet from all sides was a distinct success and will remain a standard for future years.

ONE ALL-AMERICAN

HALLIGAN PROBABLY ON CAMP'S FIRST TEAM.

MANY ALL-CONFERENCE MEN

Rutherford and Chamberlain Are Given Positions on All-Western Teams by High Authorities.

By H. I. Kyle.

The 1914 Cornhuskers are receiving a little of the consideration due them, now that the sporting scribes and football coaches throughout the country are filling the papers with their mythical all-star teams. Even the most unfavorable authorities grant to Nebraska at least six places on the all-Missouri Valley Conference team, while most of the writers give her seven or eight positions. One enthusiast, Cachran, in the Kansas City Post, proposes the entire Cornhusker lineup as his choice for all-Conference honors.

In his all-Western team, Walter Eckersall, in the Chicago Tribune, names Captain Halligan as the best tackle in the West, and adds further that the Cornhusker leader is the foremost candidate for all-American honors west of the Mississippi river. That his hint is likely to be taken by the great Eastern authority, Walter Camp, is indicated by the fact that Collier's Weekly, which features Camp's all-American write-up each year, has sent in a request for a cut of Halligan. Since it has been customary for Collier's to publish only the pictures of the first-team men, it seems almost certain that Nebraska has at last landed an all-American position.

Dick Rutherford was given a half-back position on Eckersall's second all-Western team, but the feeling is prevalent here in Lincoln that the wonderful backfielder should have been given a place on the first team, and would have been had he not been badly hurt in the early minutes of the Iowa game.

G. W. Axelson, a well-known Chicago sporting writer, places Halligan on his first all-Western eleven, and names Guy Chamberlain as a half-back on the second team. These two men, Rutherford and Chamberlain, will make a strong bid for all-American honors next year, barring injuries.

TRIGONIAN NEWS AT NEBRASKAN OFFICE

New Exchange Proves Interesting—Published by Students of Normal University of New Mexico.

There are several very interesting columns in the last issue of the Trigonian News, a bi-weekly paper published by the students of the Normal University of East Las Vegas, New Mexico. It is a small eight-page paper and contains school news, the usual editorials, class notes, a society column, jokes and a short play written by several students. There is also a group picture of some of the students of the University and copies of some of their school songs.
