Proof Positive.

"What is a furlough?" asked a school teacher.

"It means a mule," was the reply of Mary.

"Oh! no," replied the teacher. "It does not mean mule."

"Indeed, it does," said Mary. "I have a book at home that says so."

"Well," said the teacher, now thoroughly interested, "you may bring the book to school, and we'll see about it."

The next day Mary brought the book, and in glad triumph opened a page where there was a picture of a soldier standing beside a mule. Below the picture were the words, "Going home on his furlough."—Kearney Antelope.

Fresh—"I want to feed on literature. What authors would you recommend to give me a literary appetite?"

Soph—"If I were you I would begin with Hogg, Lamb and Bacon."—Kearney Antelope.
