ELI SHIRE PRES. MAYER BROS CO.

ers. The president only has this privilege.
This sentiment has been growing in the University for several years, and the directors of the German Club decided that it had attained sufficient strength to be recognized by them. The movement has been encouraged by the women students for some time, and many of the sororities have passed rules strongly disapproving the use of flowers.
The directors expressed the hope that the students of the University in general will follow their example in this matter.—Daily Texan.

"What road lead to success?" queried the very young man.
"Any road that's macadamized with grit and sand," replied the sage of Sageville.—Advance.
