

A SENATE MEETING

PASS RESOLUTION FAVORING
BUILDING FOR CLASS ROOMS

OTHER NEEDS RECOGNIZED

Discussed Need of Better Facilities for General Activities—Greer, Engberg and Skinner on the Committee

At a meeting of the University Senate, held last Saturday forenoon, several new building-sites were proposed and the propositions sent to the office of Architect Hodgdon, together with plans for new buildings. Several committees were appointed to help the Board of Regents in deciding how to extend the campus.

Professors Greer, Engberg and Skinner were appointed to investigate conditions on the campus and to decide which departments first needed new quarters.

The following resolution was passed: Inasmuch as the University is inadequately equipped with space for classrooms and laboratories, many of the rooms being basement rooms, with overhead heating, nearly all of them crowded and without adequate ventilation; and inasmuch as inadequate space exists for instruction or for conferences, the University Senate respectfully requests the Regents, in the expenditure of the building fund, to erect such structures as will afford relief to the students and faculty from the conditions just described.

The University Senate recognizes the great need of better facilities for the general activities of the student body, better gymnasium facilities, a convocation hall, and is familiar with the movement in other schools for Freshman dormitories. Desirable, however, as these things are, the University Senate believes they could be deferred until relief from the congested classroom and laboratory conditions has been secured.

THE AG CLUB HAVE A LARGE INITIATION

Fifteen Men Went Through Initiation
Ceremonies—Meeting Ended
With Fine Feed

Last Saturday night at the Farm Judging pavilion the Ag Club pulled off a stupendous initiation. About fifteen new men were put through the paces and critically examined for any defects in their constitutions. Happily none were unsound, so the Farm was spared from any tregedies.

At dusk unearthly sounds emanating from the pavilion indicated that the initiation was in full progress. All evening these sounds continued until the mad orgies were stopped, and the victims nourished. Yet, one overzealous novice had to be thoroughly soaked down with aqua pura before he became manageable. Threats of complete extermination forbid telling of all the orgies. It will suffice to say, however, that the evening ended with a rich feed, after which the new Ags went home, sadder but wiser men.

Vogue Party, Lindell, Friday
Call Schembeck, B-3715.
Subscription list closed today, 6 p. m.

PHI DELTA PSI HAVE NEW FRATERNITY HOME

Now Located at 1644 E Street—Large Number of Pledges Will Be Initiated Monday Night

Phi Delta Psi, the honorary pharmaceutical fraternity, now has a new home at 1644 E street. This fraternity has a large number of members and promises to become a live organization in University affairs. There will be many pledges initiated at the house opening next Friday night. Great plans are being made, and in all probability the outcome will be highly successful.

DRAMATIC CLASS GIVE THREE PLAYS

Present Plays Before Woman's Club
Yesterday Afternoon—Large Audience Pleased

The Dramatic class presented three of the best plays of the year yesterday afternoon at the Temple Theatre. The three plays were given before a large audience, every seat in the house being filled all by ladies, not a man being present in the audience. But then the plays were given for the Woman's Club, and but few men hold entrance cards to this organization.

Miss Howell should be congratulated on the manner in which she has coached the students.

MANY STUDENTS TO HELP NEXT "MIXER"

Large Committee Appointed to Serve on Reception List—Large Crowd
Expected Friday Night

The reception committee for the all-University mixer will meet Thursday, immediately after convocation, in the chapel.

The following are on the committee: Florence Angle, Sadie Aber, Josephine Ballard, Lloyd Barnes, Paul Babson, Lorena Bixby, Flo Boyles, Louise Brownell, Albert Bryson, H. R. Campbell, Evelyn Caldwell, Cordelia Condra, Kenneth Craig, Russell Clark, Lulu Mae Coe, Harry DeLamatre, Bertha Ehlers, Dorothy Ellsworth, Dewitt Foster, Cornelia Frazer, Marguerite Farley, Jeanette Finney, Carolyn Funk, Carl Ganz, E. Grupe, Robert Holland, Charles Hauptman, H. G. Hewitt, Carlyle Jones, Emil Krahulik, R. V. Koupal, Ray M. Kirk, Norma Kidd, Pauline Killian, Gladys Lowenberg, John Long, Darrell Lane, Ruth Mills, John Miller, Mary Murphy, Ellsworth Moser, William McMullen, Clara McMahon, Leila McNeerney, Eva McNamara, Grace McIntosh, William Ritchie, Mildred Peery, Marian Reeder, Blanch Richards, Ann Russell, Marie Robertson, Ed Shoemaker, Isadore Sheldon, Percy Spencer, Harold J. Schwab, Ruth Sheldon, Bob Simmons, Paul Temple, Harold Temple, Rex Wilsey, D. P. Weeks, Merrill Wade, Vera Young.

Vogue Party, Lindell, Friday
Call Schembeck, B-3715.
Subscription list closed today, 6 p. m.

First time in Lincoln "Dance to Band Music," Auditorium, Thursday evening, December 10. Nebraska State Band (thirty-five pieces). Concert, 8 p. m. Dance, 9 p. m. Seventy-five cents per couple, extra lady or spectator 25 cents.

JUNIORS TO WORK

MUST RAISE $300 BEFORE PLAY
CAN BE GIVEN

BIG COMMITTEE APPOINTED

Two Tickets May Be Had for One
Dollar and a Half if Purchased
Now—Unique Plan for Raising Money

The members of the Junior Play committee will canvass the Junior class and sell tickets for the Junior Play. Two tickets will be sold for $1.50 now, but will cost $2.00 later when purchased at the box office. It is necessary to raise at least $300 before the University authorities will give the class permission to give the play at the Oliver. Therefore, the tickets are sold with the understanding that the play is to be given at the Oliver Theatre. The Junior Play this year will be the most elaborate play ever given.

The names of those who will help the committee in selling the tickets are given below:

- U. S. Harkson, chairman.
- Poteet
- Locke
- Moehner
- Hlava
- Vivian Holland
- Chatt
- Parkenson
- Alice Proudfit
- Ruth Mills
- Ethel Arnold
- Gladys Lord
- Mona Lacey
- Lora Stodds
- Mary Camp
- Mary Cusack
- Jeanette Finney
- Gladys Lowenberg
- Lucile Leyda
- Fannie Malacher
- Hester Wyman
- Mildred Peery
- R. V. Koupal
- Everts
- Lanz
- Taylor
- Schwab
- Liebensdorfer
- S. R. Pier
- Holcomb
- Olsen
- Fouts
- Kindig
- Slater
- George
- Orville Buerstetta
- Chase
- Shomaker
- Folsom
- Ruth Brown
- Palmer
- Temple

EDITORIAL STAFF ARE CALLED TOGETHER

Will Meet for Get-Together Meeting at Sigma Nu House Tonight—
Whole Staff Urged to Be Out

The editorial staff of the 1915 Cornhusker will meet with Editor Samuelson at the Sigma Nu house tonight at 7 o'clock, and the management urges that all members attend. The meeting is planned to be a "get-together" for the complete editorial staff, and the work for the year will be discussed in the few minutes that the meeting will take.

TEGNER SOCIETY HAS CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Played Christmas Games and Indulged in Swedish Folk Dances—Professor Alexis Gave Talk

The Tegner Society gave their annual Christmas program Saturday. Professor Alexis spoke on the origin of the Swedish Yule and Yuletide customs. Oscar Olsen played a violin humoresque and Miss Munson sang several Swedish folk songs. The rest of the evening was taken up in playing Christmas games and dancing Swedish folk dances. Swedish Yuletide refreshments were served.

LAW HOP FOR NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT

Will Be Held at Lincoln Hotel—Most of the Tickets Have Already Been Sold

Although one hundred tickets were validated for the Law Hop, to be held next Saturday night, the committee in charge stated yesterday that the dance was limited to eighty-five couples. This will provide ample room for the dancers. The larger number of tickets were issued in order to supply the entire committee with tickets to sell. Sixty-five tickets have already been sold, so anyone desiring to associate with the lawyers should secure their pasteboard early.

THE PHI RHO SIGMA ENTERTAIN ALUMNI

Have Elegant Chapter House in Omaha—Over Two Hundred Visitors at House Warming

The active chapter entertained for Phi Rho Sigma alumni and faculty at an informal dancing party Friday evening, November 13.

Though all the new furniture had not arrived, the new Phi Rho Sigma house was officially opened for visitors at the "house warming" Saturday evening, November 14. The house was thronged with over two hundred visitors. The reception was followed by an informal dance. Every one seemed highly pleased with the chapter house. For the benefit of those who were not able to be present, we may say that this is one of the finest fraternity houses in the country. The four-story house is furnished with every modern improvement. The basement is to be fitted out with a pool table and boxing room. On the second floor an indirect lighting effect has been worked out. The third floor has been divided into eight study rooms. The top floor is the dormitory.

Ag Club Dance

The Ag Club will hold its big dance of the year Friday, December 11th, at Rosewilde Hall.

It is the first all-University dance ever given by the Ag Club and the committee has arranged to make it the classiest dance of the year.

Limited to eighty-five tickets. Price, $1.25.
Committee:
WHISENAND.
BALL.
ELWELL.

Phi Delta Psi Pledge

Phi Delta Psi, the honorary pharmaceutical fraternity, announces the pledging of J. P. Brown, J. L. Harmon, Harry Read and C. W. Lash.

LETTERS AWARDED

EIGHTEEN MEN RECEIVE FOOT-BALL "N'S THIS YEAR

RUTHERFORD IS 1915 CAPTAIN

Movement Started by the Conference
Board to Permit Thanksgiving Day Games—Fine Basketball Team in Sight

By H. I. Kyle
At a meeting of the athletic board yesterday, eighteen men were awarded "N's" for their work on the football squad this year. The honored ones were Captain Halligan, Howard, Potter, Rutherford, Cameron, Abbott, Balis, Chamberlain, DeLamatre, Doyle, Hawkins, Corey, Shields, Gross, Caley, Porter, Selzer and Fouts. More letters were awarded this year than for several seasons, due to the large number of strong contenders for the various positions.

Immediately following the awarding of the letters the squad met and decided upon a leader for the 1915 team, the honor going to Dick Rutherford, the wonderful left half, whose work on the 1913-14 teams has won for him the admiration and respect of all who have seen him play, and especially of those who have had occasion to play against him. There is a general feeling on the campus that Rutherford will make an ideal captain for next year's Cornhuskers.

Word has leaked out that the conference meeting at Lincoln last week considered the question of allowing Thanksgiving Day games in the future, and that they decided to recommend to the various athletic boards that the scheduling of Turkey Day games be permitted in the future. Coach Stiehm said last night that if the conference schools acted favorably on the plan Nebraska will probably schedule such a game, although.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR SECOND MIXER

Scott's Orchestra Engaged—Games
Provided for Those Who Do
Not Dance

The second all-University mixer will be held in the Armory on Friday night of this week. While other gatherings are not prohibited on the evening of the mixer, they are discouraged in order that the mixer may accomplish the end for which it was intended. At the last meeting, where about nine hundred were present, the committee got an idea as to what forms of amusement are enjoyed by the students, and also how many to provide for. With this information the affair can very likely be more successful than before. Scott's orchestra has been secured and the gymnasium will be used for dancing. Several clever stunts have been planned and games will be played by those who do not dance.

Out of 400 men examined by the University of Chicago medical department this fall, twenty-six have almost perfect health. Six per cent of them passed with high marks.—Minnesota Daily.