ATHLETIC AND DRILL BUILDING

Dairy Building May Be the First to Be Constructed—Chemistry and Agronomy Buildings Are Also Planned

By Dean E. A. Burnett

The settlement of the location of the University makes it possible for the Agricultural College to proceed without delay in the erection of several necessary buildings. According to the terms of the bill passed by the last legislature, one-third of the appropriation, or about $700,000, should be available within the next four years for the erection of agricultural buildings and for the better equipment of the College.

The general plans for the dairy building have been completed. This building will be located east of the Experiment Station Hall and south of the Judging Pavilion, facing west, thus helping to complete the east quadrangle of the campus.

Plans are already in progress—alho not fully matured—for a building to house Agricultural Engineering. This building will be approximately 200 feet square, the main portion being two stories high, the rear portion, containing shops and laboratories for heavy machinery, being only one story in height. A basement will be provided for the entire building, in which many of the activities of the department can be housed. According to the present plan for the campus, this building will be located at the north end of the east quadrangle, on the east side of the present athletic field. The building will face the south. While it has not yet been fully determined that this is to be the second building undertaken at the Farm, the plans for

PRE-MEDIC SOCIETY AT INSANE ASYLUM

Will Make Trip to That Institution
Tonight—Lecture on Insanity
Will Be Given

Tonight the Pre-Medics Society will make a trip to the State Insane Asylum, where they will be the guests of Doctor Williams of that institution. There will be a lecture on the various forms of insanity, illustrated by typical cases. This will be of especial interest, as the future doctors will get a chance to see some of the forms of insanity that they will likely come in contact with in their practice of medicine. This lecture will be the third of a series of lectures held by the society. All Freshmen are invited to attend this meeting, as it will be worth the while of every student in the College of Medicine. Everyone intending to go will be at Tenth and O streets at 6:30 p. m. to take a special car. All who will come to the meeting will be sure to find a welcome from the society, and all are invited. The lecture will be followed by a reception and dance.

This lecture recital will be free and everyone who is interested in music is cordially invited.

FOGG'S NEW SYSTEM MAKES FLAT FAILURE

Freshman Themes Get Fogg's Goat—
Eastern University Denounces
the Theory

Communications have just been received from a well-known eastern university to the effect that the late "goat scheme" will not work. Several days ago an article appeared in the Daily Nebraskan telling of a wonderful way to dispose of freshman themes by means of goats owned and controlled by all the great universities for that purpose. It was the theory that the greedy animals would willingly make short work of the masterpieces written by the frosh, and in this way many trips with the paper basket would be made useless by the janitor. But alas! It can't "be did."

It seems that the scheme received world-wide notice, and was actually tried by some of the foremost institutions—but with great failure. The communications said that the goats all died after the first two or three feedings. Several goat doctors were immediately called in order that this strange state of affairs could be explained, and the verdict of these learned gentlemen was that even the iron-case stomach of the strongest billy goat could not digest some of the rare writings of the freshmen.

What a dinner these Texas regents should have at their meetings! Among them there is a Cook, a Hogg and a Fly.—Ex.

PURCHASE A MERRY CHRISTMAS TAG

Silver Serpents Conducting Tag Day—
Many Cards of Honor on Campus

The Silver Serpents are having a "Merry Christmas tag day" for charity yesterday and today. They are assisted by the Xi Deltas and quite a number of other girls in school. The tags are white with "Merry Christmas" printed upon them in red and are sold for 10 cents. Almost every one on the campus is wearing one of these tags and the Silver Serpent girls are hoping that they will in this way obtain a considerable sum with which to aid poor families of Lincoln in having a comfortable and, if possible, a merry Christmas.

Fifty Shivering Rooters Witness Inter-

Seniors Make it Four

By H. I. Kyle.

All in vain were the desperate efforts of the weather-man to stay the playing of the Frosh-Senior football game, scheduled for yesterday afternoon. With Monday's six-inch surface of slush and mud frozen to adamant hardness, and covered with an inch of zero frosting, the condition of the gridiron was far from ideal, yet the moleskin-clad huskies were ready and waiting for the referee's whistle at 3 o'clock, as advertised.

AG CONVOCATION AND BIG DANCE

Best Yet Is Promised—Music and Speaking—Many Tickets Sold
and Good Time Promised

The promise of a good convocation this morning is assured when we look over the program which is scheduled. The music and talks are of Agricultural talent. The male quartette is to make its first appearance this year. Miss Florence Slama is to render a vocal solo, and Professor Link, Miss Essie Jones and C. W. Smith are to "mount the stump."

Ag Dance
From the number of tickets that are being sold to the Ag dance Friday night it promises to be one of the liveliest of the year. All who go can well anticipate a good time.

Farmers' Party
Saturday night at 8:30, in the judging pavilion at the State Farm, the Ags are going to end their week with a general farmers' party. Everyone will be out in farmer costume. This should be the liveliest, most successful party in the history of the college.

Fifteen Institutes in Dawes County
Fifteen farmers' institute meetings were held last month in Dawes county with a total attendance of 1,500, under the direction of C. S. Hawk, farm demonstrator of Dawes county, and the Agricultural Extension Service.

LATIN SOCIETY ELECT FOUR NEW MEMBERS

Hold Meeting at Home of Professor Hunter—Interesting Program of Latin Composition Given

The Latin Society held a very successful meeting at the home of Professor Hunter, Tuesday evening. A good program was given and refreshments served.

The society elected to its membership four new members, Misses Harte, Heaton, LeMasters and Kauffman. The membership is limited by its constitution to thirty members, so Tuesday night's increase in membership leaves the society lacking only two of the required number.

The following program was given:
Saturnalia.....Miss Ruby Hills
Some Christmas Hymns.....Lorena Bixby
A Modern Christmas in Italy.....
.....Mildred Cuba
The Holidays of Old Rome.....
.....Ruth Bridenburt
Christmas Art in Rome.....
.....Hazel McCartney
A tableau of a Roman wedding,
given by three girls, Misses Hills,
Bixby and McCartney, and the singing of Latin songs by the whole society, completed the program. Refreshments were then served on the Roman plan.

EXTENSION SERVICE

GREAT STRIDES BEING MADE BY THIS DEPARTMENT

MANY FARMERS' INSTITUTES

Also Boys' and Girls' Clubs—Farm
Demonstration Work—Women's Clubs—County Fair Exhibits —Development Funds

One department at the University Farm which the average student is likely to overlook and whose importance is measured by its extensive operations is the Agricultural Extension Service. The volume of its work has so increased within the last three years that it has been built up from one worker with a stenographer working on half time and institute workers employed on part time to twenty-six regular workers employed on full time and eighteen giving part time to the work.

As its term implies, the object of the department is to serve the people of the state in agriculture so far as possible by bringing the best work and thought of the experiment station and college of agriculture not only to those who have not had the opportunity to attend the school or college of agriculture but to the graduates of these institutions who are anxious to develop their home communities and keep abreast of agricultural progress.

Farmers' Institutes and Short Courses

One of the prominent features of the extension work is the agricultural instruction offered through the farmers' institutes and the agricultural short courses. At farmers' institutes, which last but one or two days, speakers of special training are sent. At the agricultural and domestic science short courses a larger number of speakers are sent, and the work resembles more nearly the actual work of the classroom. At each of these kinds of meetings during the present season, the

MILITARY BALL WILL BE FIRST FORMAL

Annual Officers' Dance Scheduled for Rosewilde Hall the Week After Holidays

The annual Military Ball—the first all-University formal of the year—will be given the following week after Christmas vacation. Tickets for the ball will go on sale Monday, December 14, and can be obtained from the members of the committee, or at the office of the Commandant. The price, as usual, will be $3.00.

The Military Ball is given by the officers of the cadet regiment, and is open to all the students of the University. This year will be the fifth repetition of what has always been considered one of the most striking and enjoyable functions of the college year.

Needless to say, dates for the dance should be secured before the holidays. In "putting the question," remember that the date is Friday, January 8th, 1915. Scott's orchestra will furnish the cadence; Rosewilde Hall the rendezvous.
