

SOME MORE POLITICS

DETAILED REPORT WILL BE PUBLISHED TOMORROW

SEVEN HUNDRED MAY VOTE

Several Changes Have Been Made in Regard to the Manner of Election—Editorial Fund to Be $250-00

The campus political pot is simmering gently, and all indications are that it will come to a boil before the Nebraskan election is over. The list of the candidates will be in Friday's Nebraskan, and no official report will be given before that time. While a large vote is not looked for, the rumored candidates are already actively pledging support. There are 700 votes possible, considering only campus subscriptions.

Since the regulations in regard to the election were published, additional recommendations by the committee have changed the rules somewhat. The rules that have been agreed upon to govern the election are as follows:

"(1) The positions of editor-in-chief, managing editor, first and second associate editors, shall be regularly filled by election by the Nebraskan's subscribers.

"Candidates for the office of managing editor must have served creditably at least one year on the paper, or shall have had the equivalent of such service elsewhere.

"(2) Candidates so elected will be normally ratified by the Student Publication Board, upon showing their eligibility; the board may, however, for extraordinary reasons, nullify such election, and in such case, as also in case of eligibility or in case of resignation, it will fill the vacancies at its discretion.

"(3) The election shall be held in the second week of January and the second week of May of each school year.

"This paragraph is amended to read, for this semester only: Election shall be held Thursday, January 21, 1915.

"(4) All the paid-up subscribers of the Nebraskan, as shown on the business list, shall be eligible to vote.

PROFESSOR CALDWELL OFFERS NICE PRIZE

Offers Prize of Twenty-Five Dollars to Member of Class Writing Best Theme

Professor Caldwell has offered a prize of twenty-five dollars to the member of his American History III class presenting the best theme on the subject which has been presented to him. All of the themes are of a historical nature and most of them are concerned with the period of American history from the Revolution to the Mexican war. Each contestant has to present a bibliography of his theme, an outline, and then the theme proper. The work is to be judged on the score of originality, style and research.

Professor Caldwell will appoint a committee, probably of professors, to pass judgment on the themes, and their decision will be final. The prize will be awarded in the latter part of the year.

The University of Texas is at a low ebb financially. Unless the legislature makes a substantial appropriation there is danger of having to close the doors. The Daily Texan, however, is of the opinion that the funds will be forthcoming.

UNIVERSITY NIGHT

DIFFERENT ORGANIZATIONS ARE URGED TO DO THEIR BEST

SYNOPSIS MUST BE IN SOON

February First is the Date Set for All Final Copies to Be Submitted—Charles A. Hauptman is Chairman

C. A. Hauptman, selected by the Y. M. C. A. to have charge of the University Night program, on being interviewed, said:

"The time will soon be here, sooner than most of us anticipate, when the whole student body will again have the opportunity of participating in an evening of satirical display of life about this busy old campus of ours—University Night.

"Heretofore the various organizations, fraternities, departments, clubs, or any group desiring to stage a stunt portraying some phase of life about the University were given the opportunity to present their playette, comedy, pantomime, or any stunt as they chose.

"This year the committee is working to improve matters by getting an early start. In asking for a concise synopsis of each stunt or act, it is the purpose of the committee in charge to make the best choice possible.

"Several of the departmental organizations chose their committees early in the semester and have things well under way.

"The briefs or synopsis must be in by February 1 in order to deal justly and enable the immediate action of the individual committees.

"Get busy! Let's make it the best ever!"

BIBLE STUDY CLASS

Meets Every Thursday Noon in Faculty Hall at Temple—Miss Hendee in Charge of the Work

Every Thursday noon from 12:10 to 12:40 a Bible study class meets in Faculty Hall at the Temple. The girls have found the leader, Miss Hendee, very charming, and her phase of the study most interesting and helpful. Some bring lunch, others bring sewing, but all enjoy the informal discussion.

FRED LARSON VISITS PHARMACY DEPARTMENT

Located at Pine Bluffs, Wyoming—Graduated From University Last February

The pharmacy department was greatly surprised when Fred T. Larson, a last year's graduate, confronted us with the same big, hearty smile that so characterized him when at the University.

Mr. Larson is now located at Pine Bluffs, Wyoming, having a third interest in a very successful drug company of that place.

Mr. Larson graduated from the School of Pharmacy last February, and after very successfully passing the Wyoming State Board of Pharmacy examination, at once obtained the position which he now holds.

The department is very proud of Mr. Larson and his success.

GERMAN DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY FRIDAY

Preparations Maturing Rapidly for Production—Proceeds Go to Red Cross Society

The German Dramatic Club play, "Das Verlorene Paradies," by Ludwig Fulda, which is to be presented next Friday night at the Temple Theatre, is fast nearing completion. Elaborate preparations have been made in scenic effects and this, together with the fact that the rehearsals have reached that stage where only finishing touches are added here and there, makes a successful presentation assured.

Since the proceeds of the play are to be turned over to the American Red Cross Society, the staff has been working hard, and has been fortunate in securing the support and services of outside interests. Mr. C. B. Scott and his orchestra will furnish the music. Without further remarks, a delightful and pleasing musical program is a certainty.

The Hardy Furniture Company is very kindly placing the necessary furniture at our disposal. Tickets are now selling rapidly and students should avail themselves of the opportunity of getting seats early while there is yet a choice. Secure them at the Temple or at Harry Porter's; 25, 35 and 50 cents. Remember, Friday night, January 15, at the Temple.
