FEW TICKETS LEFT FOR THE JUNIOR HOP.

The Big Event Staged to Take Place at the Rosewild Friday Night is Nearly Here.

With only three days left before the evening of the big event, the Junior Hop, many are becoming anxious in regard to whether they will be able to get in on the few tickets that those who are in charge of the sale of the small cards say they have left. "Practically all of the tickets are now in the hands of the fussers, but those wishing to climb in the band wagon must hurry," says Chairman Irwin.

This event has been scheduled to be held at the Rosewild this coming Friday evening.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT OF THE CORNHUSKER

Work Has Been Started on this Department of this Year's Book—Dinsmore Aids.

Work on the military department of the Cornhusker has been started. Captain A. H. Dinsmore represents the department in assisting the Cornhusker editors to compile the military section. This is contrary to the custom of former years, being the first time that one man has been named to represent the Military Science department in co-operating with the editors in handling that section of the book. The officers will assist him in every possible way.

Captain Dinsmore has given out a notice to the effect that officers and sponsors and individual military pictures for the Cornhusker should be taken this week.

COURSE IS OFFERED IN ROMAN LAW

Grove, E. Barber in Charge of the Course—Will Take Two Hours a Week Along Different Lines

Next semester I shall offer a two-hour course in Roman Law. Part of the hour will be given to lectures upon the origin, development, and leading features of Roman Law, and a part to reading selections from the text. The reading will not be difficult as Legal Latin is quite easy. I shall be glad to consult with any who contemplate taking such a course.

GROVE E. BARBER.

SPECIAL CHORUS FOR THE UNIVERSITY MEN

Work in the Chorus Entitles the Men to Take Part in the Coming May Festival

The Monday morning chorus for men is proving very popular. The men like to sing together and they find that they progress more rapidly in uninterrupted practice. Opportunity for singing with the women is given at the Friday rehearsal from 5 to 6 p. m. The Monday rehearsal, from 7 to 8 p. m., allows men to register for chorus who otherwise would have a conflict with military drill. Registration in this chorus also gives free admission to the concerts of the May Festival. It is possible to substitute Monday—7 to 8 p. m.—during one year for one semester of three regular rehearsals.

LEAVES FOR SOUTH

BASKETBALL TEAM MAKES ITS ANNUAL MIGRATION

ARE FOUR IMPORTANT GAMES

Kansas Aggies and Jayhawks on the Husking List—The Strength of Jayhawks Great—Team Confident of Victory

By Ivan G. Beede

The Cornhusker basketball squad left this morning for their annual migration to the southern clime of the Jayhawks. Whether they will return in good season to feather their nests with laurels gained, or whether they shall soon return with tales of a too warm climate is causing Cornhusker supporters a great deal of worry. The squad itself is peppy and confident of victory. The team boarded the Union Pacific at seven o'clock this morning after giving the meager audience which had gathered to see them off a graphic illustration of how a Cornhusker husks. Eight men comprised the squad: Captain Hawkins, Hugg, Shields, Thiessen, Myers, Campbell and Shields. They were piloted by T. A. Williams, a willing substitute for Manager Reed who will take charge of the Rag election tomorrow.

Nebraska's standing in the Missouri valley conference depends largely on the result of this southern invasion. All four games go toward the valley championship. Tonight and tomorrow night the team will meet the Kansas Aggies at Manhattan. Friday and Saturday they will meet Kansas at Lawrence. The Aggies have a veteran aggregation which defeated the Warrenburg Normals last week by the narrow margin of two points. Although the strength of the farmers is not underestimated it is thought that the Huskers will succeed in disposing of them.

The two games with Kansas are the ones which cause worry in the Nebraska camp. Kansas has a formidable bunch of speed artists and basket piercers. They defeated Ames on the Ames floor, 33-27 and 29-22. The Jayhawks will have the advantage of playing on their home floor, while the Cornhuskers will be handicapped by
