Miss Gladys Schamp of Omaha spent the week end at the Delta Zeta house.

The Delta Zeta alumni will meet with Mrs. Nettie Wills Shugart, Tuesday evening.

Miss Carrie Coman of Falls City spent the week end at the Alpha Omicron Pi house.

Helen Carroll and Margaret Leake of Fremont were in Lincoln last week end and attended the Senior Prom.

Mrs. J. W. Hoberg of Nebraska City has returned to her home after spending several days at the Aechoth house.

The pledges of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority will give a valentine party for the sorority at the chapter house February 12.

Miss Marcia Perkins of Fremont was a week end guest at the Kappa Alpha Theta house and attended the Sigma Chi formal party.

A young chemist came Saturday morning to make his home with Professor and Mrs. George Borrowman at 947 South Thirteenth street.

Miss Grace Bennett entertained at luncheon Saturday in honor of Mrs. Otto Wiese of Laramie, Wyoming, formerly Miss Helen Dinsmore, '12.

Mrs. Dorothy Miller Campbell, former student at the University, and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, has returned to her home at Cleveland, Ohio, after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Miller of Lincoln.

Jack Bowen of Omaha, who has been in the forestry service at Billings, Montana, for the past year, has registered in school again this semester.

The University Faculty Women's Club will meet with Mrs. Willard Kimball, 1936 D street, at 2:30 p. m., Wednesday. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Grove E. Barber, Mrs. P. H. Frye, Mrs. E. L. Hinman, and Mrs. F. W. Sanford.

A son, Thomas Mockett, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davies of Uteca, Nebr., Sunday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Davies are graduates of the University. Mrs. Davies was formerly Kathryn Mockett. She is now at the home of her parents in this city.

Carl Rohde, Jr., '12, and Miss Greta Mace, who studied at the University School of Music for several years, were married recently at the home of the bride's parents at Columbus. Mr. and Mrs. Rohde are occupying a new bungalow on a farm near Columbus.

The Misses Anna Jelen, Mabel Thompson, Stella Rice, Emma Christensen and Effie Noll entertained at a house party at the home of the latter Friday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated with red and green—cupids and hearts being much in evidence. The evening was spent in games and dancing, and at a late hour refreshments were served. Mrs. H. L. Noll chaperoned the party.

Dr. C. E. Bessey sustained another attack yesterday morning as a result of degeneration of heart muscles and a general breakdown. He was resting more easily during the evening. Dr. J. F. Stevens summoned Dr. W. O. Bridges of Omaha for consultation Sunday morning.

Ralph M. ("Sham") Kryger, Delta Chi, class of 1913, was a campus visitor Friday. Mr. Kryger, who has been in the employ of the legal department of the Burlington, has recently become associated with Mr. Williams, a well known attorney of Neligh, under the firm name of Williams & Kryger.

Word was received in Lincoln yesterday of the death of Everett Delzell, youngest son of James E. Delzell, former state superintendent of schools. Mr. and Mrs. Delzell recently moved to Stevens Point, Wis., where Mr. Delzell is head of the state normal school. The son, Everett, was about sixteen years old. He was said to have been in poor health for some time. The funeral will be held Tuesday at Stevens Point. Wilson Delzell, who is taking work at the State University, left Lincoln early Sunday morning when he received word of his brother's death.

Iowa State Collegian: A total of 2,629 students have enrolled this term according to the figures at the registrar's office. Last term there were 2,542. The difference of eighty-seven does not give the number of new students enrolled, because some dropped out last semester. Not over a dozen asked for their credits to attend some other college.

ELECTION TUESDAY

and Stewart Claar have the field to themselves.

For the business manager of the Husker, Ralph Lahr and Paul Babson have been announced. Each is out renewing friendships and the contest here promises to be a warm one.

One or two candidates have been heard from in regard to the Ivy Day oratorship. C. L. Rein, "Secretary to the Chancellor," is one of the rumored would-be silver-tongues, and to keep him company it is said that the following have entered the race: Bob Harley, Harold Prince, Abraham Sorenson and Homer Hewitt. It might be a good plan to have a debate on the honor occasion instead of a speech.

PROF. W. A. ROCKIE GOES TO LOUISIANA

Last Year's Graduate—Will Do Soil Surveying in Alexandria, Louisiana

W. A. Rockie, an instructor in the geography department, left today for Alexandria, Louisiana, where he will do some soil surveying. Mr. Rockie works in the south in the winter time and in the north in the summer time. He has accomplished some very creditable work while assisting Doctor Condra in the geography department. Mr. Rockie is a graduate of the University. He received his A. B. degree last year. While in college he was a candidate for Senior president and was once president of the Union Literary Society.
