UNIVERSITY MEN AT HASTINGS CONFERENCE

W. T. Elmore Gives Principal Address and Touches Upon Mohammedians and the Present War

Nebraska men and women took an active part in the student volunteer conference at Hastings. S. R. Pier of the University is president of the conference. The speech of W. T. Elmore of India was of special significance.

The University Y. M. C. A. was represented by the following men: R. L.
Ewing, S. R. Pier, E. W. Lundeen, John Ibsen, W. F. Urbach, Chas. Hoffman, C. H. Clark, E. F. Almy, C. H.
Park, R. G. Simmons, and Glen Everts.

Mr. S. R. Pier, president of the conference, proved himself to be one of the strongest men of the state. He organized the men of this conference and much of its success was due to his efforts.

The speech of W. T. Elmore did much to stimulate interest. He said

RELAY TEAM WERE DEFEATED AT MEET
Defeat Due to Inadequate Facilities For Winter Training—Reavis
Fourth in Pole Vault

The relay team made a poor showing in the Kansas City Athletic meet.
Frank Reavis tied for second in pole vault.

The defeat administered to the Nebraska relay team was due to the inadequate facilities for winter training.
The men have no inclosed track, and the athletic field is in a state of perpetual "slop." The men who represented us were: Zumwinkel, Bates, Deering, and Irwin.

Frank Reavis attempted to hold up the dignity of the University in the pole vault, but was compelled to accept a tie for fourth place.

NEBRASKA STUDENT
DESERTS HIS WIFE
Husband Gives Excuse for His Action —Says He Is a Student and Unable to Support Wife

The scholastic inclinations of Corliss D. Totman is in part responsible for the divorce granted Lula A. Totman by Judge Cosgrave, Thursday.

Her husband left her last November, she declared, and told her that he was studying at the University of Nebraska and for that reason would not be able to contribute to her support for at least two years.

She runs a rooming house at 1810 N street. For the past two years, she asserted, her husband was the star boarder; living on the income her business brought in and doing nothing for the maintenance of the family.
They were married March 28, 1903, in Cedar Rapids, Ia., and have one son 10 years of age. She was given the custody of the boy.

First College Baseball Almost fifty years ago—1868, to be accurate—the baseball teams of Harvard and Yale met in the initial game of a series which has become historic in the annals of college sport. With the exception of two years, the varsity nines of these two universities have been playing annually upon the diamonds at New Haven, Cambridge and occasionally in the larger cities, when an additional game was necessary to decide the series. Some extremely interesting data has developed as a result of these contests between the teams of the Blue and the Crimson, for since the early days no less than 125 games have been played. During this long stretch of years the pendulum of victory has swung with remarkable consistency, for Yale has won but four more games than Harvard. Viewed from the standpoint of annual series, however, Harvard has a decided advantage, for of the forty-two series the Crimson has won twenty-four to Yale's seventeen, with two drawn.
