GIRLS ELECTED TO JUNIOR OFFICES

Three Girls Selected for Positions—President Has Called Another Meeting for Thursday

Three girls were elected at Junior class meeting. The second meeting is to be held Thursday at 11:30, in Memorial Hall.

Margaret Davison vice-president; Helen Davison, secretary, and Bertha Ehlers, treasurer, was the result of the first meeting of the Junior class last Thursday.

President Spencer has called a meeting for Thursday at 11:30 o'clock, after Convocation, in Memorial Hall. The purpose of this meeting is to boost the Junior play. Plans will be discussed and arrangements made to insure the success of the play.

Social and Personal

Miss Florence Agor of Omaha spent the week end with friends who are attending the University.

Miss Almeda Hill, who was a mid-year graduate, has returned to her home in Falls City after visiting with friends at Nebraska City for several days.

Susie Baker, '14, was married to Eugene Fountain of Blue Lake, Calif., last week. Mr. and Mrs. Fountain will live at Arcata, Calif., where he is a dentist.

Dr. C. J. Elmore, head of the botany department in Grand Island College, and a graduate of the University, was in Lincoln Sunday to attend the funeral of Doctor Bessey.

Ivan G. Beege received a letter from Henry Caruso, asking him to fill one of Caruso's dates in New York next week. Mr. Caruso is suffering from bronchial trouble and has asked Mr. Beege to fill the date, considering him his most able contemporary.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Hargreaves and baby daughter, Grace Margaret, left Saturday for Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Hargreaves are former students of the University. Mrs. Hargreaves and the baby will stay with Mrs. Hargreaves' parents, Secretary and Mrs. W. J. Bryan, until Mr. Hargreaves winds up his business affairs in Lincoln and locates in Washington, where he will have a government position.

Mrs. James T. Lees, wife of Professor Lees, has been renominated without opposition for the position of president of the Lincoln Woman's Club. The Lincoln club is the next to the largest—if not the largest—woman's club in the United States, having a membership of 1,049.

Elmer Hills of Caldwell, Idaho, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and Miss Ione Bellamy were married Saturday at Salt Lake City, Utah. Mrs. Hills graduated from the Omaha High School and taught for two years in Fairbury. Mr. Hills was formerly principal of the Fairbury High School, but is now practicing law at Caldwell.

Franklin Perry Smith, Sigma Chi, and Ruth Elizabeth Lane, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Lane of Fremont, will be married at the Trinity Cathedral in Omaha, March 9. Dear James T. Tancock will officiate and Miss Greta Lane, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor. Frank Perkins of Fremont will be best man. Only relatives and close friends will attend the wedding. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Smith plan to leave for Hawaii to be away for several months.

SPECIAL STUNTS FOR THE SENIOR PARTY

Rumor That Senior Girls Will Bake Cakes for the Occasion—Black Masques Making Arrangements

Extensive plans are being made by the girls of the Black Masque Society to make the Senior party one of the most enjoyable events of the year. It is rumored that the girls themselves are intending to bake a number of cakes for this occasion and there are some special stunts arranged that ought to make the party one of the "livest" Senior functions.

Aside from the eats and stunts there will be dancing, in which circle two-steps and robber's waltzes will be the chief order of the day, the object being to get everybody to mix as much as possible.

All Seniors are urged to put in an appearance and make the affair a success.

JUNE COMMENCEMENT INVITATIONS UNIQUE

Order Given to Eastern Firm—Design Entirely New—Will Be on Sale in March

The invitations for the June Commencement are to be of a novel and attractive form, with several new features, according to the order which was given an Eastern firm several days ago. The design will be entirely different from those of past years, and will be made in leather and cardboard.

The sale will begin about March fifteenth and will continue for three days. Orders will be taken for the exact number wanted and a small deposit will be required. The sheet announcements will also be sold at this time.

"Nebraska Alumnus" Delayed by the Printers

The next edition of the "Nebraska Alumnus" will not be out for two weeks at least. The printing company has had more than they can handle, on account of legislative printing, and have delayed the issue.
