Social and Personal

Dr. P. J. O'Gara, '02, visited Prof. R. J. Pool, Tuesday. He left for Washington, D. C., Wednesday. Dr. O'Gara is one of the most highly paid men in the service of the United States Department of Agriculture.

"Jean Baptiste," a story of French-Canadian life, is a novel which has been written by Prof. J. E. LeRossignol of the department of political economy and commerce. The book is being printed by E. P. Denton of New York, and J. M. Dent & Sons in London and Canada, and will appear in about a month.

Harold Eaton, 1905, now a fellow and assistant in the department of geology at Chicago University, was recently elected to membership in Sigma Xi, honorary scientific society, and Psi Xi, honorary graduate society. Mr. Eaton is giving instruction in place of Professor Williston, who is away on leave of absence.

Mrs. George Schwake entertained two hundred and fifty guests at a musicale in honor of her daughter, Mrs. William La Verne Bates of Lodge Pole, Nebr., at the Lindell Hotel, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Bates was formerly Miss Florence Schwake, Phi Beta Phi. The concert numbers were features and the dinner. The date set so early in March enables every one to invest his three dollars without borrowing from his friends. This date was undoubtedly scheduled for the special benefit of the "Tussers" who wish to take advantage of this last opportunity to get that formal bid. Tickets can be obtained of Paul Temple, B-1821; B. W. Taylor, B-1482; Art Chace, B-2989; Edna Froyd, B-1464; Ruth Mills, B-2472; M. L. Poteet, B-2670; H. J. Schwab, B-2596; Bernice Heckler, B-2437, and Doris Slater, F-1415.

Landlady—Young man, did you expectorate in the waste basket?
1918—No, madam, I missed it three inches.—Princeton Tiger.

Late Happenings of National Interest
Did you know that—
Vic Halligan was seen in the Law Library once.

Jimmy Keele is making his third attempt at raising a mustache.
The Kappas have lost three pins in the last two weeks.

Billy Nottings combed his hair March 2, 1915.
Professor Bunting missed a bill at the Lyric last semester.

Jumbo shoots a pretty fair stick at bottle pool.

Bob Harley is going to be added to the repertorial staff to write dope for this column. Please take your spite out on him. He won't get mad.

Mrs. Raymond is equipping some bunch of song birds out of that flock of mud larks, and by spring vacation will have a Glee Club that will make the Joshuas and Mirandas over the state smile.

Something New In Sweaters

Your college colors deftly knit in collar and around the bottom in a Navajo border effect. For instance, if your colors are white and purple—a white sweater with purple Navajo border. This is quite the last word in sweaterdom—something that will make a real flash on the campus.

THE Bradley
KNIT WEAR

Illustrated—Man's Bradley Navajo Shaker—palmstake-knit of thick, warm yarn. A sweater that will outlast the college course. Moderately priced.
Woman's Knit Sport Coats, knit to conform with present styles. Made with belt in contrasting color—a very pretty style for women's wear.
