A. Lindstrom—Engineers' Night committee, to take the place of A. L. Nelson, resigned.

WESLEYAN TEAM TO PLAY THE NATIONALS
Game to Be Played Tonight in the City Auditorium—Game Will Be Closely Contested

The Wesleyan basketball team will play the Nationals tonight at the City Auditorium. The Nationals have a reputation extending from coast to coast and defeated the strong Methodist aggregation two weeks ago by a close score. Since this time, however, the Nebraska champions have gone through some strenuous training and will be in the best of shape when the game is called tonight.
The game will attract a large number of University students. In spite of the drubbing which the Methodists administered to the University team at their last meeting, they have a host of admirers and supporters among the student body of the University. Coach Kline is a Nebraska University student.

ALPHA THETAS WIN BASKETBALL GAME
Championship of First Division Settled Last Night—Game Close and Snappy Throughout

Alpha Theta Chi defeated Delta Tau Delta by a score of 13 to 6 for the championship of the first division in the inter-fraternity basketball tournament at the Armory last night. The game was less rough than the same game last year, the Alpha Thetas winning by superior team work.
Phi Delta Theta will play Phi Kappa Psi for the championship of the second division at the Armory tonight. The winner of this game will play the Alpha Thetas for the championship of the league. The game will probably be played the first week after vacation.

A Suicide Bureau
In Chicago there is a suicide bureau, and, strange as it may seem on the surface, this bureau is conducted by the Salvation Army. Its purpose, however, is to save would-be suicides, and this is the way it works:
Every story of a suicide that appears in the Chicago Herald is preceded by the following statement boldly set out in black type: "The Salvation Army suicide bureau at 673 South State street gives aid and advice to would-be suicides." It offers an interesting problem in psychology. Will the statement counteract the story in the mind of the person who contemplates taking his life? In some cases such persons have gone to the bureau and received aid, have been lifted over the dark spell and saved. Of course, such a plan cannot reach all, but if one life is saved it is worth while, and it will be interesting to watch the results of the experiment.

By a Prof.

I like you, charming first-year maids,
—I'm much too wise to love—
I range you in my inner mind
From peacock up to dove.
I watch with interest intent
Your languid, lustrous eyes
—That is, when'er your glittering rings
No dazzlings new devise.
I view your furs and velvet hats
With musings you know not
—That is, when'er your garments chic
Do not suggest it's hot.
I hear with joy your lilting tones
And dream of murmuring brooks
—That is, when'er your knowledge I
Do not compare with books.
And so, O charming first-year maids
—Though I lost my monthly fee—
I'll overlook your "modern minds"
And pass you with a D!
—Minnesota Daily.

Roger Garvin, one of the mainstays of the University of Pennsylvania's varsity crew for the last two years, was declared ineligible by the faculty. Garvin, it is learned, accumulated five conditions during the mid-year examinations and there is almost no chance that the faculty ban will be lifted.

Will Elect Baseball Captain by Mail
Evanston, Ill.—A captain of the 1915 Northwestern University baseball team will be elected by "mail order," according to the coach's announcement. At the end of the baseball season last year there was a deadlock for the office, so letters will be sent to all members of last year's squad and they will have another chance, in writing, to agree on a leader.

Lewis Captain
Lewis, star guard on the Minnesota basketball team, was elected to captain next year's quintet. Lewis won several games for the Gophers. His foul goals were responsible for Purdue's two defeats. He scored nine foul goals against Northwestern and Minnesota won 12 to 11. He also scored nine foul goals in a game against Iowa, which the Gophers won 11 to 9.

Co-eds at Northwestern university are to play baseball this spring for the first time in the history of the institution. It was announced today that the games will be seven innings in length, and that the umpire may "call" them any time she sees fit.

"The time will come," thundered the suffragette orator, "when women will get men's wages."
"Yes," said a man in the back seat, "Next Saturday night."—Scarlet and Black.

Nebraskan Gets Degree
Harry Walter Johnson of Oakland, Nebr., received his master of arts degree at the ninety-fourth convocation of the University of Chicago, held on March 16, 1915.

The total benefactions to colleges and universities for the year 1914 were $16,045,474. Of this amount Cornell received over $4,000,000.

When Father Swooned
My father one day said to me,
"My son, here's fifty beans;
Blow ev'ry blooming cent, it's free—
Here, stick it in your jeans."

Then I unto my father said,
"Dear Dad, take back your pelf,
I'll never spend a doggoned red
That I've not earned myself."

My father turned a sickly green,
His eyes they did protrude;
He smote himself upon the bean,
Then fainted where he stood.
