Classes Excused
On account of the Interclass Debate today at Convocation the 10 o'clock classes have been dismissed. The Juniors will meet the Sophomores in Memorial Hall for the class championship. The names of those receiving Phi Beta Kappa honors for the year will also be announced.

The Size of the Sun
Under a blazing orb the size of a dime, the Altoona Tribune says: Above illustration is greatly reduced from the actual size of the sun as it was several years ago. An illustration the actual size of the sun as it is today would probably take up the great er part of one of the pages of this paper. The sun was quite common in past years. The young boys and girls might be interested in knowing that the sun, which was at one time visible to the older people inhabiting this earth, is a self-luminous orb which, being in or near the center of our system of worlds, formerly gave light and heat to all the planets, but now throws its rays upon the earth semi-yearly and sometimes not that often.

Social and Personal

Achoth announces the pledging of Ruth Sinclair of Lincoln.

W. H. Bixby, formerly a student in the University Engineering College, is in Lincoln on a short visit. He is employed on a railroad extension near Guernsey, Colo.

The Association of Collegiate Alumni will give a reception in honor of the national secretary, Vida Hunt Francis, of Philadelphia, at the Lincoln Hotel, April 21.

In honor of Miss Adelia Dodge, traveling student secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association, Miss Esther Bennett entertained the old and new cabinets at dinner at her home yesterday.

Forty members of the active and alumnae chapter of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority met for a picnic luncheon at the chapter house Saturday afternoon. The sorority will make these gatherings monthly affairs. Several out-of-town guests were present at the last luncheon.
