THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 1915

It would seem more like spring if we could linger about the fountain waiting for a chance to drink.

The University Week management have hit upon a good plan in presenting the different entertainments here at home. It will put the association upon a financial footing enabling them to start the work next year without delay. It will also give the students series of first-class entertainments at a minimum cost. The University public should show their appreciation of the efforts of the management and those taking part in the events by giving their enthusiastic support.

AT LAST

Following close the action of the girls in declaring against the use of cabs, the Inter-Fraternity council adopted a resolution to the effect that cabs should not be used except in very bad weather, and providing a penalty for the infraction of the rule. This is an example of what can be accomplished thru organized effort. Organizations can do much to regulate conduct in the school because they have the power to regulate the actions of their members. Consequently they have considerable responsibility. They should be leaders in initiating movements to abolish objectionable features of our college life, and for promulgating institutions that are needed to strengthen our activities. Let the Inter-Sorority Council and the Inter-Fraternity Council take action upon the question of cheating in examinations and cigarette smoking at University dances and enforce their rulings vigorously and see how long these practices would continue. In this way the conduct of such a large number of students could be controlled that it would be extremely uncomfortable for the remaining students to do these things. Such actions would strengthen the sororities and fraternities and at the same time wield a powerful influence in our University life.

STUDENTS PRAISED

entertain two of each company which played in our city, and I wish to say I was rather keen to know just what our boys and girls were doing at Lincoln. From the way they all conducted themselves while in our city I can safely say they are doing the right thing all the time at your city. From my observations (and they were many) I found all of these students were not only a credit to themselves, but as well to this great state. They acted nothing but the part of strict gentlemen and ladies and I am sure should they ever chance this way again they will find they have many friends which they made while with us.

Extension Week Popular

"David City, Nebr., April 2.—University of Nebraska Week has meant more for David City and the sixty former and present students of that institution living here than was even hoped for in the beginning. The road show appeared last night to the largest and most enthusiastic crowd of the week. The attendance and enthusiasm increased with each attraction. The Cadet Band, which appeared on Friday, March 26, sustained its reputation of being the best college band in the country. The Glee Club on Tuesday pleased everyone in attendance. 'The Man from Home' was declared to be the best play ever presented in David City. The men of the cast were the guests of the Commercial Club at a dinner on Wednesday. Cloyd Stewart of the Dramatic Club was called on for some readings and was kept reading for fully forty minutes before he was allowed to stop.

"The visiting students have been entertained in the homes of former University students and other friends of the University. There has been an informal dance after each attraction, and other social affairs have been planned and carried out in honor of the city's guests.

"Dr. George E. Condra will close the events Saturday night with his illustrated lecture on 'Industrial Nebrask-ka.'"

Films Appreciated

Below is an extract from a letter of the mayor of Scottsbluff, Nebraska, to the Nebraska Conservation and Public Welfare Commission concerning the State motion pictures which were run there recently.

"We hope you received the films in good shape. They surely were appreciated here. We showed them for four days from one to three o'clock, and the building was filled each day.
On Saturday afternoon the Russian population turned out and when the Russian beet laborers were thrown on the screen they pretty nearly went wild. If people everywhere enjoy seeing the pictures as much as the people here enjoy seeing them it is no wonder that you have such crowds."

Posted Rule Changed

The Registrar announces that the rule regarding posters has been changed so that red letter posters may be used if desired. The rule providing for red letter posters heretofore reserved for special emergencies has been abolished.

Grim to Cut Squad

Coach Jack Grim will cut the De-Pauw baseball squad of forty-five down to twenty-five men after the next outdoor practice. The men are fast rounding into shape and Grim is optimistic over the prospects for a winning nine this spring. The coach hopes to line up his second and first string aggregations against each other at the first favorable opportunity. It is possible that the game will be played this afternoon, if the weather moderates.
