

The Daily Nebraskan

VOL. XIV. NO. 131.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1915.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

CADET INSPECTION

DRILL HELD ON THE ATHLETIC FIELD

COMPANIES TO BE REVIEWED

Sponsors and All Other Girls Interested Are Invited to Witness the Governmental Inspection—
From One to Four

Governmental inspection of the regiments will take place on the Athletic Field from 1 to 4 o'clock today. All who are interested, both men and women, are invited to go over at any time in the afternoon.

Subject to the approval of the Government Inspector, Major Andrew Moses, General Staff, U. S. A., the following schedule will be followed during the inspection tomorrow:

- First call, 1:45 p. m.
- Assembly, 2:00 p. m.
- 1. Regimental review and inspection.
- 2. Company guard posted.
- 3. Company close order drill.
- 4. Company extended order drill.

FLING TO ADDRESS SCANDINAVIAN CLUB

"Scandinavian Past, Present and Future" Will Be Subject—Meeting Next Wednesday Evening

Professor Fling will address the Scandinavian Club at its meeting in Art Hall, Wednesday evening. The subject of the address is "Scandinavia Past, Present and Future." The lecture will be especially interesting at this time on account of the Schleswig-Holstein question. All students interested in Scandinavia should attend.

THREE PLAYS AT TEMPLE SATURDAY

University School of Music Will Present Two Comedies and a Tragedy

The University School of Music Dramatic Department will give an entertainment next Saturday at the Temple Theatre at 2:15 o'clock. Three short plays will be given, "A Gentle Jury," "An Obstinate Family," comedies, and "St. Cecelia," a tragedy.

Mr. H. A. Prince's pupils have given several entertainments this year

PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT

DRAMATIC CLUB'S ANNUAL PRODUCTION READY

AT PENITENTIARY TONIGHT

"Monsieur Beaucaire" Will Be Presented at Oliver Theatre Tomorrow Evening—Many Good Seats Left

The University Dramatic Club will present their annual play at the Oliver Theatre tomorrow night at 8:15. The play selected this year is Booth Tarkington's "Monsieur Beaucaire," and it is one of the largest productions ever offered by the club. The time of the play calls for very elaborate costumes and complete dress for the entire cast has been secured from an Omaha firm for the occasion. For the first time in the history of the club the opportunity to present a play before the inmates of the State Penitentiary has come and the cast will present "Monsieur Beaucaire" in full costume there tonight at 7:00. It was through the influence of Dr. George Howard, Judge Lincoln Frost, and Judge Howard Kennedy that this opportunity came. It is the purpose of the Dramatic Club to be of real service to the student body and to the people of the state in general by pro-

(Continued on page 2)

SIG ALPHS LEAD SECOND DIVISION

Last Year's Champions Defeated the Sigma Phi Epsilon—Score Was 6 to 2

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, last year's champions of the Interfraternity Baseball League, defeated Sigma Phi Epsilon, Wednesday night, in the first game of the second division in the interfraternity baseball tournament. The game was played at the Twenty-second and J streets yard at six o'clock and was called in the sixth inning on account of darkness when the score stood 6 to 2. A sensational catch in left field by "Pud" Kelly, the nifty little quarterback on last year's freshman team, was the feature of the game.

Batteries—Sig Alphas, Grimm and Shaw; Sig Eps, Krikac and Baylis.
Hits—Off Krikac 1, off Grimm 5.
Strike outs—By Krikac 7, by Grimm 14.
Bases on balls—Off Krikac none, off Grimm 2.
Hit by pitched ball—By Krikac 1.

Beethoven Symphony

The seventh Beethoven symphony concert will be given at Convocation next Tuesday. This concert will be of special interest as the Damrosch Orchestra of New York will play the same symphony at the May Festival, May 6.

Prof. W. F. Dann will play parts of this symphony Saturday at 5 o'clock in Art Hall.

Meeting of Librarians

Mr. M. G. Wyr, University librarian, went to Columbus yesterday to attend the annual meeting of the Northwest District of the Nebraska Library Association.

ROAD SHOW AT TEMPLE TONIGHT

Tickets Will Admit Holders to Professor Eaves' Lecture Tomorrow Evening

Tickets for the University Road Show are still on sale and may be purchased from the book stores and at the Temple Theatre.

Admission is twenty-five cents and tickets will also admit the holder to Dr. Lucile Eaves' lecture tomorrow evening.

STUDENT EXPELLED FOR STEALING BOOK

University Takes Action in an Effort to Stop the Practice of Petty Thieving About School

A flagrant case of petty thieving was brought to the attention of the University authorities during the last few days, and as a result the guilty party was expelled from the institution yesterday. A stolen book was found in one of the bookstores and with the assistance of the proprietor the student who sold the book was found. This action was the first decided step to put an end to the promiscuous appropriation of other peo-

MEDIC CONVOCATION

GREETINGS ARE SENT BY OMAHA STUDENTS

WOLCOT COMMENDS SCHOOL

Dean Bridges Spoke of the Feeling of Affiliation Between Omaha and Lincoln Medical Students—College Ranks Well

At Convocation yesterday morning Junior Dean R. H. Wolcott spoke a few words of commendation for the College of Medicine and praised Dean Bridges of Omaha, whom he introduced as the speaker of the occasion. Dean Bridges brought greetings to the Pre-medics from the students in the college at Omaha.

He spoke of the substantial foundation of the Medical College and cited the affiliation of the Omaha Medical College with the University in 1901 as the cause of many students coming from Omaha to the University and better feeling existing between the two cities.

His address dealt mostly with the

LEON SNYDER, '15, Alma—Plays title role in the Dramatic Club Play tomorrow night.

ELLA WILLIAMS, '15, Buffalo, Wyo.—Plays part of "Lady Mary" in "Monsieur Beaucaire."

- 5. Bayonet exercise.
- 6. Battalion rifle drill to music.
- 7. Company guard inspected and relieved.
- 8. Battalion close order drill.
- 9. Battalion advance to the attack.
- 10. Advance guard marching north on Tenth street toward Oak creek. A battalion acting as an advance guard for a regiment or larger force.
- 11. Outpost in open field beyond Hayward School. A battalion outpost for a regiment or larger force.
- 12. Combat problem in open field beyond Hayward School.

SAM M. PARKER,
First Lieutenant of Infantry,
Commandant.

Law Fraternity Met

The weekly meeting of the legal fraternity of Phi Delta Phi was held at the Phi Delta Theta house last night. Officers for the ensuing year were elected.

and their reputation for good work is established.

DOCTOR EAVES WILL SPEAK AT TEMPLE

"Supervision and Promotion of Recreation" Will Be the Subject of Illustrated Address

Dr. Lucile Eaves of the Sociology Department will speak at the Temple Theatre, Saturday at 8:15 o'clock, on "Public Supervision and Promotion of Recreations." In connection with her lecture, Miss Eaves will use a number of slides furnished by the Russell Sage Foundation for the Advancement of Learning in New York City.

This constitutes the last number of the University Week program, the same lecture having been given at Osceola and Seward.

ple's property by a few people who have adopted that practice.

TAMZON MANKER IN DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

Former University Girl, Who is Now on the Stage, Will Help Tonight

Miss Tamzon Manker, who was a student in the University last year, is visiting in Lincoln this week and will appear in the Dramatic Club play which is to be presented at the penitentiary tonight. She will take the part of Miss Camille Leyda, who cannot appear tonight on account of the Road Show entertainment in which she takes a part. Miss Manker was prominent in dramatics while in the University and has been in professional dramatic work this year.

work at Omaha and, speaking as a graduate of an Eastern school, he thinks the University's Medical College is not surpassed by any small school in the United States. Visitors from the Eastern colleges say the same. He stated that the efforts of the faculty were toward the efficiency and proficiency of the students.

He spoke of Doctor Ward as a far-sighted man, as evidenced by the fact that he bought eight acres of land for the college campus. He took some time to tell of the step in advance enabled by the appropriation of money for a new State Hospital with exclusive privileges for the students. This he believes will put Nebraska in advance of any other state university in the sense that the school is not restricted to the State Hospital, since there are four other hospitals to which the students have access.

(Continued on page 3)

Dramatic Club Play—Oliver Saturday Night—Apr. 24