OLD TRACK RECORDS

FAVORABLE CONTESTS WITH OLDER COLLEGES

NEBRASKA COMPARES WELL

Team of All-Stars Picked from Teams of Last Seven Years Would Be Almost Olympic
Winners

Nebraska's track records compare favorably with those of the older and better equipped universities of the country. Though Nebraska has never had a team which could win an Eastern championship, the team of all-stars picked from her teams during the past seven years could almost win the Olympic games.

The records, record holders and year in which they were made are as follows:

- 100-yard dash—Robert Anderson, 1898; Guy E. Reed, 1910; George Irwin, 1914; 10 seconds.
- 220-yard dash—Guy E. Reed, 1911, 21 1/4 seconds.
- 440-yard dash—Guy E. Reed, 1911, 50 seconds.
- 880-yard run—W. I. McGowan, 1911, 2 minutes 6 1/2 seconds.
- One-mile—Lewis Anderson, 1911, 4 minutes 26 seconds.
- Two-mile—Lewis Anderson, 1911, 10 minutes 6 seconds.
- 120-yard hurdles—Dale McDonald, 1909, 15 1/2 seconds.
- 220-yard hurdles—Dale McDonald, 1909, 25 1/2 seconds.
- Pole-vault—D. D. Reavis, 1914, 12 feet.
- High jump—C. Meyers, 1914, 5 feet 11 1/2 inches.
- Broad jump—Elroy Munson, 1910, 22 feet 3 1/2 inches.
- Shot-put—C. Meyers, 1914, 39 feet 5 inches.
- Discus-throw—C. Meyers, 1914, 125 feet 6 inches.
- Hammer-throw—Sidney Collins, 1909, 151 feet 7 inches.

ATHLETIC STATUS

ONLY ONE OF LAST YEAR'S STARS RETURNED

MATERIAL BEING DEVELOPED

Many Inexperienced Men on Squad,
But Will Be Point Winners
Before Season Ends—
Prospects Good

The chances for a championship track team were lost when graduation, inability to return to college, and ineligibility caused the loss of such promising stars as Lindstrum, Reavis, Smith, Maxwell, Rasmussen, Myers, Vidal, and Corey. Never in the history of track and field athletics did Nebraska have such a promising Freshman team as last year. Yet out of all these stars only Reavis is saved.

Regardless of the sort of team that will represent Nebraska this spring, a nucleus is being built for next year. More than seventy-five are working out regularly and of the entire squad only three will be graduated this year. Although very inexperienced, the squad is making a remarkable showing for such short training.

In the sprints Scott and Irwin are developing great ability. In the quarter and half, Zumwinkel, Bates, Clark, and Kubik are sure to give the best very good competition. In the mile, Anderson and Spohn are doing well and Garrison and Gribble have promise. In the two-mile, McMasters, Raecke, Kratz, Rieker, and Webermeier make up a quintet who are improving rapidly and promise to win points before the season ends.

The field events are the weakest spots in the team. Reavis is perhaps the best pole-vaulter in the West. Liebendorfer promises to be an eleven-foot vaulter before the season ends. Ankeny, in the broad jump, will probably prove a find, as he is jumping more than twenty feet with an injured instep. In the high jump, Hummel and Rees are developing and should give a good account of themselves. In the weights, Lohman, Wood and Otopaulik, all inexperienced, will be depended upon to develop into point winners before the season ends.

In Goetze, Bolton, and Roberts, Nebraska has a group of new hurdlers who are showing good form and who will win points in both the Ames and Kansas meets.

IRON SPHYNX HAVE CHALLENGED SPIKES

Baseball Game Will Be Played On Ivy Day if the Committee Permits—
Hard-Fought Contest Expected

In accordance with well established tradition, the Iron Sphynx have challenged the Spikes to a baseball game. If the committee will grant it, the game will be made a part of the Ivy Day festivities. If this is arranged, it will be worth seeing, as it has always been a hard-fought contest. All members, both active and alumni, of each organization will be out to help with the "rooting."
