FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1915

Believing that field and track athletics are worthy of the attention and support of the student body, the Nebraskan is devoting this issue to these sports. In most western schools the interest in spring athletics is far ahead of that at Nebraska. Twenty thousand people saw the relay meet at Des Moines two weeks ago. At a recent dual meet at Missouri four thousand people were in attendance. Last year when Nebraska went to Kansas twenty-three hundred people turned out to see the meet. But the attendance at meets here has usually been small.

The track men are working hard—they deserve at least the reward of enthusiastic support at the meets. Ames will be here tomorrow. It is as necessary that we uphold the reputation of Nebraska in this contest against Ames as that we defeat them in football. We have a track team that will bring honor to Nebraska before the season is over. Let's get out tomorrow and show them that we have confidence in their ability to make good.

TO THE VOTERS

Next Tuesday the voters of Lincoln will, among other things, vote upon the question of issuing bonds for parking purposes along Salt creek south of O street toward Antelope Park. No doubt that is a very worthy project, but we submit that there are certain spots in the immediate vicinity of the campus that need parking and improvement even more than the strip down along Salt creek. In view of the fact that the state is preparing to spend several million dollars in improving and extending the University campus, it seems reasonable that the city of Lincoln should do their part in making this part of town more beautiful. There are unsightly buildings within a block of the campus that are a disgrace to the city. They would be bad enough down on the creek bottom, but to be immediately adjacent to the campus is an injustice to the University. The corner just across from the Law building, which is now used as a sort of a market square, if parked would make a decided improvement. The removal of the noise factory south of the Law building would help some. Some systematic scheme of parks, walks, and boulevards should be adopted so that these improvements might come gradually with the building up of the University. The city paid out a neat little sum not long ago to an expert for plans for a "city beautiful." The section about the University evidently was not considered in the plan.

It is time the University men who are voters should take an active interest in the government of this city. They should turn out Tuesday and vote for the men who have a constructive program for civic betterment which, among other things, will mean a cleaning up of the district adjacent to the University.

GUY E. REED

Guy E. Reed, present assistant director of athletics and secretary of the Alumni Association, is a graduate of Holdrege High School and the University of Nebraska. He is one of the greatest track men Nebraska has produced, holding the University record in the 220 and 440 yard dashes and for several years the Missouri Valley record in the 440, with a time of 50 seconds. He tied for second place in the 220 yard dash at the preliminaries for the Olympic games in 1912.

Mr. Reed became assistant director of athletics in 1912 and secretary of the Alumni Association in 1913. In the latter capacity he is well known among the Nebraska alumni for his ability as an organizer and his success in keeping up their interest in the University. He is respected by the students not only because of his ability as a coach, but also because of his personality and determination to keep Nebraska at the top in whatever she undertakes.

FIFTY NEW STUDENTS ENROLLED AT FARM

Studying Agriculture and Domestic Science in Short Course—Represent Twenty Counties

Twenty-six boys and twenty girls, representing twenty counties in the state, are spending the week at the State Farm studying agriculture and domestic science in a short course. This is an annual course conducted under the direction of the School of Agriculture and Extension Department. It consists of dairying, animal husbandry, farm machinery, and horticulture for the boys; for the girls, cooking and sewing. The students take their meals at Home Economics Hall.
