MAKE MANY CHANGES

REGENTS TAKE ACTION ON SEVERAL MATTERS

FORESTRY DEPT. ABOLISHED

Department of Poultry and College of Pharmacy Are Added—Title of Head Dean is Abolished

The Board of Regents met last week and made a number of important changes such as establishing a Department of Poultry and a College of Pharmacy, doing away with the title Head Dean and abolishing the Department of Forestry.

The Department of Poultry will, of course, be located at the State Farm. This department was thought necessary because of the amount of poultry now raised in Nebraska, the annual crop amounting to millions of dollars. Plans are already being made for the new department and instruction will start in the fall.

Dr. Lyman was authorized to develop plans for the organization of a College of Pharmacy and was made dean of the same. This new college will conduct the function of the Junior College of Medicine, which was abolished, and will also give work in the allied branches of medicine, such as dentistry. Assistant Dean Wolcott was relieved of further work with the medical students, in order that he may give his entire time to the Department of Zoology.

The title of Head Dean of the University, especially created in honor of Dean Bessey, was abolished. Professor Pool was made acting head of the Department of Botany and provision for an assistant professor was made. The University Campus Extension Committee has purchased and paid for thirty-four lots out of the eighty that must be secured before the six blocks are entirely owned by the state. The total price paid was $175,825. Perhaps the most important matter which was acted upon by the Regents was the abolishing of the Forestry Department.

The Board received the resignation of Professor Morrill of the Department of Forestry, to take effect at the pleasure of the Board. The Board voted to accept Professor Morrill's resignation, to take effect August 31, 1915.

Looking For a Bargain
The ticket agent at the Grand Central Station says that the other day a typical East Side Hebrew stepped up to the window and said, "Meester, I want a ticket by Springfield."
"Which Springfield," asked the ticket seller, "Springfield, Illinois; Springfield, Ohio, or Springfeld, Massachusetts?"
"Vich is the cheapest, meester?" asked the traveler in reply.

CORNHUSKER IS OUT

TWENTY-FIVE DAYS AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

BEST OF NEBRASKA ANNUALS

Many New Features Including a Beauty Section—Evidence of Censorship—A Literary and a Business Success

The 1915 Cornhusker is out. After several months of watchful waiting the students have been given what is generally conceded to be the best annual ever put out by the University. The promise of the management relative to an "early book" has been fulfilled, as the 'Husker is at least 25 days ahead of the usual schedule.

The book is entirely a Nebraska product. All the plates were made in Omaha and the press work was done in Lincoln. It is dedicated to Dean W. G. Hastings of the College of Law, and each volume has as its frontispiece a photograph of this distinguished jurist.

As a work of art the 1915 Cornhusker is far above the average. It does not suffer when compared with the best annuals of the country; it is one of them. The book is well bound in dark, red leather, durable and neat. Its section of campus views is printed on a special grade of paper with sepia ink. The division pages have been well chosen and harmonize with the tone of richness of the whole book. The Senior section is especially well gotten up. About the pictures is a golden block border, and each page has for its background the University seal.

The various sections are extensively featured. The Athletic section contains 70 pages of pictures and reading. The snapshots are, for the most part, remarkably plain, and the department honors the editors. The Fraternity and Sorority sections, besides containing the group photographs, also include snapshots of the life at the different houses. In addition to the Greeks, other organizations are shown, as well as the different publications. The Military section is of the same high standard as the rest of the book. This department is commendably complete and the matter is well chosen and arranged.

A BIG CROWD AT SENIOR BREAKFAST

One Hundred and Sixty-Five Attended—Junior Girls Won Four Inning Ball Game

With a score of 19-12 the Junior girls won from the Senior girls in a four-inning game at the Junior-Senior picnic at the State Farm, Saturday morning, 165 upper-classmen witnessed the contest after breakfast was served in the cafeteria of the Home Economics building.

Tag, dare-base, and black-and-white, warmed up the picnics for the races which followed. The Seniors took first place in the potato race, girls' relay, and couple race. Spencer, '16, won from Sjogren, '15, and Florence Simmons, '15, from Lauretta Lord, '16, in the individual races.

With spirited rooting from the sidelines which even interrupted the game at times, the girls of the two classes fought a friendly battle. The teams were picked from those attending, and while Dean Mary Graham acted as scorer and Eva Fisk as umpire, the feminine baseball players knocked home-runs and ran bases with ease and abandon. Genevieve Lowry-Marie Clark was the Senior battery. Lucile Leyda and Camille Leyda-Ruth Sheldon, the Junior.

Two special cars filled with singing and cheering students carried the revellers to and from the scene of action of the picnic which Dean Graham declared to be the best event the Juniors had given this year. The class hopes, because of its success, to make this affair an annual because the two upper classes can become better acquainted in this informal way. Much credit for the success of the picnic is due Darrell Lane, '16, who managed the affair.

AMES WINS BIG MEET

IOWA FARMERS RUN AWAY WITH ANNUAL DUAL MEET 83-31

CYCLONES ARE INVINCIBLE

Packer, Burrus, and Mellor Big Totalers—Scott, Deering, and Reavis the Cornhusker Point-Makers

Ames won the annual dual meet from Nebraska, 83-31, on Nebraska Field, Saturday afternoon. The Cyclone squad, the best in the history of the Iowa school, were invincible on the track and also succeeded in taking more than their share of the field events.

Packer of Ames was easily the star of the meet, taking three firsts and two seconds. Burrus, Ames, was first in both the discus and high jump. Dickinson, Ames, won the 100 and 220 in fast time. Reavis, Nebraska's only representative in the pole vault, was forced to go twelve feet to get first honors in this event, but looked good for more had he chosen to try for a record.

Deering entered the shot-put without previous preparation and succeeded in winning first place for the Huskers. The two relays, the closing numbers on the program, were run in fast time, with Ames finishing first in both races. In the half mile event Nebraska made a good bid for first, but Mellor spurred ahead of Irwin in the last hundred yards.

Zumwinkle and Scott, although compelled to take second places in the 100, 220 and 440, ran excellent races. There was little advantage in the 100 and little more in the 220 and 440. Ankeny leaped 20 feet 9 inches for second place in the broad jump, and was high man until the last trial, when Packer out-distanced his three inches. McMasters in the two-mile ran a strong race.

Burns, Ames, took the high jump at 5 feet, 7 inches. Packer won both the high and low hurdles in very good time; his time in the former event being 16% and in the latter 26%. Barker and Scroggie took both places in the mile in 4:39. Joselyn and Evans nosed out Kubik and were placers in the half mile at 2:33.
