Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Harrison Steckley announce the engagement of their daughter, Regina Elizabeth to Mr. Roy H. Bjorkman of this city. Miss Steckley is an only daughter and is a member of the Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Bjorkman is a young business man of this city and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bjorkman. The wedding will take place in June.

Judge and Mrs. Bruno Oswald Hosteler of Kearney, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Florence Maxine, to Anan Raymond of Omaha. The wedding will take place at Kearney at high noon, May 11. Both Miss Hostetler and Mr. Raymond are graduates of the state university. Miss Hostetler is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority and Mr. Raymond of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. They will be at home after July 1, at Omaha.

CORNHUSKER IS OUT

Perhaps the most noteworthy feature of the book is the Beauty section of the thirty women selected as the most beautiful in the University. The pictures, each of which is carefully finished, are surrounded by a golden border and are tastily placed on the pages of the department. Another innovation in the plan of the book is the including of snapshots of Freshmen and Sophomores as well as Juniors and Seniors. Each class has its own department for the pictures of the class officers and members. In the Athletic section appear individual photographs of the "N" men which have worked up well.

The Joke section is more entertaining than ever. Many new ideas have been used here and the results are pleasing. The material is fresh and spicy—in fact it must have been too spicy in places, for the censors have removed three pictures and a song.

The Editorial section contains a number of good articles on varied subjects. These were written by the editor and prominent men in school. Altogether, Editor Samuelson and Business Manager Potet are to be congratulated on their ability. It is both a businesslike and literary product, and the richness of material and treatment and the dispatch of the achievement reflect great credit on the diligence and energy of the editors and their subordinates.

Acacia 11, Delta Tau Delta 6

The Delta Tau Delta fraternity, which has for years held the championship in inter-fraternity baseball, was defeated by the Acacias last Friday afternoon by a score of 11 to 6. The Acacias have not had a competing team for some years and had not intended to organize a team this year, but were persuaded to do so by the Delta Tau Deltas, who declared they were anxious for a practice game. "Puss" Heller pitched for the Acacias and showed such speed and unexpected big league qualities that the "Deltas" were unable to pile up their usual score.

GERMAN CLUB PLAY APPRECIATED

Large Crowd at the Temple Showed Commendable Appreciation of Talent of Cast

"Der Neffe als Onkel" as presented by the German Dramatic Club to a large audience at the Temple Theatre Friday night was well received. The play went off smoothly and showed the result of hard and consistent work on the part of the cast and efficiency on the part of the coach.

Not only could the plot be understood by those having command of German, but the acting was skillful enough to portray to others the working of the plot of the play so that those who did not understand German could follow the story.

The entire performance was fresh and spontaneous and easily surpassed the standard usually set by amateurs. The work of Theodore Frank as the uncle, Oberst von Dorsigny, and Alex Swenson, as the valet of the young Franz von Dorsigny, Franz Radke, of special merit.

Elizabeth Witman and Winifred Seeger took the parts of Frau von Dorsigny and her daughter. The part of Frau von Mirville was taken by Selma Kauf and that of Lormeuil by Lamar Stanley. Henry Schumacher, who played the part of the father and shrewd business man in "Das Verlorene Paradies" presented by the Club earlier in the year, played with skill the role of Valcour. The parts of the minor officers were taken by Walter Raecke, John Deering, Gerhard Naber and John Ibsen.

The play was coached by Miss Heppner to whom a great deal of credit is due. The stage arrangement was very effective; the costumes were elaborate and in keeping with the social rank of the characters. The time of the play was a little over a century ago.

German musical selections were played by a special orchestra composed of Fred and Oitonear Strieter, Fred Rabe, Clara Schulte, Lenore Muehleis, Louise Herrick and Gladycie Weil, all members of the Club. Between the acts Gladycie Weil played a piano solo and Julia Rensch sang "Des Maedchens Klage."

TENNIS TEAM DEFEATS DOANE IN STRAIGHT SETS

Chatt and Ellis Win Handily at Crete—Driving of Ellis is the Feature

Crete, Nebr., May 1.—(Special to the Daily Nebraskan)—The University of Nebraska tennis team, composed of Chatt and Ellis, won both singles and doubles from the Doane team in straight sets here today. The driving of Ellis featured. Chatt, representing Nebraska by virtue of his victory over Watkins, 16-14, 6-1 Friday afternoon, did some excellent work, being a big factor in Nebraska's clean-cut victory in the doubles.

The two state men worked together perfectly in the double sets and won their singles handily. They won the doubles in 6-4 and 6-3 by fast, consistent work. Ellis, opposed by H. C. Hosford in the singles, won his sets easily in 6-2 and 6-2. Chatt defeated Frank Wilkinson 8-6 and 6-1 in his single sets. The courts were very fast and weather conditions ideal. A large crowd witnessed Nebraska's victory. Reverend Calvert, prominent in state tennis, refereed.

The match today opened the season for Nebraska. Next week the Cornhuskers meet Creighton and the week following the Missouri Valley meet comes to Lincoln.

The annual formal party of Delta Chi was given at the Lincoln hotel Friday evening. A six-course dinner preceded the dancing. The guests were seated at small tables for four, decorated with baskets of flowers. Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Gregory and Mr. and Mrs. C. Petrus Peterson were the chaperones. The grand march was led by Paul Martin and Miss Doris Scroggin, Ray Higgins and Miss Janet Wheeler. The out of town guests were Mr. Schull of Sioux City and Mr. Merrill Hare of Fairbury, Neb.

JUNIOR ACCEPTS POSITION IN WEST

R. V. Koupal Will be Secretary of the Landers, Wyoming, Commercial Club

R. V. Koupal, Junior in the School of Commerce, has accepted a position as secretary of the Landers, Wyoming, Commercial Club. He will leave for that place on June 1, but will return in October, on a nine months' leave of absence, to complete his college work.

Mr. Koupal is well known among University students; he is a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, was managing editor of the Daily Nebraskan last semester, and is now president of the University Commercial Club. Serving in this latter capacity he has greatly increased the membership and importance of the club.

The field of work into which Mr. Koupal is now entering is of comparatively recent origin. Such positions pay well and offer the college student good opportunity to get into business. The Lincoln Commercial Club cooperates with the School of Commerce in securing these places for students.

INTER-FRATERNITY BASEBALL LEAGUE

Alpha Sigs Beat the Kappa Sigs and Delta Chis Beat the Betas Saturday Morning

In the hardest fought game yet played in the Interfraternity Baseball League, Alpha Sigma Phi won from Kappa Sigma by a score of 5 to 3 on the athletic field, Saturday. It was a pitchers' duel, with the honors slightly in favor of Domeier for the Alpha Sigs.

Score:
Alpha Sigs 3 0 0 0 2 0—5
Kappa Sigs 0 0 1 2 0 0—3
Batteries—Alpha Sigs, Domeier and Zuhlke; Kappa Sigs, Crawford and Gibbons.

Delta Chi defeated Beta Theta Pi by a score of 5 to 3 at the Twenty-second and J streets yard, Saturday. The Betas were rated as having the better team, but dope will go wrong. Batteries—Delta Chis, Priest and Johnson; Betas, Burton, Chamberlain and Folsom.

Engineer's Banquet

The Engineer's Annual banquet was held at the Lindell Saturday evening at 6:30. Plates were laid for one hundred fifty. Though this year's banquet was not as large as last year's, however no enthusiasm was detracted.

C. A. Bennett of Omaha, a graduate of the class of 1911, was toastmaster. Dean Stout offered a welcome to the boys. L. A. Barns, '15, represented the active membership and gave a talk on "My Excuse for Living." E. B. Lewis of Superior, '12, represented the agricultural engineers and gave a speech entitled, "The Engineers and Agriculture." Wm. Grant, '97, showed the relation of the engineer to the public health. Lieutenant S. M. Parker, commandant of the cadets, told of the army and the relation of the military and civilian engineers. L. E. Hertz, '03, gave a talk on "Currents."

A quartet consisting of R. M. Young, L. C. Brown, L. L. Westling and L. A. Barns, furnished music throughout the evening. The committee in charge was O. E. Edison, H. L. Nelson and Leroy Rhodes.

This was the last of a series of events throughout the week following the engineers' smoker Wednesday night, the baseball games between the departments and Engineers' night Friday night.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL MEETING

Officers Elected For Next Year and Rushing Rules Are Changed

The annual meeting of the Inter-Fraternity Council was held Thursday evening in U. 207. Officers were elected for the ensuing year. Professor P. M. Buck, the present chairman of the board was re-elected. Verne Hedge was elected vice chairman and Fred L. Babcock, secretary. O. B. Clark, C. T. Spier, and R. A. Smith were chosen as members of the executive committee.

The rushing rules were modified so that hereafter the rushing season will last only four days instead of ten. It was proposed that the proceeds of the Pan Hel dance be turned over to the Belgian Relief Fund but after considerable discussion it was decided that the surplus be given to the Orthopedic Hospital.
