IVY DAY PROGRAM

THE ANNUAL HOLIDAY IS A BIG EVENT

CLOCKWORK SCHEDULE MADE

May Queen Crowned in the Morning on City Campus—Entertainment and Announcing of Senior Honors

The plans for the finest and biggest Ivy Day ever held are now complete and can be announced in full. Everything is going to begin on time this year, this is certain. The committee has prepared a big program, the day is an annual holiday, and every student of the University should show University spirit and come out to the events. The program is evenly divided, because in the morning the big secret of the identity of the May Queen will be disclosed, and in the afternoon the Black Masques and Innocents will be "tapped." The girls of the Senior Class have elected one of their members as May Queen, and her crowning will be the big event of the morning. The Black Masques and the Innocents, the two honorary Senior societies, have chosen the twenty-six Juniors whom they consider worthy to take the responsibility of directing all student affairs next year, and in the afternoon each society will "tap" the honored Juniors, and lead them to the platform. This is an event eagerly looked forward to by all the classes. The Park will be open at 11:30, so that individual picnic parties may be held at noon. The program will then start at 2 o'clock: This is the first time that noon picnics have been given, and it is hoped that many will take advantage of this opportunity, and then be ready to join in the all-University games later. No "dates" have to be made for this Ivy Day picnic, in fact, it is urged that people do not make them, but go out ready to "mix." Let us go with the holiday spirit, with University spirit, and take a lively interest in all the events.

The complete program is as follows:
In the morning—
9:00—Band concert at the campus.
9:30—Oration, by Russell Mann.
10:00—Senior class poem and song.
10:15—Crowning of the May Queen. Crowning song, and Daisy Chain by Senior girls.
Russian court dance before the Queen, by Physical Education girls.
Planting of the Ivy, Ivy song, May Pole Dance.
In the afternoon—
1:30—Park open to private picnic.
2:00—Band concert.
2:30—Selection of Black Masques. "Mixer" games.
4:00—Tapping of Innocents.
5:00—Dramatic Club play, "The Sidbe of Ben-More," an Irish play outdoors.
6:00—Supper.
6:30—Band concert.

The Judge (sternly)—"The next person who interrupts the proceedings of this court will be expelled from the court room."

The prisoner (enthusiastically)—"Hooray!"—Denver Clarion.

"Who was that tough looking fellow I saw you with today, Hicks?"

"Be careful, Parker! That was my twin brother."

"By Jove, forgive me, old chap. I ought to have known."—Spectator.

CANDIDATES FILE

TEN MEN ANNOUNCE FOR POSITIONS ON ATHLETIC BOARD

ELECTION TO BE HELD MAY 10

All Candidates Have Won Letters in Minor Sports—Five to Be Elected to Act With the Five Faculty Members of Committee

The election of candidates for student membership on the athletic board will be held next Monday in Memorial Hall. Ten entries have been made by some of the most prominent athletes of the school as candidates for election.

The election will be held in accordance with the rules of the athletic board. All male students with one semester's residence having completed twelve hours are eligible to vote. Five of the total number entered receiving the highest number of votes will be elected. The official ballot of the board will be used with the names of the candidates appearing in alphabetical order. All ballots will be thrown out which vote for more or less than five candidates. No lobbying will be allowed in the Armory.

In case of a protest, the reason with evidence attached shall be filed with the secretary of the board within ten days after the election.

The following students have filed in accordance with the rules of the athletic board: David H. Bowman, member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity and champion lightweight wrestler; Harry H. Ellis, captain of tennis team and state champion in doubles; Ed Hugg, member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and captain-elect of basketball team; J. Lloyd McMaster, member of Nebraska track team for past three years; H. Paskal, member of wrestling team; H. S. Peese, member of track team for past two years; R. B. Rutherford, captain-elect of 1916 Cornhuskers; E. B. Scott, Phi Gamma Delta, track team, and Paul H. Shields, Phi Kappa Psi and football and basketball star during past season.

OVER A THOUSAND CORNHUSKERS SOLD

Annals Were Chief Aim of the Students' Study Throughout the Day—Campus Full of Readers

Over one thousand people have taken advantage of the unusual privilege of obtaining the Cornhusker early in May. Yesterday every bench on the Campus was occupied, as early as 8 o'clock by groups of seemingly very willing and very industrious students.

The sale of Cornhuskers this year is the largest there has ever been. The number of extra copies is very limited and it is possible that there will not be any.

It is quite needless to say anything concerning the success of the book and the high standard set by it since almost everyone has already digested the whole. It is the unanimous opinion that the Cornhusker staff is to be heartily congratulated for the excellency of the book and the precedent established by the early date of production.

CHILLY WEATHER PUTS DAMPER ON FUSSING

Instructors in the Art Have Slack Business—Most Coveted Places Were Deserted

Yesterday's chilly weather was quite discouraging to the prominent instructors in "fussing." The stone bench, the most coveted place on the Campus, was cold and bare. The Library steps looked lonesome and the usual courts of the "College Queens." Seats in the Library were at a premium and full attendance at classes was reported. One would really have thought that all students were here to improve their intellect.

Tomorrow's sun will probably behold the continuance of lectures on "How to Improve Your Social Position." Regular classes are being rapidly formed. After once registering, it is well-nigh impossible to withdraw gracefully. The professors in this department are very exacting so unless the reputation can stand the test in other classes, this course is not advised.

This department has been especially fortunate in securing teachers who are past masters in their "line." The night of the "Pan-Hel" dance, May 21, has been chosen as the date of graduation. Diplomas may be received from any jewelry store.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET TO BE INSTALLED

Installation of New Officers at Last Vesper Meeting of the Year

The new Y. W. C. A. cabinet will be installed at the vesper service today. Miss Fannie Drake will be the speaker, using as her subject, "Hammock Philosophy." This is the last meeting of the year and it is desired that every member be present to make it a success.

Some men would not leave a vacancy if they quit their job.—Daily Kansan.

SILVER SERPENTS ELECTED MEMBERS

Sixteen Sophomore Girls Chosen to Be Active Members for Next Year

The Silver Serpents, at their last meeting, chose the following girls to active membership: Ruth Burch, Blanche Busk, Hester Dickinson, Dorothy Ellsworth, Marguerite Kauffman, Carrie Moodie, Edna Pegler, Ruth Quigley, Della Rich, Anne Russell, Mabel Sanders, Lulu Shade, Genevieve Welsh, Sarah Weston, Doris Weaver, and Olive Lehmer.

JAYHAWKERS NEXT

KANSAS COMES SATURDAY FOR SECOND VALLEY MEET

RUMOR COMES FROM SOUTH

Have Strong Sprint Men—Reported as Strong as Veteran Ames Squad—Husker Athletes Will Be at Full Tilt Next Saturday

Next Saturday Nebraska will meet the Jayhawkers in the second Valley meet of the Husker track schedule. With the Ames meet, which was, in the estimation of a "Nebraskan" typesetter at least, a "big" meet, now a thing of the past, the squad has started in on the few afternoons' training allowed it to prepare for the coming of the Kansans Saturday. The men, with the exception of Captain Zummie and Irwin, are in good physical condition, and with training quickly becoming of sufficient duration to bring them near prime, will probably be in tip-top form against Kansas.

The result of the Cyclone meet was not a serious upset of official dope, and while disappointing in some ways, had its silver lining. Reavis in the pole vault tied the Valley record of twelve feet when he nonchalantly cleared the bar registered at that height, with three or four inches for safety. The present record of twelve feet was equalled twice Saturday—Powell of Missouri also rising to a height of twelve feet in the Missouri-Kansas Aggie meet. It is the opinion of men who have watched these two athletes work that both will break the present Valley mark in this event before the intercollegiate season closes. If the Husker athlete continues in his present form he will without doubt break his record of twelve feet which he has held since his prep-school days.

Another feature of Saturday's program which was eminently pleasing was McMaster's work in the two-mile. J. Lloyd took second place in this event, but ran a very good second, and incidentally clipped all of twelve seconds off his previous time. Scottie, in the dashes, displayed fine form, and may be depended upon to excel his previous work next Saturday.

Only rumors have reached Lincoln as to the strength of the Jayhawkers, but the reports that have wafted up on the spring breeze bear tales of a team in every way the equal of the veteran Cyclone squad which vanquished the Huskers Saturday, and feature the strength of their sprintmen, which they boast is the class of the Valley.

The fact that a committee of judges had selected as Harvard's prize poem for the present year a poetized Philip with the Kaiser on the receiving end was given wide publicity in the press of the country a few days ago. This arrangement for a competition of student poets might work out well here at Nebraska, whether the sweet singers gave vent to lyric outbursts, invective on the War Lord, or odes and epodes a la Horace. Unless the millennium has arrived, this spring will see the usual number of rhymed effusions born into the world, and a properly conducted contest might result in the discovery of some gems which would otherwise remain forever buried. Who will wear the laurel wreath?
