TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1915

To the Commissioners and Excise-men of the City of Lincoln: As you are to soon consider the applications for saloon and pool hall licenses, we wish to call your attention to the large number of these places in the immediate vicinity of the University.
No what the people of the state have definitely decided that the University shall remain at the down-town campus, we submit that it is up to the people of Lincoln to do their part towards creating an atmosphere that is conducive to University life in this section of the city. At the present time Tenth, Eleventh and Twelfth streets are the thoroughfares most used by students going from O street to the University. A large majority of the students find it necessary to use at least one of these streets every day.
It is impossible to get from O street to the University on one of these streets without passing a saloon or a pool hall. There are eight pool halls and seven saloons located on these streets and upon P street which intersects them. During this last year a pool hall license was granted for a pool hall on the corner of Q and Eleventh street, only one block from the campus gate. Leaving for a moment the men out of consideration, we believe that the necessity for the young women of the University to pass these places on their way to school is an injustice that merits your consideration. Particularly is this true at this time of the year when from the open doors of the saloons come the odor of liquor and boisterous laughter of men.

We do not care to discuss the right or wrong of saloons and pool halls.
The people of Lincoln have passed upon that question and that issue is settled—temporarily at least. But their location rests with you. If there is objection to their being on the part of O street that is most traveled, certainly there is no excuse for shoving them north around the University. If the express purpose was to segregate these institutions in the vicinity of the University, it could hardly have been carried on with a greater degree of success.

As a matter of pride the city of Lincoln should make an effort to free the part of town near the University of any institutions that can in any way handicap it. The people of Lincoln exerted every effort to keep the University down town. The first step toward living up to the expectation of the people of the state is to make this an ideal University location. As the officials of the city of Lincoln you can start the movement by refusing to grant at least a part of the licenses held in this vicinity during the past year. Will you do it?

"SHALL THIS BE THE LAST IVY DAY?"

THE FORUM

To the Editor of the Daily Nebraskan: Your editorial in yesterday's "Rag" concerning the Lusitania incident seems to me highly inconsistent. In one breath you speak of it as a "cold-blooded murder," and that every sane man's judgment will tell him as much.
In the next breath you say we must "keep our heads," "that the matter will be gone into very carefully and when a decision is reached," etc. It's like feeding a man booze and telling him to keep sober. Why not wait until that decision, or at least until the facts are known, until you append the name of murderer to any one? If we are to be neutral, let's be neutral.

In speaking editorially you are supposed to express the sentiment of your readers—the University as a whole —and I doubt if you can find any such unanimity of opinion as will justify at this time such a statement. If your editorial is correct, then I am insane; for my views at this time do not coincide with yours, and I have adequate reasons to support them.
However, I am neutral, and would like to see the "Rag" neutral. We are taught in the Law College that a man is innocent until he is proven guilty, and that by the laws of his country.
Upon the same analogy, Germany is innocent until proven guilty under the International Code.

PENDS ON YOU."

Left for Colorado

Glenn Ruby, who has been taking graduate work here this year, left for Log Cabin, Colorado, yesterday.
Glenn Ruby is in the employ of the United States Geological Survey, but has been out of the service the past winter on a furlough. He will resume his former occupation during the summer and will return to school again this fall.
