The Same, But Different

"Pa, is there any difference between tar and pitch?"
"I don't think so, my boy. They are practically the same."
"Then would it be all right to say that Coveleskie's going to tar the opening game?"
"You clear out of here, right away."

DOCTOR CONDRA WILL MAKE COUNTY MAP

Washington County Will First Be Described and Mapped—Work to Continue Through the Summer

Dr. George Condra, accompanied by Mr. W. L. Davies and Mr. H. C. Mortlock, left yesterday morning by automobile for Blair. Their purpose is to describe and map Washington county in detail. The work will commence at once and will last throughout the summer. Mr. Davies is a member of the United States Bureau of Soils and Mr. Mortlock is an assistant in the State Survey department. Mr. Mortlock intends returning next Autumn in order to finish his studies so he may graduate next Winter. Doctor Condra will probably not be back before Friday.

Geological Excursion

Three geological excursions were made with students last Saturday. Mr. Schramm conducted a class to South Bend; Miss Hinterlong, to Louisville, and Mr. Barbour, to Yankee Hill.

BAKER TEAM WINS

TOOK TWO OF THE THREE MATCHES

VISITORS ARE BEST AT TENNIS

Exceptional Team Work Was Shown in the Doubles Match Against Ellis and Chatt—The Same Team Defeated Wesleyan

Baker University won the dual tennis meet with Nebraska University yesterday morning on the Country Club courts by taking two out of the three matches.

Weaver and Henley for the visitors played wonderful tennis during the three matches and proved to be better generals than the Nebraska men. They showed exceptionally fine team work in their doubles match with Ellis and Chatt, winning in straight sets, 6-3 and 6-4.

The two single matches were played first and Gardiner was matched against Weaver and Ellis against Henley. Weaver won his match in straight sets, 6-2 and 6-1. He played to the base line continually and Gardiner was unable to get to the net effectively. Henley took the first set from Ellis 6-3 and Ellis then turned the

DAILY NEBRASKAN ELECTION

- For Editor-in-Chief: R. V. Koupal.
- For Managing Editor: Orville Chatt.
- Everett J. Althouse.
- Charles E. Paul.
- For Woman Associate Editor: Doris Slater.
- For Man Associate Editor: Albert J. Covert.
- Emil J. Krahulik.

Method of Voting

The preferential ballot system will be used. The cross is to be marked in the column headed first, second or third choice according to the preference of the voter. A candidate may be voted for in only one column and only one candidate need, necessarily, be voted for. Only one vote may be marked in each column.

Eligible Voters

Only paid subscribers to the Nebraskan and members of the Nebraskan staff are eligible to vote. A list of voters may be obtained from T. A. Williams or R. F. Clark by depositing $1.00, to be returned when list is returned.

Statements of Candidates

Each candidate is allowed to publish in the Nebraskan a statement concerning his qualifications for office, this statement to be limited to 150 words.

Voting

The voting will take place in the west end of the Armory between the hours of 9 and 12 and 2 and 5 on Thursday, May 13. Mail votes will be received as late as noon Monday, May 17. Official announcement of election returns are to be published in Tuesday's paper.

IRON SPHYNX AND SPIKES TO COMPETE

Annual Baseball Game Will Be Played Tomorrow as Part of the Ivy Day Festivities

The Iron Sphynx will play the Spikes their annual baseball game Wednesday at 12:30 as a part of the Ivy Day festivities at Epworth Park, according to arrangements completed with the committee. This is always a hotly contested battle and is expected to be an interesting addition to the early part of the picnic-program. All of the old members are getting out in the "rooting" section.

DOCTOR CALDWELL TO VISIT AND LECTURE

Will Visit Sister in Brookings, S. D., and Lecture in Minneapolis on Saturday

Prof. H. W. Caldwell of the Department of American History leaves today for Brookings, S. D., where he will visit his sister for a short time. From there he will go to Minneapolis to address a meeting Saturday evening of the Nebraska Alumni of the twin cities, Minneapolis and St. Paul. Professor Caldwell will take with him figures indicative of the condition of the University and will also show maps of the improved Farm Campus and enlarged City Campus extension.

She—Of course, he bored me awfully, but I don't think I showed it. Every time I yawned I just hid it with my hand.

He (trying to be gallant)—Really, I don't see how a hand so small could—er—hide—that is—beastly weather we're having, isn't it?—Kansan.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY BOX SOCIAL AT FARM

Social Will Be Held Saturday at Six O'clock—Girls Are to Bring Lunch and the Boys a Quarter

The United Agricultural Society will hold a box social in the East Farm Grove next Saturday at six o'clock. The girls are asked to bring a picnic lunch and the boys a quarter. The lunches will be sold to the boys and the proceeds used to provide something extra for the evening, to pay up the outstanding debts of the society, and to put something in the treasury for next fall.

Anyone wishing to know more about the meeting will please see or call up any of the following:

- Arthur Tell.
- Gladys Lewis.
- Marley Sharp.
- Myrtle Eason.
- Edwin Partridge.
- Anna Liebers.
- Robert Steele.

DAILY NEBRASKAN

FEW ENTRIES ARE MADE FOR CAMPAIGN

NEW STAFF TO BE ELECTED

Editorial Staff Will Be Elected by Student Vote—Only One Man Is Out for Editor-in-Chief

The election of the Editorial staff of the Daily Nebraskan to determine who shall edit the paper the first semester of next year will be held Thursday in the west end of the Armory.

Opportunities to make entries for the race closed formally at 12 o'clock Monday noon, but to give opportunity for more to enter and for changes in the entries already made, time was extended by the board to 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. The board then held a meeting to consider the entries made and the following list will be submitted to the voters:

R. V. Koupal is candidate for editor-in-chief; for managing editor, Orville Chatt, Everett J. Althouse, and Charles E. Paul; woman associate editor, Doris Slater; man associate editor, A. J. Covert and Emil J. Krahulik.

Those entering are among the most popular students in school and a warm election, where competition is possible, will probably take place. R. V. Koupal is the only one entered for editor-in-chief, so has a sure race. He is, however, undoubtedly capable of filling the position ably. He was acting managing editor of the paper one semester, is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon and of Sigma Delta Chi fraternities, and is president of the Commercial Club.

Orville Chatt is a Junior Law student.

Everett Althouse has reported on the Nebraskan one semester and is a member of the non-commissioned staff in the Military department.

Charles E. Paul was reporter on the staff one semester, has had some journalistic experience on a newspaper, and is a member of Acacia fraternity.

Doris Slater is the only candidate for woman associate editor, but she has filled her position as associate editor the last semester creditably and will undoubtedly fill it as well next semester. Miss Slater is a member of the Girls' Club and is a Silver Serpent.

For the man associate editorship, A. J. Covert has filed. He has served as reporter on the staff the past semester, is a member of Delta Chi fraternity, and captain of Company H.

Emil J. Krahulik is a member of the Cornhusker staff, is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity and of the Pre-Medic Club.

Competition for managing editor and for the man associate editor is keen and support is being looked for from every available source. This is the second time the staff has been elected by the popular vote of the subscribers, so it is up to them for their own personal benefit to select as capable a staff as the outgoing regime.
