SOCIETY COLUMN

Leslie Lewis has left school and gone to Denison, Iowa, where he has a contract for installing an electric light system.

Jack Bowen left Wednesday night for Billings, Mont., where he will resume work in the government forestry service.

Miss Dorcas Christensen and Miss Barbara Churchill went to Omaha last Saturday to be formally pledged to the Nu Sigma Phi, the medical sorority.

Robert Reasoner left Wednesday for Columbia, Mo., to attend the section convention of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. Mr. Reasoner is delegate from the Nebraska chapter.

Lucy M. Sprague has announced the engagement of her daughter, Annie Maxon, to George C. McQuarrie of Blair, Nebr. The wedding will take place June 30. Miss Sprague graduated from the University in 1911 with Phi Beta Kappa honors.

The thirteen University Juniors recently elected to the Innocents held their first meeting at the Lincoln Hotel Wednesday evening. Plans were laid for the work to be done next year. Guy C. Chambers is president of the society.

The active chapter of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity entertained the Seniors at a dinner at the Lincoln Hotel Wednesday evening. Five members will graduate from school this year: John McGurk, George Aldrich, Archie Kantz, Harold Prince, and C. Porter Sloan.

Miss Lucile Eaves will leave Saturday for Boston, Mass., to visit her sister and to consider an offer made her to take charge of the research work for the Woman's Educational and Industrial Union. If she accepts she will also give class lectures in Simmons College for Women.

Alpha Zeta, agricultural fraternity at the University of Nebraska, elected the following officers at a meeting in room 102 University Hall, Wednesday evening: Chancellor, R. E. Holland; censor, H. A. Jones; scribe, L. A. Townsend; treasurer, J. P. Fairbanks; chronicler, E. M. Partridge. Refreshments were served after the election of officers had taken place.

The annual banquet of the Cadet Officers' Association of the State University was held at the Lincoln Hotel Wednesday evening. C. J. Frankforter presided as toastmaster and the following program was given:

"Our Responsibility," Cadet Major R. H. Harley, '15.

"Nebraska and the Army," Lieut. Robert Guthrie, '08, U. S. A.

"Impressions," Capt. R. L. Hamilton, U. S. A., retired.

"College Men and Patriotism," Lieut. W. C. Stoll, U. S. A.

Several of the commissioned officers present were also called upon for short talks. At a business session preceding, Dean O. V. P. Stout was re-elected president of the organization; Prof. C. W. Taylor was made vice-president, and Carl Lord, Professor Frankforter, and Lieutenant Parker were elected to the board of directors.

"Every time I see grandfather's sword I want to go to war."
"Well?"

"But every time I see grandfather's wooden leg, I cool down."—Kansas State Collegian.
