UNIVERSITY NOTICES

The University Commercial Club will entertain the students of the School of Commerce at a get-together smoke at the Lincoln Commercial Club Saturday evening, October 9.

Notice

Silver Serpent meeting at 7:15 tomorrow night at the Gamma Phi Beta house, 330 North Fourteenth street. Members from the class of 1916 requested to be present also.

PERSONAL

Otho Doyle, '14, who is an attorney in Plainview, was in Lincoln this week.

Betty and Helen Drake, '14, came to Lincoln from Beatrice Saturday for the ball game.

Arthur Schade, '16, is assisting in reading papers in the department of economics.

Eva Miller, Ottila Schurman and Katherine Dodge will spend the week-end in Fremont.

The Phi Delta Phi fraternity held a smoker at the Delta Upsilon house Thursday evening.

F. G. Yangher, '15, is at the head of the department of botany at Indianapolis Manual Training high school.

Many of the Law students were greatly interested in cases being tried in the district court during the past week.

Alma Sorenson, of Omaha, and Edna Bushnell and Christine Claussen were week-end visitors at the Alpha Xi Delta house.

Paul B. Sears, '15, is an instructor of botany at the Ohio State university. He is also continuing his research work.

Miss Cora Eredline, '13, who held a fellowship in philosophy last year, has entered Byrn Mayr college, where she will continue her work in philosophy.

Alpha Tau Omega gave a dance at the Lincoln hotel Friday night. About thirty couples were present. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McKelvie, Mr. F. P. Williams and Guy Reed.

Howard Shumway, fellow in philosophy at the University last year, has entered the University of Chicago Medical college, where he will take the four-year course and specialize on nervous diseases.

Ray Thompson has an appointment in the United States bureau of biological survey to collect plants from meadows, marshes and lakes in the sand hills of Nebraska. Mr. Thompson will return about November 1 to work for his master's degree in botany.

Alpha Sigma Phi entertained at a dancing party at its new chapter home, Fourteenth and R streets, Friday evening. About fifty couples were present. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Stephenson, Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Barbour and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Luke.

Lincoln people welcomed the new students of the city and vicinity at receptions and socials held at the various churches and at the homes of faculty members Friday evening. All of the affairs were of the mixer variety and a spirit of informality and good fellowship was the outstanding feature. A change this year resulted in all the churches holding their receptions on one evening and thus gaining a place in the University calendar.

STUDENTS WELCOMED

succeeding in getting the longest word winning. Other stunts were arranged and refreshments were then served in the parlors in the basement. Autumn flowers and foliage were used to decorate throughout. One hundred and fifty people attended.

More than one hundred and fifty young people attended the social at the First Presbyterian church. Musical numbers and games provided entertainment. Miss Huges sang a number of selections. Garden flowers and pennants were used in all of the rooms. Dean R. Leland was chairman of one of the committees, Mr. Powers of the entertainment committee and Glen Everts assisted. Miss Borouhgs was assisted in serving light refreshments by Mr. Powers.

The East Lincoln and First Baptist churches combined for their annual reception and the Baptist alumni of the East Lincoln church furnished a program of "stunts." Richard Stout of the First Baptist church and H. J. Theobald of the East Lincoln church welcomed the students in short talks; H. K. Compton sang and Mrs. Richard Stout gave piano selections. Richard Williams was chairman of the committee on program and Mrs. F. C. Williams was in charge of the refreshment table. The decorations were in the university colors, many pennants being used. Each of the 200 attendants wore a white tag with his name on it and the alumni were given in addition yellow triangular ones.

The young people of the Second Presbyterian church under the direction of Miss Beatrice Long were in charge of the reception and social there. A musical program was given and many games arranged. Decorations in red and white flowers and pennants were in the rooms.

The Epworth League of St. Paul's church, the chairman of whose social committee is Miss Pearl Waugh, was in charge of affairs in the parlors there. Dr. B. L. Paine presided and the following program was given: Invocation, Dr. T. W. Jeffrey; selections by the Sunday school orchestra; solo, Mrs. D. C. Turley; reading, Miss Gladys Slocum; violin duet, Forrest and Winifred Estes; solo, Roy Young; talks, Dr. Jeffrey and Rev. E. A. Worthley; solo, Mrs. Rose Hiltz. Autumn flowers and university colors were very much in evidence. Ices and wafers were served following a number of acquaintance forming features.

The following program opened the evening's entertainment at Grace M. E. church: Violin solo, Miss Ruth Grassmueck; vocal solo, Miriam Williams; reading, Miss Edith Grassmueck; address of welcome, A. M. Sommers. Games and contests followed and a musical hour was enjoyed. One hundred and seventy-five were present.

The young people of the Plymouth Congregational church were entertained at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Lawrence Bruner. About fifty were present. A program of games and music furnished entertainment. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

About thirty young people from All Souls' church attended a party at the home of Rev. A. L. Weatherly. Dancing furnished the main entertainment and refreshments were served.

The second annual reception of the Christian Science society of the university was held at art hall. About fifty attended. An instrumental duet was given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eykelboom and a short talk was made by Paul Walsh.

Approximately 100 students were present at the reception in the parlors of the Grace Lutheran church. Games were played and an effort was made to get every one acquainted. Short talks were given by Henry Enslin, president of the Christian En-
