HARD WEEK'S WORK AHEAD OF HUSKERS

STIEHM BUSY PLUGGING HOLES IN LINE FOR KANSAS GO

NEBRASKA OFFENSIVE IS O. K.

Husker Backfield Shows Good Form—Riddell and Chamberlain Play Sensational Game—Line and Interference Weak

Now that the Nebraska "Stiehm" engine has succeeded in sending the bulldogs home minus their growl, the constructor thereof will occupy his time for a week in perfecting that engine with the purpose of establishing a kink in the soaring ambitions of the Kansas Ags next Saturday. Although as was expected the good in Guy excelled himself in Saturday's game against Drake and Captain Dick wore last year's style, while several others showed real football genius, it was noted that the Drake huskies broke through the line oftener than was altogether safe and that Cornhusker interference interfered the wrong way several times.

The watchful "Jumbo" has observed and is working to do away with these few weak points before the Huskers enter the field to bump heads with the Kansas delegation. This week will be spent in good solid practice and Stiehm will endeavor to plug up those holes in the line and smooth out that interference, so that in next Saturday's game the play will show none of the raggedness exhibited in the play with Drake. It is expected that there will be little shifting of players for the next game, the line-up against Drake remaining the same for Kansas. Herb Reese who showed exceptional skill and only needs a little experience to make a bad actor out of himself, will continue to hold down right half. Otoupalik and Doyle combination at full-back proved to work well while Riddell showed a master's touch at both offensive and defensive work at right end. Caley played a fast game last Saturday and he and Cook will probably alternate throughout the season.

GATHERING OF Y. M. AND Y. W.

Weinie Roast to be Held at Penitentiary Woods—Autos to Convey Parties

The Cabinets of the Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Associations will go to the penitentiary woods for a "weenie" roast Wednesday. Automobiles will take the members who meet at 5:30 o'clock at the Temple, and two machines will take those unable to go then, if they are at the theatre at 6:00 o'clock. Leave names with Helen Humpe and Harold Holtz at the Temple indicating the time.

The Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. have planned for several joint cabinet gatherings, among which are a progressive dinner party and a box social.

Military Appointments Made

In the Military Department Major P. M. Wickstrom, L. S. was promoted to St. Colonel of the regiment and A. L. Burnham to Captain. Later there will be several Lieutenants, one Captain and a number of non-commissioned officers selected.

TENNIS DRAWINGS YESTERDAY

Made at Antelope Park—Tournament Begins Today—Nine Draw Blanks

In the presence of C. S. Sherman, reporter on the Star, J. A. Cejnar and Chas. Gardiner, at the Antelope ball park, yesterday afternoon, the following tennis drawing was made:

Rube Kenner plays Bernard Knudson.

B. Aitkin plays T. W. Jeffries. W. B. Jeffrey plays Chas. Hyde. M. Young plays D. B. Dow. J. E. Raymond plays Art Schmidt. B. C. Hopewell plays Elmer Christenson.

The following drew blanks: John A. Cejnar. Harrison Line. Leland Chauyse. B. O'Brien. J. F. Nelson. Burken Taylor. Harry H. Ellis. Orville Chatt. Frank Longspit. The tournament will begin today.

New Members for "Ag" Club

The campaign of the Agricultural Club resulted in an addition of two hundred names to the membership roll out of a possible two hundred and forty. This explains the prevalence of so many red ribbons on the campus last week. Initiation of the new members will take place Saturday at eight o'clock at the Dairy Pavillion. The officers are working on some new "stunts" radically different from those of past years.

GERMAN CLUB ENTERTAINED

Miss Heppner Gives Party in Honor of Newly Weds—Refreshments Served

Miss Amanda Heppner entertained the members of the German Dramatic club last Saturday evening at a shower for Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Wedeking, who were recently married. The gifts were all useful household articles and each bore a little verse telling of the uses. A short business meeting was held, in which it was agreed that an "open meeting" for the state teachers would be held on the 10th of November. After a short musical program, refreshments were served.

A CONVOCATION IN MUSEUM

First of Series of "Know The University" Convocations—Under Prof. Barbour's Direction

In the Museum today at 11 o'clock will be held the first of a series of "Know the University" convocations. This will be under the direction of Prof. E. H. Barbour, Head of the Department of Geology, and will consist largely of short lectures on different things of interest in the building.

Of the many places on the campus of interest to new students the Museum is the one most likely to be passed over, as it is in a rather out of the way place for many of the students—directly north of Memorial Hall on Twelfth street.

This series of convocations has been arranged especially for the new students to enable them to get better acquainted with the university and to give them instruction on topics which they would otherwise not be likely to get. A large crowd is expected at the Museum today and arrangements have been made to accommodate them. A number of features of special interest have been prepared.

William Bauman, '15, spent Saturday and Sunday in Lincoln.

MAY FESTIVAL CHORUS

This is the last week to register for the chorus for the grand May Festival without a special fee. One hour's credit is allowed for this work. The regular rehearsals are held in Art Hall at 5 o'clock every Monday, Tuesday and Friday. A special rehearsal is held there Monday at 7 o'clock for the men who drill. The May Festival is one of the best annual celebrations at the University. It takes place the first week in May. As last year, the Damrosch Orchestra from New York City will be here. This year it will be larger than before, having seventy-five members. Membership in the chorus will entitle one to free admission to all concerts given by the orchestra.

TRACK WORK PROSPERS

Several Stars Out—Endeavor To Lengthen Training Season Insuring Better Success in Meets

Prospects are good for an excellent track team this spring according to the Athletic Director, Guy Reed.

One hundred and twelve men have registered so far, and new applicants are appearing every day. Mr. Reed wishes it understood that there is an opening for any one showing ability and wishing track work. Among the men who have been getting out for track several "diamonds in the rough" have been discovered.

"Cub" Wiley, one of the greatest track athletes Nebraska has ever had is back in school and keeps the track warm for two hours every afternoon.

His long suit is jumping and vaulting and the sprints. Besides this old time star we have Captain Scott, Erwin, Maxwell, O'Brien, Gardippe, Lebendorfer, Raechie, R. W. Scott, Garrison, Ribble, Jones, Aldrich, Bryan, Kratz, Ricke, Owen and several others.

The freshmen turnout is good, 62 athletes working up form for a chance at positions on the varsity team next year. The principal reason why Guy Reed is working so hard to encourage fall track work is to enable the Nebraska team to compete more successfully with teams who have a longer spring training period than they did. By putting the men in shape in the fall they will be in good shape at the opening of the spring track season and insure more chance of success against opposing teams.

ASSOCIATION AT FREMONT

Nebraska Library Association Met Last Week—Twenty-First Session

The twenty-first annual session of the Nebraska Library Association was held in Fremont last week. The meeting was opened with reports from each of the libraries in the state, from which articles, the growth in library work and the rapid cooperation of schools and libraries was noticed.

Mr. M. G. Wyer, Head Librarian, Miss Nellie Compton, '96, Miss Jessie Glass, '09, and Miss Josephine Lambers, '11, of the University library attended the meeting. Mr. Wyer was elected president of the association.

WELCOME BALL HAS MANY PATRONS

FIFTEEN PIECE ORCHESTRA HAS PLACE ON STAGE

STAGS ARE NOT WELCOME

Auditorium Not Expected to be Overcrowded—Four Hundred Couples Can be Accommodated—Floor Space Arranged

"The welcome at the First Annual Welcome Ball isn't meant for 'stags'" was the announcement made by De Witt Foster and Ted Metcalfe, managers of the dance for the Lincoln Commercial Club. A sign has been placed in the Alumni Office where the invitations are being issued, bearing the following inscription:

"Don't be a piker! You're expected to get a date for The Welcome Ball. Stags are not welcome."

Whether or not "stags" will be barred from attending the Welcome Ball could not be ascertained but the gentle suggestion that they will not be welcome is taken on the Campus as an indication that they will not be admitted.

Present indications are that the Auditorium will not be overly crowded for the Welcome Ball. The fifteen piece orchestra will occupy a place on the stage and the entire floor space will be used for dancing. About fifty invitations were issued Monday morning. Should a like number be given out each day until Friday only two hundred and fifty couples will attend. The Auditorium can easily accommodate four hundred couples with the floor space arranged as it is.

A list of patrons and patronesses was announced yesterday. They are as follows:

Governor and Mrs. J. H. Morehead. Mayor and Mrs. C. W. Bryan. Chancellor and Mrs. Avery. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Burket. Prof. and Mrs. P. M. Buck. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Whitten. Mr. F. J. Richards. Mr. and Mrs. S. R. McKelvie.

KOSMET KLUB PLAY WRITTEN

Maurice Clark '17 of Omaha the Composer—Try-outs for Music Later

Maurice Clark, '17, of Omaha, a student in the School of Drama, wrote the play chosen by the Kosmet Klub for their annual production. The music has not yet been chosen. Tryouts for the play will be held Tuesday, October 12th.

Raymond Robins at Wesleyan

Mr. Raymond Robins, social service leader and lecturer, is giving a series of addresses before the students of Nebraska Wesleyan today and tomorrow. Mr. Robins conducted a four days religious campaign in the University of Nebraska last year. His career has been an unusual one, and his messages to the students last winter were full of human interest. His story of his privations in the Klondike gold-fields and his conversion in the northern ice land made a profound impression. He speaks tonight and tomorrow night in the Wesleyan auditorium.
