MUSICAL PROGRAMS THURSDAY

Start Series Similar to Last Year—Mrs. Raymond to Play Organ

A series of musical programs similar to that of last year will be started next week, Thursday, at Convocation. These will start with overtures instead of symphonies, with Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond at the organ, accompanied by the string quartet, the first program being as follows:
 Overture to Der Freischutz....Weber
 Overture to Figaro's Hochzeit...Mozart
 Egmont Overture.....Beethoven
 Saturday at 3 o'clock in Art Hall. Prof. W. F. Dann will play over these overtures so that all who desire may become somewhat familiar with them before they are given in Convocation. All who attended these meetings last year found that they greatly increased appreciation.

Printing that's better, at Boyd's, 125 North 12th.

TWENTY-ONE IN TOURNAMENT

Four Rounds Have Been Played—Ellis Has Been in Semi-Finals

The twenty-seven men entered in the University tennis tournament have fought four rounds in one division with the result that their number is reduced to twenty-one. There are six rounds to be played this year.

The results of the games played are: L. Champe defaulted to Charles France; N. Young defeated D. B. Dow, 6-4 and 6-0; Art Schmidt defeated J. E. Raymond, 8-6 and 6-4; Paul Babson defaulted to Burke Taylor and Taylor was defeated by Harry Ellis, 6-0 and 6-1; O. Chatt defeated Longspit, 6-1 and 6-1. In the fourth round Ellis defeated Chatt, 6-0 and 8-6. Ellis is the only man who has played through to the semi-finals.

BREAKFAST AT STATE FARM

Statement in Yesterday's Nebraskan Corrected—Every Senior Expected to be on Hand

The Senior breakfast is to be held at the State Farm instead of Antelope Park as stated in yesterday's Nebraskan. This is to be one of the best Senior celebrations of the year. No Senior should be absent as this is especially for them and them only.

will buy you a splendid Suit or Overcoat ---either Kensington or Kuppenheimer.

At that figure we can afford to offer you the very best quality of materials and the highest grade of workmanship. You will get much more satisfaction from wearing clothes at that price than if you pay less.

"The Beaufort," "The Blake" and "The Biltmore" in Suits—"The George" and "The Noland" in Overcoats—are distinctive new models which we particularly want you to see. There's no obligation in looking, but there is a lot of satisfaction.

OUR KENMOR SPECIALS AT $15 are worth $20 as judged by ordinary standards. See them!
