Margaret Lewis was an Aksarben visitor Wednesday.

Kappa Sigma announces the pledging of Ray Hennis.

Madeline Stivers, '14, spent the week-end at her home in Lincoln.

Mrs. Vincent C. Hascall of Omaha, visited at the Alpha Chi Omega house Monday.

Marie Rowley, '18, Marie Petit, '18, and Myrtle Beeler, '18, will spend the week-end in Omaha.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Jettie Taylor, '11, to John Harvey Gray, October 1, in Manila, Philippine Islands.

The marriage of Agusta Hauston, '11, Kappa Alpha Theta, to Victor I. Jeep, '09, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, took place on September 28, at Tekamah.

Dr. George E. Condra has been out of the city this week on land studies in Eastern Nebraska. He will also visit his old home in Iowa before he returns.

Clara Powers, '17, Florida Young, '17, Racheal Kellog, '14, Leah Shaw, '14, Adele Davis, '16, Helen Lyford, '17, and Mrs. R. Anderson were in the city Saturday to attend the wedding of Helen Price, '14, Pi Beta Phi, to Clay Thomas, '14, Phi Gamma Delta.

Dean L. A. Sherman fractured the little finger of his left hand a few days ago. In saving himself from a fall at his home just before leaving for his early morning classes, his hand received the full force of his weight. He made no mention of the matter to anyone until his day's duties were at an end, when he had the finger set.

Lilah V. David, '09, was married to Herbert T. Folsom at the bride's home in Lincoln, Tuesday evening. Mr. Folsom is a member of the Union Coal Company. Mr. and Mrs. Folsom left for an eastern coast trip and will spend some time motoring in the Berkshire hills. They will return to Lincoln in about a month and will be at home to their friends after December 1 at 1645 G street.

Miss Sarah C. Joy and Rev. Oliver H. Cleveland were married at 8 o'clock Monday morning in Omaha. Bishop Arthur Williams performed the ceremony in the Episcopal chapel. Rev. Mr. Cleveland has been vicar of St. John's Episcopal church for two years. He is a son of the Rev. William J. Cleveland, a missionary among the Sioux Indians for thirty-five years, and attended the University of Nebraska. The bride was born at Peru, Neb., and after being graduated at the University of Nebraska in 1909, taught school. She has been at Laconner, Wash., for the past two years.

"Co-Eds" on Athletic Field

Field Hockey on the Athletic Field called twenty-four "Co-eds" out into the chilly air yesterday. It looks like they were playing the common old game of "shinny," but experts say there is more science in it than in football. Miss Gittings says the material for class teams is promising.

Proff A. D. Schrag in one of his interpretative courses yesterday told his students how in former times people used to embrace each other in times of exultant joy or intense sorrow. He said that when a student in Johns Hopkins, this used to be done when a touch-down was made. A rather low whisper was then heard. "What if that had been in vogue at Nebraska last Saturday!"
