Suits and Overcoats
$15 $20 $25

Few men expect to pay less than $15 for a Fall Suit or Overcoat. In fact it's not safe—cheaper clothes seldom give satisfactory service.

On the other hand, it's hardly necessary to pay more than $25 when Kensington and Kuppenheimer garments like those we offer this week are available.

At either of these prices, and in between, we have never shown clothes that we could recommend to our friends with greater confidence than we do these. We submit the clothes themselves as the best proof of their superiority—and the most we ask is a chance to show them to you.

Have you tried "Lewis" Union Suits? When you do you'll experience perfect comfort and lasting satisfaction. $1.00 to $6.00.

New Manhattan Shirts—distinctive, fade-proof patterns—$1.50 to $6.50

Stetson Fall Hats—unquestioned in quality. Shapes and shades for every taste—$3.50 to $5.

A New Perrin Glove—putty color with black silk embroidered backs—washable—$2. Other $1 to $4.

Magee's "Special" Hats—either Derbies or Soft Hats—great values at $2 and $3.
