Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

It is, at least, a novelty to be able to sit upon an inverted wastebasket in the library because of the congestion.

TWO IN ONE

There has been more or less discussion prevalent upon the campus in regard to having but one prom this year, that is, instead of having both a senior prom and a junior prom, it is urged that an effort be made to have one function handled by the members of the two classes. Past experiences have shown that it has been necessary for the committees in charge of these affairs to urge some students to attend in order to meet expenses. If the two classes unite their efforts that difficulty will probably not be experienced, for the attendance will be adequate with necessitating coercion on the part of the committeemen.

A number of schools have but one class prom each year, and that honor they bestow upon the junior class. If there are not enough big dances during the year, let us have two proms. If one real class prom will be appreciated more, arrange to have the classes work together or turn the matter over to the junior class, as do a number of the other schools.

If the having of two class proms lowers the dignity of each, have one; if not, have two.

If the university is to have an expert to increase the efficiency of the various departments, why does it not have some experts to increase the efficiency of the work of the students?

Mystery of Wire Fence

For what is the wire fence that at present decorates the floor of the Law library. Some contend it is to be used in the library, others claim it is to be used by Justice Edmister at the re-hearing of the Ganz & Carr vs. Williams & Pressley trial. There is no question in the minds of those who heard the trial Friday but that the justice needs the protection.

Joy just hangs on every puff

How a pipe of "Tux" does bubble over with good cheer and sunny comfort! There's something about the mellow taste of "Tux" that stirs a smoker's soul. It gets into his inside works, sweetens his disposition, and gives him that perky, cheery feeling, like a high-stepper trotting down the avenue.
