BOARD OF REGENTS MET YESTERDAY

SEVERAL NEW APPOINTMENTS MADE AND AFFIRMED

DISCUSS TRACK PROPOSITION

Seek Closer Co-operation with Alumni of the University—Social Science Hall Considered—Accept Invitation to Game

The Board of Regents met in the office of Chancellor Avery at 11 o'clock yesterday. All the regents were present. The following new appointments were made and confirmed: John H. Howe, assistant in chemistry; N. C. Anderson, herdsman in the dairy department; M. E. Dickson, assistant professor of poultry husbandry, and R. E. Holland, instructor in agronomy. Part of these appointments had already been made by committees of the board and came up at this time only for formal confirmation.

A number of small readjustments in appointments were made. The balances in the cash accounts of the forestry department were transferred to horticulture for use in instruction in forestry and landscape gardening. The action of the committee in apportioning $600 for poultry husbandry was confirmed.

The following resignations were received: G. H. Anderson, assistant in agricultural botany; Lulu Menlove, chief of the stenographic bureau.

The president of the Board of Regents was authorized to sign for grading Dewey avenue and Forty-second street in Omaha, abutting on the medical campus.

Upon assembling at 1:30, the board spent considerable time in discussing the matter of the efficiency agent and directed the chancellor to continue his search among the universities of the country having such officials and report at a later meeting.

The board expressed itself as desiring closer co-operation with the Alumni association of the university and to this end authorized Regent Brown, the only alumnus now on the Board of Regents, to invite the alumni directors to meet with the regents at such times as important university policies might be determined upon. It is hoped that a joint session of the alumni directors and the regents can be arranged at an early date.

The board spent considerable time in looking over the various sidetrack propositions, but were unable to determine just what recommendation to make to the city council until further consideration. A report was received from the engineering department, showing that the entrance up Eleventh street, though requiring more track and a steeper grade, was physically possible.

Tentative plans for the Social Science hall were considered and the chancellor directed to confer with the architects and the faculty committee in order to ascertain how the erection of a building as proposed would effect the future development of the campus.

A request was received from Librarian M. G. Wyer, asking for a small appropriation for the work of the library. Owing to the presence of 200 students in excess of the attendance last year, the library is more over-

HOLD HOMECOMING

First Affair of the German Dramatic Club Is Attended by Many Alumni

The German Dramatic club held its first homecoming of former members Friday night in Union hall. A musical program, consisting of vocal and violin selections by the Misses Reusch and Schulte was followed by Pohl's one-act comedy, "Die Schulleiterin." The play was very well presented and proved a source of great entertainment even though there were some people present who couldn't understand German.

After the program, the members of the German Dramatic club and their guests returned to Faculty hall, where delicious refreshments were served and a social hour was passed.

There were a large number of alumni present, and it is the intention of the club to make the homecoming an annual affair.

AGRICULTURISTS TO MEET

Will Be Held at the Home of Prof. Chase—Some Interesting Talks Scheduled

The Agricultural Engineering society will meet with the Agricultural Engineering faculty and the Agricultural Engineering seminar Wednesday evening, November 10, at 7:30 o'clock, with Prof. Chase at his home, 1245 North Thirty-third street.

Mr. Coe will give a talk on forge work and repairs, and Prof. Chase on the plans and equipment of the new Agricultural Engineering building.

It is hoped to form a union of the organizations and have bi-monthly meetings, where papers of interest to engineering agricultural students will be given. We extend a hearty invitation to you to come out and help in these meetings and enjoy the association of your fellows in a home.

LESS POLITICS AT TEACHERS' MEETING

DEAN LUCKEY OF UNIVERSITY WAS FAVORITE NOMINEE

RESUME OF THE WORK DONE

Larger Attendance Than Usual—Some University Seniors Attend—National Bureau of Education Represented

The teachers' association was marked by greater freedom from squabbles and politics than in former times; while the attendance was full and better than ever, reaching about 4,200. The University of Nebraska was well represented in former students and by the number of faculty and alumni on the various programs and in various other phases of association activities.

Dr. G. W. A. Luckey was the favorite nominee for president, securing nearly twice as many votes as his nearest competitor, Dean Holmes of the Wayne normal. Other nominees for this office were E. U. Graff of Omaha R. V. Clark of Kearney and Earl M. Cline of Nebraska City. The votes are not yet all counted.

Among University people appearing on the program or as officers of the sectional meetings were Chancellor Avery, Dr. Lindsey, Prof. Swenk, Prof. Brenke, Dr. Irving S. Cutter, Dr. J. C. Moore, Dr. H. K. Wolfe, Dr. Louise Pound, Miss Alice Howell, Prof. M. M. Fogg, C. W. Pugsley, Dean E. A. Burnet, Dean Chas. Fordyce, Miss Amanda Heppner, Miss Huldah Peterson, Miss Ina Gittings, Miss Grace Mensor, G. E. Lewis, Prof. Paul Grummann, Dr. Guernsey Jones, Miss Helen Lee Davis, Miss Alice Loomis, Miss Maude Mathes Wilson, Prof. Raymond Pool and Prof. R. W. Wolcott.

Some of the Seniors attended and found that mixing with the educators of the state contributed greatly to a fostering of professional spirit.

The university luncheon was not as well attended as it should have been because of a misunderstanding. For some reason there was no arrangements made with the hotel management although the luncheon was scheduled for Thursday. Hence there was a large crowd of University people in the lobby on Thursday who were disappointed. By Friday noon, Mr. Mumford and Mr. Voss had taken the initiative and organized a luncheon. About 150 attended. Dr. Luckey presided as toastmaster and impromptu toasts were responded to as follows:

"Alumni at Work." Dr. H. K. Wolfe. Dr. Wolfe paid very fine tributes to Dr. Bessey and to Dr. Howard.

"Alumni at Play." Miss Eda Marquardt of Plattsmouth, superintendent of Cass county schools. Miss Marquardt related the incidents of her travels in Germany, where she had met a number of Nebraska students and professors.

"Alumni in History." Mrs. Atkinson of Omaha, who is head of the department of history in the Omaha high school.

"Alumni at Home." Dean Burnet, who discussed the greater opportunities for graduate study in the University of Nebraska.

Much credit for the success of this

RALLY ON ATHLETIC FIELD TOMORROW AT 5:00 O'CLOCK

Memorial Hall is not large enough to hold the big rally Wednesday in preparation for the Kansas game so the authorities have scheduled it to come off on the athletic field at 5 o'clock. Commandant Parker will lead the "army" for the occasion and the band, sixty strong, will add to the enthusiasm.

The Varsity cheer leaders, Taylor and Harkson, will be there to put the "pep" into all who come out. The question is do you want another Missouri Valley Championship bad enough to spend an hour in helping win it? Do you?

ENGINEERS' HOP SUCCESSFUL

Over One Hundred Couples Attended—New Dances Popular—First Departmental Dance of Year

Over 100 Couples attended the Engineers' dance at the Lincoln last Saturday night. This was the first departmental dance of the season and the committee could have disposed of 25 more tickets had they been available.

The new dances were in evidence, and the "Charlie Chaplin" in all its variations, made its first appearance at an all-University dance. The refreshments were excellent and in fact everything moved off nicely.

Dean and Mrs. O. V. P. Stout and Prof. and Mrs. L. W. Chase were the chaperones. The music was furnished by Scott's fifteen-piece orchestra.

crowded than ever, and the strain on the assistants there greater. The request of Librarian Wyer was granted.

The regents received an invitation from the athletic board, through Assistant Director Mr. Guy Geed to attend the two-Nebraska football game at the time of the homecoming on November 23. The invitation was accepted.

Pharmacy Examinations

The Nebraska State Board of Pharmacy will hold their quarterly examinations on Wednesday and Thursday in the laboratory of the College of Pharmacy.

CATHOLIC STUDENTS MEETING

Bishop Tihen Made the Address—Elected Delegate to the National Convention

The Catholic Students' club met on Sunday afternoon in the Music hall of the Temple. The bishop in a very eloquent address impressed the students with the need and value of religion. He mentioned among other things that no people at any time lacked religion and that even in the times of the early Greeks there existed a feeling of veneration for a higher being. He also told the students to be very devout and sincere in their religious practices.

In an enthusiastic business meeting which followed, Leo McShane, '18, the president, was elected as delegate to the national convention, to be held at Purdue university, the latter part of November.

The first of a series of Biblical lectures to be given by Father O'Loughlin, will be held on Sunday evening, November 21, at the Cathedral on Fourteenth and K streets.

Prof. Louise Pound will speak at the Y. W. C. A. vesper service today on "Girls and Their Books."
