KEEP HER DOWN

The Monarch is responsible for the statement that, "even though Ames did defeat Iowa, the game to be played here next Saturday will be a real fight." The one ambition of Ames was to crush Iowa. She succeeded. Our one aim from now on must be to keep Iowa crushed and that means that our enthusiasm must not subside.

Not a few students are counting the days from now until the time they will be able to eat Thanksgiving dinner with the folks at home.

HOME-COMING MIXER

The big event planned for next Saturday evening is not alone for the students but for the alumni as well. This does not mean that the students are to stay away but that they should be on hand to help entertain the "Old Guard." Everyone is familiar with the fact that our facilities are not the best, but under the circumstances, make it a point to show the alumni what a great institution we have developed in a year—the Mixer.

It is not our policy to do advertising in this column, but keep in mind that "Believe Me Xantippe" is not an ordinary play, it is the result of the dramatic efforts of a Nebraska graduate of renown.
