Many Rumors of Post-Season Games
 Are Heard Floating About, but Nothing Definite Has Been Decided Upon

The terrific drubbing of the Jay-hawkers by the Huskers last Saturday coupled with the fact that Ames cleaned up Iowa University by a score of 13 to 0 on the same day, gives Cornhusker fans the right to hope that the game next Saturday will result in an easy victory for the Huskers and another all-victorious season will be accredited to the year 1915. It is never safe, however, to count the score before the game, and this the Cornhuskers fully realize. Anyone who may think that Coach Stiehm is

PERSONAL

Ruth Jorgenson, '18, returned Sunday from a house party at the home of Lydia Dawson in David City.

V. L. Strickland, '06, superintendent of schools at Tecumseh, was a guest at the Graduate Teachers' club, Friday night.

Prof. J. H. Frandsen addressed the Farmers' institute at Ashland on Friday last. On Saturday he spoke before the Farmers' union at Fremont.

Kappa Alpha Theta held an informal dance at the chapter house Saturday night. About fifteen couples attended. Mrs. Sanborn chaperoned.

The Komensky Klub wish to extend their heartfelt sympathy to G. W. Anderson, '19, one of their members, because of the death of his mother last Saturday.

Ruth Jelen, former student of the University of Nebraska, has contributed an excellent article to the "Fraternal Weekly" on the teaching of Bohemian in the high schools of Nebraska.

Cora Freidline, '13, A. M. '15, who is taking graduate work at Bryn Mawr college and who holds a fellowship in psychology there, has written home some very enthusiastic letters about her work.

Margaret Wooster, '13, F. M. '15, who held a Fellowship in Psychology at Nebraska last year and is now teaching at Chadron, visited friends in Lincoln during the Teachers' convention at Omaha.

The following members of Alpha Chi Omega attended the Kansas-Nebraska game: Ruth Whitmore, Marie Cusack, Frances Whitmore, Marian Kastle, Hannah McCorkindale, Geneva Chesley and Mrs. Jeary.

The following have written Prof. Sarka Hrbek, signifying their intention to attend the homecoming game: Vasta Sterba, '14, Omaha; Ruth Jelen, Milligan; Mildred Cerney, Crete; Cyril Hrbek, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Valentine Kuska, '13, Denver, Colo; and Anna Jelen, Wilber.

Mrs. Clark Jeary, Marie Cusack, '17, Marion Kastle, '17, Ruth Whitmore, '17, Geneva Chesley, '18, Hannah McCorkindale '19 and Frances Whitmore, '19, went to Kansas on the Friday night special. They visited the Lawrence chapter of Alpha Chi Omega and attended the football game. They returned Sunday morning.

The members of the Kappa Kappa

Gamma sorority who attended the game at Lawrence Saturday were: Isabelle Sheldon, Anne Russell, Camille Leyda, Lucile Leyda, Jeanette Teegarden, Ella Williams, Marian Hall, Helen Hall, Josephine Burkett, Phebe Folsom, Helen Shepherd, Lucile Foster, Lula Mitchell and Miss Louise Pound.

Mr. Lewis F. Noffs, president of the Noffs Glass Works of Chicago, and Mrs. Noffs were guests of Prof. and Mrs. Frandsen on Monday. Mr. Noffs gave a very interesting and instructive lecture before the dairy seminar. He spoke on the manufacture of glassware used in the chemical laboratory. The Noffs works makes a specialty of glassware for dairy testing. At present Mr. Noffs says, there is a great demand for glassware of other kinds, but he has not undertaken to supply the want, for he feels that when the war is over, the trade will go back to the German and Austrian markets.

Peru, Nebr., Nov. 14.—Prof. L. F. Garey, of Lincoln, has been secured to succeed Prof. H. C. Heard as head of the department of agriculture in the Peru normal and as associate professor of biology. Professor Garey is teaching agriculture in the Lincoln high school and incidentally is confined to his home with smallpox. He is a graduate of the Peru normal in the class of 1910, of the University of Nebraska for the B. S. degree in 1912 and has also had successful experience as a high school principal and a superintendent of schools in Nebraska. Professor Heard leaves Peru the last of next week for his new work in the University of Arkansas.

George C. Flack, of Omaha, and Harry B. Coffee, of Chadron, college chums and life long friends will start this morning on a 19,000 mile trip that will consume from nine months to a year. They go to Chicago on the first leg of their journey. From there they will go to St. Paul and thence to Seattle, Vancouver and Portland. At the last named place they will begin their journey by water, going down to San Francisco and then to Los Angeles. Then they will get back on to the railroad and travel across country to New Orleans. There they will take steamer and sail for Colon, where they will cross to the Pacific coast by steamer and go to Valparaiso and thence by rail across country to Buenos Aires. From there they will sail for New York, stopping at numerous points en route.

While in South America the young men will make numerous trips into the interior, hunting and exploring. Mr. Coffee was graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1912. During his four years in school he be-
