Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1915

The sale for the first day of Cornhusker Banquet tickets was better than expected; but that does not mean you will be required to stay away. Perhaps you have the price with you today.

When it comes to chess, the University professors are surely on the map.

Corey is a good man for the leadership of the Cornhusker eleven—everyone back the new captain and keep Nebraska at the pinnacle of football fame.

If the program arranged for the banquet does not appeal to you, you must be hard to please. There is a variety, at least.

We have urged for many a day that the reporters on the Daily Nebraskan be given credit for their work either in the form of money or university credit hours. It is not necessary for us to call attention to the fact that there were several columns of "boiler plate" in the paper yesterday but it is necessary to state that the reporters are now able to do pretty much as they please in regard to getting in their stories because the editorial staff has no leverage on them. The Nebraskan will never be one of the best college papers until the reporters receive credit.

When we have a skating rink on the athletic field we may expect to see the girls play ice hockey.

Fremont.—George Marshall, Fremont's well known citizen, now in his eighty-first year, entertained at a party recently at which all of his guests were more than eighty years of age. Mr. Marshall himself is unusually active, employing his faculties in furthering his inventions and in studying political topics of the day. Mr. Marshall issued invitations to forty-six persons in Dodge and Saunders counties. Ten were unable to come. The oldest guest was Randolph Seeley, of Scribner, who is ninety-three years old.

Pistol Duel on York Street.

York.—As the result of a pistol battle on the street here between Watchman Springer and a tramp named Campbell, the tramp is in a hospital with a bullet wound in his abdomen and another in the head and will probably die. The policeman was uninjured. When Springer went to the train he found two tramps, whom he placed under arrest and started for the jail. Campbell suddenly jerked a pistol and commanded Springer to throw up his hands. Springer pulled his own pistol and both men started shooting. Campbell's bullets went wild, but Springer hit with both shots. The second tramp says the two intended bumming their way out of town on the night train.

Hard Lines for the Thirsty.

Omaha.—The tourist who likes something to drink on the side while he is traveling will be in "hard luck" through Nebraska after January 1. The going into effect of the prohibition laws of Iowa and Colorado will do away with the sale of liquor on railroad lines going into and out of these states and most of the Nebraska lines likewise run into the two dry commonwealths. Railway officials say that they are glad of the opportunity to dispense with the sale of liquor since it has never been a source of revenue.

Back From War Hospitals

Broken Bow.—Miss Alice Beale, secretary of the Red Cross association of nurses at Cleveland, who has just returned from Budapest after fourteen months of Red Cross work in the war hospitals there, is in Broken Bow visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Beale.

Barbecue Attracts Many People

Superior.—Ten thousand people attended the big barbecue given by the merchants of Superior.
