BUSINESS STAFF IS APPOINTED

LIVELY CONTEST STARTED IN CORNHUSKER ADVERTISING

MANAGEMENT OFFER PRIZES

Customary Commission Will Also be Awarded—Lists of Business Firms is Taken at the Staff Meeting

The business manager of the 1916 Cornhusker announces the appointment of the following business staff:

Assistant business managers—Edward Bauman, Dewitt Foster, Earnest Linn, Jack Hartman, Ellsworth Moser. Omaha business manager—C. F. Holtenbeck.

Foreign business manager—Walter Blunk.

At a meeting of the staff, Tuesday evening, a competitive plan for the securing of advertising was mapped out by the business manager. Under this plan the assistants will receive not only the customary commission for writing Cornhusker advertising, but will also be in line for the $5, $3, and $1 prizes which the business management offers to the assistants who sell the most advertising between now and February 1.

Lists of business firms were taken by the men and the whole campaign planned out in such a way as to assure a thorough covering of the advertising field.

COLLEGES TALK PROHIBITION

It is the Subject of Intercollegiate Debate in Many of the Eastern Schools

National prohibition is a favorite topic of intercollegiate debate in the eastern colleges this season. The Amherst-Williams-Wesleyan Triangular uses the question—"that the sale, manufacture, importation and exportation of alcoholic beverages, except for scientific and medicinal purposes, should be prohibited by an amendment to the constitution." This is a stronger statement of National Prohibition than that of the Hobson bill now before congress. Williams follows the triangular in a dual debate with Union on the same question.

Student Opinion, a stirring new weekly at the University of California, is perhaps the first student publication launched for the distinctive purpose of raising the standards of student activities in a large university. It came into existence in response to a large student demand for a medium of expression on student "politics," cleaner athletics, a more popular and democratic expression in the student governing body, and for leadership against drinking and the sort of influences that go with it both inside and outside of college life. It is leading the movement at California against the serving of intoxicants at student affairs and after the big games.

The Minnesota Daily, one of the greatest student publications of the west, came out vigorously in support of prohibition in the recent Minneapolis campaign. The action of the "wets" in attempting to buy the support of student politicians the Daily characterized "as on a plane with the cause which they represent." "We regard this as a deliberate attempt to corrupt the morals of the student voter" it said.

Professor M. M. Fogg

During the last eight years in which Nebraska has been represented in debate, she has enjoyed "an all-victorious year" six times. The consistent ability of Cornhusker teams in verbal combats is due in large part to the coaching of Prof. M. M. Fogg, who has achieved a record for Nebraska in debate which rivals her gridiron successes. This year, by mutual agreement, a large part of actual coaching by faculty members has been done away with, but the "Fogg system" is still intact, and its results will be seen in the Kansas-Nebraska debate on the subject of Armament.

INNOCENTS REPROVE DE FORD

He and His Accomplices Are Removed From School Until After the Holidays

As the result of the unfortunate incident Friday evening, one young man and nine young ladies have been suspended from the University until January 1st, upon the approval of the Girls' Club Board, The Black Masque, and the Innocents. A landlady, who was implicated in the affair, was also censured by the University authorities.

The Girls' Club Board and members of The Black Masque at a meeting Tuesday at 11 o'clock, voiced the following sentiment:

"We do heartily disapprove and severely censure the action of the landlady, of the girls implicated, and of George DeFord last Friday evening."

The Innocents at a meeting yesterday noon expressed the same disapproval of the performance.

In connection with this the purchase of two lots in McCormick's addition, Omaha, was authorized. These lots are adjacent to the present medical college grounds, and the streets proposed to be vacated are to become an addition to the campus.

The matter of consolidating the two departments of experimental and instructional agronomy is referred to the committee on industrial education with power to act.

The board spent some time in conference with Architect Hodgson, and a committee of University alumni in the matter of proposed modifications of the layout of the city campus in Lincoln, and proposed plans for a new building for the College of Arts and Sciences. Adjournment was had before any conclusion was reached in the matter.

The property committee was given power to act on consideration of bids and awarding contracts for construction of the new chemistry building on city campus and the new hospital building on medical campus in Omaha.

The semi-annual report of Secretary Dales was received and directed to be transmitted as the regents' semi-annual report to the governor.

Foster at Tuesday's Convocation
Geo. N. Foster, L. L. B. '11, Professor of Law, spoke at Convocation Tuesday on "Debating." Professor Foster was a member of the Nebraska Debating Team which met the Northwestern University Debating team in 1912, and is indeed well qualified to do his subject justice, as was shown by the manner in which he told of debating in former years at Nebraska and the place it should occupy in a university.

Professor Dean Addresses A. S. M. E.

The regular meeting of the student branch of the A. S. M. E. was held Tuesday, December 7. After a short business meeting Prof. C. L. Dean was introduced and the meeting turned over to him. He gave an interesting talk on the improvements being made on the modern locomotive.

After giving a few figures on economical improvements Professor Dean showed lantern slides of the standard and special types of locomotives, both in freight and passenger service.

A NEBRASKAN'S DIARY PAGES

O. W. Meier Tells of Interesting Experiences Abroad—Meets Nebraskans

O. W. Meier, '98, has handed the Daily Nebraskan an interesting page from his diary in which he tells of meeting some of the present faculty members as students in the German universities and other Nebraskans abroad:

"On leaving Manila at the close of the war, I applied to the American consul for passports, telling him that I intended to travel in foreign countries. The consul there advised me to obtain them from the consul-general at Shanghai, who had authority to issue such papers, if I were going that way, otherwise they would have to be forwarded to me from Washington.

"A fortnight later, at Christmas time, I landed at Shanghai, having taken an American transport from Manila to Nagasaki and then a French liner from there to the Chinese coast, after spending a short while in Japan. I called at once at the office of the transportation company to buy passage to Europe, and offered American gold for a ticket, but was informed that payment had to be made in money of the realm. The banks were closed, as here on holidays, and I had nothing but United States coin. I remembered then that it was there that I should

KANSAS SELECTS THIRD SPEAKERS

THEIR NAMES WILL BE ANNOUNCED TOMORROW

TO DEBATE IN FRASER HALL

Kansas Expects an Unusual Audience—Squad Takes Hike to Baldwin Followed by a Steak Roast

The names of the last two speakers on both the negative and affirmative teams will be announced tomorrow morning, just before the negative team leaves for Lincoln. The third man on each team is never selected until a few days prior to the contest, when they are selected from a squad of candidates who have been carrying either the negative or affirmative arguments to their conclusions.

The debate will be held in Fraser Hall, as usual. Attempts were made to engage the Bowerock theater when the interest shown made it evident that an unusual crowd would attend the contest, but the management of the theater had booked an outside attraction for the date. Fraser Hall is sure to be "jammed," Friday night, when the two ancient rivals meet again, this time on the platform and not on the athletic field.

The eight men on the debating squad, accompanied by Prof. Howard T. Hill and Hugo "Dutch" Wedell, "hiked" to Baldwin Saturday for a steak roast and a general discussion of plans for the reception of the enemy.

NEBRASKA JUNIOR AN ORATOR

Church in Stromsburg is Not Large Enough to Hold the Big Crowd

The following communication was clipped from the Stromsburg paper concerning a Nebraska Junior:

"Rowland N. Cloud, of New Jersey, is lecturing in Nebraska and will lecture to our townspeople next Friday evening at the Eden Baptist church. Mr. Cloud traces his lineage back into the French nobility and his story is unusually interesting. His lecture is entitled the 'Secrets of a Great Physician' and is a popular lecture bristling with thought and filled with humor. Mr. Cloud has a record hardly equaled. At eighteen he was widely known throughout the Eastern states as the 'Boy Preacher,' and was then the youngest pastor in the country. When but a college sophomore he was invited to give this lecture as the graduating address for a large high school. Recently when Mr. Cloud delivered this lecture at Wahoo where he had spoken before the opera house was not large enough to contain the people who wished to hear him again. Mr. Cloud is one of the best and most eloquent young lecturers in the country and Stromsburg is fortunate in having this chance to hear him."

Girls' Mass Meeting

A mass meeting of all Sophomore girls will be held at 11 o'clock today in Law 101. Important.
