John Cook, '18, spent the holidays in Florida with his family.

Amy McCabe of Columbus, is spending a few days with Florence Bishop.

Vilas Spohn, '17, of Superior, will return to Lincoln, Wednesday, to attend the University next semester.

Vance Traphagen, '17, returned Friday to Harvard after spending the holidays at his home in Lincoln.

Eugene Wettling, ex-'18, spent the holidays in the city. He is now attending school in New York City.

Frank Morrissey, '18, who has been visiting at the Sigma Nu House, returned Sunday to Lawrence, Kansas.

Miss R. Louise Fitch of Cambridge, Ill., national president of Delta Delta Delta sorority, spent Sunday in Lincoln.

Miss Alice Howell is receiving a visit from her sister, Mrs. Wilber Knight, dean of women at the University of Wyoming.

Arthur Bell, who has been teaching at Filley, and Donald Berquist from Shickley, were visitors at the Sigma Nu House last week.

Reed B. Dawson, '15, who has been visiting his parents during the holidays, left Friday for Harvard to resume his studies in the Law College.

Golden Rule, '18, who went home last semester on account of illness will be in Lincoln the last of the week. She will resume her studies next semester.

The University Players, under the direction of Miss Alice Howell, gave two performances of "Believe Me Xantippe," at the Oliver Theatre on New Year's Day.

Capt. Charles W. Weeks, '98, with his wife and three children of Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, spent the holidays in Lincoln. Mrs. Weeks was formerly Miss Jennie Guile, '97.

Of the Lincoln men who are members of the Ford peace party only William F. Noble has been heard from since the Oscar II left New York. Several days ago Lincoln friends of Mr. Noble received a card from him dated at Christiana, Norway, and giving the brief information that he intended to spend Christmas at Stockholm. No other information concerning the three has reached Lincoln. Friends of Walter Hixenbaugh, the other University student on the ship, have not been advised of his movements and Mrs. A. L. Weatherly has not heard a word from Mr. Weatherly.

Professor George Elliott Howard attended a Sociological Congress at Washington, D. C., last week. Professor Howard was a delegate of the Pan-American Congress and read two papers.

Professor Addison Edwin Sheldon went to Washington, D. C., to be present at a Political Science Congress. Professor Sheldon read a paper before the Legislative Reference Bureau at Washington.
